In all other actions, whether arising from professional malpractice or otherwise, the cause of action shall be deemed to have accrued as of the time of the occurrence, act or omission complained of, and the limitation period shall not be extended by reason of any continuing consequences or damages resulting therefrom or any continuing professional or commercial relationship between the injured party and the alleged wrongdoer;

- (1) under the age of majority;
- (2) insane; or
- (3) imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution, upon conviction of a criminal offense, for a term less than for life; then the term during which such disability continues is not deemed any portion of the time limitation for the commencement of such action or the making of such entry or defense, but such action may be commenced, or entry or defense made, within the period of five (5) years after such disability shall cease, or after the death of the person entitled who shall die under such disability; but such action shall not be commenced or entry or defense made after that period.

(b) Tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction or the validity of tribal law may be questioned in cases in the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals in which the Nez Perce Tribe or any agency, officer, or employee thereof is not a party; and

(c) With adequate, timely, and uniform notice of cases in the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals that question tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction or the validity of tribal law, the Nez Perce Tribe can effectively assess whether and how to participate in such cases.

§1-7-2 Purpose

The purpose of this Chapter is to provide the Nez Perce Tribe with adequate, timely, and uniform notice of any and all cases in the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals that question tribal sovereignty and jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law and in which the Nez Perce Tribe or any agency, officer, or employee thereof is not a party.

§1-7-3 Notice Required

(a) Upon the filing of any action or proceeding in which the Nez Perce Tribe or any agency, officer or employee thereof is not a party, the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals will promptly inform all parties in writing of the requirements of this Chapter. Any party to such a proceeding that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction, or the validity of any tribal law will give notice thereof to Chairman of the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee and the Office of Legal Counsel. Such notice will identify the action or proceeding and will include a brief written explanation of the grounds upon which tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of tribal law is being questioned. Any party giving notice under this Chapter will simultaneously file proof with the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals that notice has been given as required by this Chapter.

(b) If notice is required under this Chapter, upon the Nez Perce Tribe's timely written request, the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals or any party will timely serve copies of all subsequent filings and orders in the case on the Chairman of the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee and the Office of Legal Counsel.

Upon intervening under this Chapter, the Nez Perce Tribe may assert any and all available claims and defenses and may present any and all admissible evidence relating to the question of its sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law, and is entitled to the same relief, as if the Nez Perce Tribe had instituted a separate action or proceeding; provided that, the Tribe will not be required to pay costs of litigation in any action or proceeding in which it has intervened under this Chapter. Intervention under this Chapter does not abridge, limit, or otherwise affect the right of the Nez Perce Tribe to commence, maintain, defend, or otherwise intervene in actions or proceedings in the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals.

(b) Upon timely motion or application, the Nez Perce Tribe may appear as amicus curiae (friend of the court) in any action or proceeding that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law.

§1-7-6 Information Sharing and Consultation

In any action or proceeding in the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals that questions tribal sovereignty or jurisdiction or the validity of any tribal law in which the Nez Perce Tribe does not intervene or appear as amicus curiae, the Nez Perce Tribe may nevertheless share important knowledge with any party involved in the action or proceeding. This could include assistance in responding to formal discovery requests or acting as an informal consultant.

§1-7-7 Timeliness of Participation Determinations

§1-7-8 Failure to Give Notice Not Jurisdictional or Waiver of Rights

The failure of the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals or any party to give notice as required by this Chapter does not deprive the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals of jurisdiction and is not a waiver or modification of any rights otherwise timely asserted by any party. Any notice given under this Chapter is not a substitute for, or a waiver or a modification of, any other requirement under this Code.

§1-7-9 Late Notice

If the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals or any party discovers that notice to the Nez Perce Tribe under this Chapter should have been but has not been given, the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals or party will promptly give notice in writing to the Tribe as required by this Chapter. The Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals may stay the action or proceeding at any stage to allow compliance with this Chapter. If final judgment has already been entered, the Tribe may motion or apply for rehearing as of right, the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals will entertain promptly any such motions or applications for rehearing by the Tribe, and in disposing of such motions the Tribal Court or the Nez Perce Tribal Court of Appeals, for good cause shown, may vacate a judgment or any portion thereof.

(2) Any juvenile delinquency matter.

- (4) Any matter from a specialty court judge or official referred to the Peacemaker Court.
- (b) In a criminal or juvenile delinquency matter, the prosecutor, defendant, and victim(s) must agree to the transfer to Peacemaker Court. Non-parties may not request or object to the transfer of a matter to or from the Peacemaker Court.
- (c) If at any time during Peacemaker proceedings, the victim(s), prosecutor, defense attorney or defendant determines that Peacemaker Court is unable to effectively resolve the conflict or dispute, any of these persons may request in writing to the Nez Perce Tribal Court that the case be transferred back to the Nez Perce Tribal Court and an order transferring the case must be issued by the Nez Perce Tribal Court.

§1-8-10 Resolutions

- (a) The Peacemaker Court may request that the matter be transferred back to the Tribal Court or other specialty court because it cannot be resolved. Under such circumstances, the Peacemakers shall submit a signed statement indicating the matter cannot be resolved and the reasons for the decision. Upon receipt of such statement from the Peacemakers, a Tribal Court judge or specialty court judge or official must issue an order transferring the matter back to their court.
- (b) The Peacemaker Court may issue a Peacemaking Resolution and submit the Resolution to the Tribal Court or authorized official of a specialty court when the parties participating in the Peacemaker Court have reached an agreement they wish to have confirmed and recorded by the Court. The Tribal Court may issue the Judgment/Order if:

- (1) The Tribal Court or specialty court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of the agreement;
 - (2) The Peacemaker Court provides reasonable evidence that all necessary persons and parties have agreed to be bound by the terms of the agreement;
 - (3) The proposed Judgment or Order contains the complete agreement of the parties such that a dispute regarding the agreement reached in Peacemaker Court is unlikely to arise;
 - (4) The proposed Judgment or Order would otherwise be proper and enforceable by the Tribal Court or specialty court.
- (c) The Judgment or Order may be enforced by the Tribal Court as any other judgment of the Tribal Court or specialty court may be enforced.

This provision applies only to minor disputes such as nuisance, animal trespass or annoyance, non-violent disorderly conduct, non-violent breaches of the peace, drug abuse or alcohol overuse by adults. Agreements resulting from these Peacemaker Court sessions are not enforceable in Tribal Court or other specialty court. (a) "Criminal action" means the proceedings by which a party charged with a public offense is accused and brought to trial and punishment, potentially including imprisonment, is imposed.

(b) "Probable cause" exists under this chapter when an officer or the Tribal Court has substantial objective basis for believing that a person has committed an offense. In determining whether probable cause exists, the officer or tribal judge may take into account all information which a prudent officer or judge would deem relevant to the likelihood that an offense has been committed and that the person charged has committed it.

Rule 2 Legal Conviction Necessary for Punishment

No person can be punished for an offense except upon a legal conviction, including a plea or admission of guilt in open court. No incarceration or other disposition of one accused of an offense prior to trial in accordance with these rules shall be deemed a punishment.

Rule 3 Rights of Defendant

In a criminal action the defendant is entitled:

- (a) to a speedy and public trial;
- (b) to be informed of the nature of the charges against him and to have a written copy of the charges;
- (c) to appear and defend in person or by an attorney at the defendant's expense;
- (d) to not be twice placed in jeopardy for the same offense by the Nez Perce Tribe;
- (e) to not be compelled in a criminal action to be a witness against himself;
- (f) to confront and cross examine all witnesses against him;
- (g) to be subjected before conviction to no more restraint than is necessary to insure his appearance to answer the charge and/or to protect the public;
- (h) to compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses in his own behalf;
- (i) to a trial by jury unless expressly waived;
- (j) to appeal in all cases.

Rule 3a Right to a Speedy Trial (Section approved by NPTEC 1/27/15)

(a) Right of person in custody. Every person in custody for an alleged offense charged by the Nez Perce Tribal Prosecutor shall be tried by the Nez Perce Tribal Court within 180 days from the date he or she was arraigned following the filing of a complaint in the Tribal Court by the Prosecutor, unless delay is occasioned by the defendant, by an examination for fitness ordered by the Tribal Court, by a fitness hearing, by an adjudication of unfitness to stand trial, by a continuance allowed after the Court's determination of the defendant's physical incapacity for trial, or by an interlocutory appeal.

(b) Demand for trial. Delay shall be considered to be agreed to by the defendant unless he or she objects to the delay by making a written demand for trial or an oral demand for trial on the record. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to a person on bail or recognizance for an offense but who is in custody for a violation of his or her probation.

(c) Computing term for incarcerated persons. The 180-day term in (1) above must be one continuous period of incarceration. In computing the 180-day term, separate periods of incarceration may not be combined. For a defendant released from incarceration who is subsequently taken into custody for a violation of the conditions of release, the term will begin again at day zero.

(d) Right of person not in custody. Every person on bail or recognizance shall be tried by Tribal Court within 220 days from the date of arraignment unless delay is occasioned by the defendant, by an examination for fitness ordered by the Court, by a fitness hearing, by an adjudication of unfitness to stand trial, by a continuance allowed after the Court's determination of the defendant's incapacity for trial, or by an interlocutory appeal. The defendant's failure to appear for any court date set by the court operates to waive the defendant's right to speedy trial unless the court determines that the failure to appear was unavoidable.

(e) Computing term for persons released from custody. Every person who was in custody for an alleged offense and is subsequently released on bail or recognizance, shall be given credit for time spent in custody following the making of the demand while in custody and trial shall be held within 220 days of the person's arraignment.

(f) Continuing the term. If the Court determines that the Tribe has exercised without success due diligence to obtain evidence material to the case and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence may be obtained at a later day the Court may continue the case on application of the Tribe for not more than an additional 60 days. If the court determines that the Tribe has exercised without success due diligence to obtain results of DNA testing that is material to the case and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such results may be obtained at a later day, the Court may continue the cause on application of the Tribe for not more than an additional 120 days.

(g) Discharge or release. For every person not tried in accordance with subsections (a)-(f) of this Section, the complaint against him or her shall be dismissed without prejudice.

(h) Persons in custody for more than one charge. If a person is simultaneously in custody upon more than one charge pending against him by the Tribe, and the charges are bifurcated, he shall be tried, or adjudged guilty after waiver of trial, upon at least one such charge before expiration relative to any of such pending charges of the period prescribed by subsections (a)-(f) of this Section. Such person shall be tried upon all of the remaining charges thus pending within 180 days from the date on which judgment relative to the first charge thus prosecuted is rendered or, if such trial upon such first charge is terminated without judgment and there is no subsequent trial of, or adjudication of guilt after waiver of trial, the person shall be tried upon all of the remaining charges thus pending within 180 days from the date on which such trial is terminated; if either such period of 180 days expires without the commencement of trial of, or adjudication of guilt after waiver of trial of, any of such remaining charges thus pending, such charge or charges shall be dismissed and barred for want of prosecution unless delay is occasioned by the defendant, by an examination for fitness ordered by the Court, by a fitness hearing, by an adjudication of unfitness for trial, by a continuance allowed after the Court's determination of the defendant's incapacity for trial, or by an interlocutory appeal; provided, however, that if the Court determines that the Tribe has exercised without success due diligence to obtain evidence material to the case and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence may be obtained at a later day the court may continue the cause on application of the Tribe for not more than an additional 60 days.

(i) Delay occasioned by the defendant. Delay occasioned by the defendant shall temporarily suspend for the time of the delay the period within which a person shall be tried as prescribed by subsections (a)-(f) of this Section and on the day of expiration of the delay the said period shall continue at the point at which it was suspended. Where such delay occurs within 60 days of the end of the period within which a person shall be tried as prescribed by subsections (a)-(f) of this Section, the Court may continue the case on application of the Tribe for not more than an additional 60 days beyond the period prescribed by subsections (a)-(f).

(j) Effective date. This subsection shall become effective on and apply to persons charged with alleged offenses committed on or after, the date of adoption of this Section by the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee pursuant to applicable requirements for said adoption.

PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

Rule 4 Complaint

(a) The complaint is a written statement of the alleged facts constituting the offense charged and shall be filed by the tribal prosecutor. The complaint shall state:

- (1) the name of the person accused, and if known his address, date of birth, enrollment number and driver's license number;
- (2) the location where the offense was committed and facts showing the offense to be within the original jurisdiction of the court;
- (3) the offense committed;
- (4) a short concise statement of the specific acts or omissions that constitute the elements of the offense;
- (5) the person, if any, against whom or against whose property the offense was committed, if known; and
- (6) the approximate date and time of the commission of the offense.

(b) Only one person and one violation may be charged by a single complaint. The court shall allow the complaint to be amended for good cause upon request of the prosecution until the date of trial.

Rule 5 Arrest Warrant

(a) Upon the submission of an arrest warrant application, by the tribal prosecutor or tribal police, the Nez Perce Tribal Court may issue an arrest warrant to bring the person named in the warrant before a judge of the court.

- (b) An arrest warrant application shall:
 - (1) be supported by affidavit or sworn testimony;
 - (2) include the name of the person accused, if known, or some other name if not known, plus whatever available description of the person accused;
 - (3) include the general location where the offense was committed and facts showing the offense to be within the original jurisdiction of the court;
 - (4) include the general name and code designation of the offense. If the facts show more than one offense, then each offense shall be stated separately;
 - (5) include a short concise statement of the specific act or omission to act complained of;
 - (6) include the name of the person against whom or against whose property the act was committed, if known;
 - (7) include the date and approximate time of the commission of the offense, if known; and
 - (8) include a request that the Tribal Court issue an arrest warrant for the person named in the application.

(c) Any testimony submitted in relation to a warrant application shall be simultaneously tape recorded. Upon reviewing the application for an arrest warrant, if the judge is satisfied of the existence of the grounds of the application, and that it appears based on such review that probable cause exists to believe that an offense has been committed and that the person named in the application committed it, he shall issue a signed arrest warrant. The warrant of arrest shall be signed by the judge and shall contain the name of the person to be arrested or, if unknown, any name or description by which the defendant can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall command that the person named in the warrant be arrested and brought before the judge.

(d) An officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest; but, if he does not, he shall inform the defendant that a warrant has been issued and the nature of the charge. The arrested person shall be provided with a copy of the arrest warrant and complaint as soon as practicable but not later than at the time of arraignment.

Rule 6 Summons (amended by NPTEC 1/8/08)

(a) In lieu of an arrest and upon a finding that it appears probable cause exists to believe an offense has been committed and that the defendant committed it, the Tribal Court may issue a summons directing the person accused to appear before a tribal judge at a stated date, time and place. The summons will also inform the defendant that a warrant of arrest will be issued if he fails to appear as directed. Issuance of a summons will initiate prosecution of an action under this chapter.

- (b) If the summons is issued by the Tribal Court, it shall be served on the defendant as provided by this chapter. Should a defendant refuse service of a summons or should a defendant's whereabouts be unknown after a reasonable search, an arrest warrant shall issue.

Rule 7 Arrest without a Warrant

(a) A tribal officer may make an arrest without warrant if the officer has probable cause to believe a person has committed an offense within the jurisdiction of the Nez Perce Tribe or is named in an arrest warrant.

Rule 8 Arrest Procedure

Any arresting officer:

(a) Upon taking an arrested person into custody and before interrogation, shall inform the person that:

- (1) he has the right to remain silent; and
- (2) anything he says can be used against him in court; and
- (3) he has the right to talk to an attorney for advice before he is asked any questions and to have an attorney present during questioning.

(b) May use reasonable and necessary force to effect the arrest of a person.

Rule 9 Fresh Pursuit

(a) Any arresting officer may continue in fresh pursuit of a person including outside the boundaries of the Nez Perce Reservation, if the person:

- (1) is reasonably believed by the officer to have committed an offense on the reservation;
- (2) has committed, or attempted to commit, any offense or civil infraction on the reservation in the presence of the officer; or
- (3) is named in an outstanding warrant of arrest for a criminal offense.

(b) When an arrest following fresh pursuit occurs outside of the boundaries of the Nez Perce Reservation but within the state of Idaho the arresting officer may return the arrested individual to the reservation. When an arrest following fresh pursuit occurs outside the state of Idaho, then the arresting officer shall turn the arrested person over to the local police officials pending extradition.

Rule 10 Arraignment

(a) Arrested persons shall be taken without unnecessary delay, but in no case later than three (3) business days, before a tribal judge for arraignment. In the event a summons has been issued, the defendant shall appear at the time designated in the summons. The schedule for arraignments shall be determined by the Tribal Court. If the defendant does not have counsel and desires to be represented, he shall be given a reasonable time to secure counsel before entering his plea or making any statement.

(b) During arraignment, the defendant shall be provided with a copy of the complaint

if he has not received one. The complaint shall be read to the defendant and he will be asked to plead guilty or not guilty to the offense charged.

(c) Before accepting a plea of guilty, the court must:

- (1) determine that the defendant understands that the plea is voluntary and is not the result of any force, threats, or promises apart from any plea agreement between the tribal prosecutor and the defendant;
- (2) inform the defendant:
 - (A) of the nature of the charge to which the plea is offered;
 - (B) of the maximum penalty;
 - (C) if the defendant is not represented by an attorney, that the defendant has the right to be so represented at every stage of the proceedings at the defendant's expense; and
 - (D) that the defendant has the right to:
 - (i) confront and cross-examine all of the witnesses against him in person or by counsel;
 - (ii) have witnesses compelled by subpoena to appear and testify for him;
 - (iii) testify regarding the charges against him or to testify in his own behalf provided that once he takes the stand to testify he shall have waived the right to refuse to testify in any matter relevant to the immediate proceeding; and
 - (iv) an impartial trial by an impartial judge or jury.

(d) Upon a plea of guilty the court may sentence the defendant or set a future date for sentencing. If a future date for sentencing is established, the court may release the defendant on bail, have the defendant committed or released without bail.

(e) If the defendant is silent or if the defendant pleads guilty and the judge determines that the plea is made involuntarily or that the defendant does not understand the nature of the charge, he shall enter a plea of not guilty for the defendant.

Rule 10a Pre-Trial Release (revised 6/22/99)

(a) In making a decision concerning pretrial release of a person who is arrested for or charged with a crime involving domestic violence or a violation of a domestic protection order, the court shall review the facts of the arrest and detention of the person and determine whether the person:

- (1) is a threat to the alleged victim;
- (2) is a threat to public safety; and
- (3) is reasonably likely to appear in court.

(b) Before releasing a person arrested for or charged with a crime involving domestic violence or a violation of a domestic protection order, the court shall make findings on the record if possible concerning the determination made in accordance with subsection 1 and may impose conditions of release and/or bail on the person to protect the alleged victim of domestic violence and to ensure the appearance of the person at a subsequent court proceeding. The conditions may include:

- (1) An order enjoining the person from threatening to commit or committing acts of domestic violence against the alleged victim;
- (2) An order prohibiting the person from harassing, annoying, telephoning, contacting or otherwise communicating with the alleged victim, whether directly or indirectly;
- (3) An order directing the person to vacate or stay away from the home of the alleged victim and to stay away from any other location where the victim is likely to be;
- (4) An order prohibiting the person from using or possessing a firearm or other weapon as specified by the court.
- (5) An order suspending or revoking a person's privilege to hunt with a firearm. The authority to revoke or suspend privileges extends to the rights of tribal members to hunt pursuant to the provisions of the Treaty of June 11, 1855, 12 Stat. 957 and subsequent treaties and agreements;
- (6) An order prohibiting the person from possession or consumption of alcohol or controlled substances.
- (7) Any other order required to protect the safety of the alleged victim and to assure the appearance of the person in court.

(c) The bond for the crimes of domestic violence and violation of a domestic protection order shall be a cash bond in an amount set by the court in the bond schedule.

(d) The court shall provide a copy of the conditions to the arrested or charged person upon his or her release. Failure to provide the person with a copy of the conditions of release does not invalidate the conditions if the arrested or charged person has notice of the conditions.

(e) If conditions of release are imposed without a hearing, the arrested or charged person may request a hearing before the court to review the conditions. Upon such a request, the court shall hold a prompt hearing to review the conditions.

Rule 11 Pleadings and Motions Before Trial; Defenses and Objections

(a) Pleadings in criminal proceedings shall be the complaint and the pleas of guilty or not guilty.

(b) Any defense, objection, or request which is capable of determination outside of trial may be raised before trial by motion. Pre-trial motions may be written or oral at the discretion of the judge who may allow the parties to submit supporting and response briefs. Any supporting brief shall be filed at least twenty (20) business days and any response brief shall be filed at least ten (10) business days before trial unless other time periods are established by the judge.

(c) The following motions must be raised before trial:

- (1) motions challenging the sufficiency of the complaint and those raising procedural errors and the claim that the proceedings are prejudicial to the civil rights of the defendant;
- (2) discovery motions;
- (3) motions demanding separate trials for multiple defendants or severance of multiple charges.
- (4) defense and objection based on defects in the institution of the prosecution, or in the complaint other than the failure to show jurisdiction or to charge an offense.

(d) The failure to raise any motion under subsection (c) shall constitute waiver unless the court for cause shown determines that relief from the waiver will be granted. All rulings on such motions will be made before trial unless the court for good cause determines that the ruling will be made at trial, but no such determination will be made if a party's right to appeal will be adversely affected.

Rule 12 Discovery (Rule amended 12/9/03)

(a) At the expense of the defendant and upon his request, the prosecutor shall permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph the following items which are within the possession, custody or control of the prosecutor and/or tribal police:

- (1) relevant written or recorded statements made by the defendant or copies thereof;
- (2) copies of the defendant's prior criminal record;
- (3) books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof obtained in connection with the defendant's case;
- (4) results or reports of physical or mental examinations, scientific tests or experiments, or copies thereof made in connection with the defendant's case.

(b) Upon the written request of the defendant the prosecuting attorney shall furnish to the defendant a written list of the names and addresses of all persons having knowledge of relevant facts who may be called by the Tribe as a witness at trial. In the event that the Tribe discovers additional witnesses to be called at trial the prosecutor shall furnish those names and addresses to the defendant in a timely manner.

(c) Upon the request of the prosecutor and at the expense of the tribe, the defendant shall permit the prosecutor to inspect and copy or photograph:

- (1) results or reports of physical or mental examinations, scientific tests or experiments made in connection with the defendant's case;
- (2) books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof obtained in connection with the defendant's case.

(d) Upon the written request of the prosecuting attorney, the defendant shall furnish the Tribe with a list of names and addresses of witnesses the defendant intends to call at trial. In the event that the defendant discovers additional witnesses to be called at trial, the defendant shall furnish those names and addresses to the prosecution in a timely manner.

(e) If, prior to or during trial, a party discovers additional evidence or material which is subject to discovery or inspection under this rule, such party shall promptly notify the other party or the court of the existence of the additional evidence or material.

(f) Except to the extent such material is otherwise subject to discovery, this rule shall not authorize the discovery or inspection of:

- (1) reports, memoranda, or other internal documents made by the defendant, an attorney for either party or agents of the either party in connection with the investigation, prosecution or defense in the case;
- (2) statements made by the defendant, witnesses or prospective witnesses in connection with the case.

(g) Upon motion by a party, the court may deny or restrict discovery or issue such other order as is appropriate. If the court enters an order granting relief all items or documents reviewed in camera shall be sealed and preserved in the record of the court to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.

(h) Once the court determines that a party has failed to comply with this rule, it may grant a motion to compel submitted by the opposing party, grant a continuance, prohibit the party from introducing evidence not disclosed or it may enter such other order as it deems just. In addition to any other action taken by the court upon a finding that a party has failed to comply with this rule, the court may award attorney's fees and costs to the prevailing party resulting from procedures to compel discovery.

Rule 13 Subpoena

(a) All witnesses shall be subpoenaed to appear at the date and time set for trial. The parties shall notify the clerk of the court of the names and addresses of witnesses not less than fourteen (14) business days prior to the scheduled trial date.

(b) A subpoena shall be an order of the court requiring the attendance of a witness at trial and/or commanding the person to whom it is issued to produce books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. It shall be signed by the judge and issued by the tribal court clerk. It shall state the name of the court and the name of the case and shall command the person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony and/or produce or present evidence at the time and place specified. The clerk shall submit a signed, sealed and otherwise complete subpoena except for the name of the individual and items subpoenaed to the requesting party, who shall complete the subpoena before it is served.

(c) A subpoena shall be served in accordance with the provisions for service of process provided by this chapter. The party requesting the subpoena shall provide a $10.00 fee for one day's attendance and mileage allowances as determined by the court to each witness following their compliance with the subpoena. The court shall pay the expenses of any witness subpoenaed by the defense upon a satisfactory showing that the defendant is unable to pay such expenses and the witness is necessary to the defense.

(d) The court on motion may quash or modify a subpoena if compliance would be unreasonable or oppressive.

TRIAL

Rule 14 Trial Procedures

(a) Motions

- (1) Before opening statements, the court shall hear and rule on any remaining pre-trial motions. All arguments shall be made outside the presence of the jury in a trial by jury.

(b) Rule of Exclusion

- (1) The exclusion of witnesses shall be allowed by the court upon motion of either party. Once a motion is made the court will invoke the rule excluding all witnesses for either party from the courtroom until they are called to testify.
- (2) If invoked, the court shall order that the witnesses remain outside and out of hearing of the courtroom until they are called as witnesses. The court shall also instruct the witnesses not to discuss their testimony with any other witnesses under penalty of contempt until the trial has been declared ended. The defendant is entitled to be present during the entire trial regardless of a motion to exclude witnesses.

(c) Opening Statements

The court will allow opening statements by the prosecution and defendant. The prosecution will present its statement first followed by the defense who may preserve its opening statement until the end of the prosecution's case in chief. Either party may waive making a statement.

(d) Burden of Proof

- (1) The burden of proof is upon the prosecution to show that the defendant committed all elements of the specific charge or charges in the complaint, beyond a reasonable doubt, and this burden remains with the prosecution at all times.
- (2) Following the prosecution's case in chief, the burden of going forward with the evidence shifts to the defense which then presents its witnesses, documents and other exhibits.
- (3) Following presentation of the case for the defense the prosecution may offer rebuttal witnesses.

- (4) After all of the evidence has been presented, the parties may make closing arguments. The prosecution will have the right to open, the defense to follow and the prosecution to close.

(e) Motion for Judgment of Acquittal

- (1) The court on motion of a defendant or of its own motion shall order the entry of judgment of acquittal of any offenses if the evidence is insufficient to sustain a conviction of such offense. If a defendant's motion for judgment of acquittal at the close of evidence offered by the tribe is not granted, the defendant may proceed to offer evidence without having reserved the right to do so.
- (2) If a motion for judgment of acquittal is made at the close of all of the evidence, the court may either decide the motion or reserve decision on the motion, until after the jury verdict.
- (3) If the jury returns a verdict of guilty, no verdict or is discharged without having returned a verdict, a motion for judgment of acquittal may be made or renewed immediately after the jury is discharged, or within such further time as the court may fix. If the court grants the motion following a verdict of guilty, it may set aside the verdict and enter the judgment of acquittal.

(f) Expert Witnesses and Interpreters

- (1) Either party may call expert witnesses of their own selection and each bears the cost of such witnesses.
- (2) The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection through whom testimony is received from a defendant or witness or communicated to a defendant or witness. Such interpreter shall be put under oath to faithfully and accurately translate and communicate. In addition, each party may provide their own interpreters.

(g) Jury Instruction

- (1) The court may request proposed jury instructions and either accept or reject each instruction.
- (2) In all criminal cases, the court will inform the jury that the defendant's plea of not guilty places upon the prosecution the burden of proving guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, that the defendant is presumed innocent until his guilt is established, and that if the defendant does not testify this may not be considered as any evidence of guilt.

Rule 15 Verdict

- (a) After the presentation of evidence in non-jury cases is completed and all motions have been ruled upon, the court shall render its decision as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant. The court may take the case under advisement rather than passing judgment immediately.

(b) In jury trials:

- (1) the verdict shall be unanimous and shall be returned by the jury to the judge in open court;
- (2) if the verdict is not guilty the court will order the defendant released from custody;
- (3) if the verdict is guilty the court may impose sentence immediately or set a later date for sentencing.

(c) If the required number of jurors does not support the verdict or the jury is unable to make a decision, the court must declare a mistrial. Polling of the jury may take place upon the request of either party.

(d) If there are multiple defendants, the trier of fact (judge/jury), at any time during its deliberations, may return a verdict or verdicts with respect to any charge.

(e) The defendant may be found guilty of an offense necessarily included in the offense charged and the lesser included offense need not have been included in the original charge.

Post Trial

Rule 16 Judgment and Sentencing

(a) A judgment of conviction shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, and sentence when imposed. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, judgment shall be entered accordingly. The judgment shall be signed by the judge and entered into record by the court clerk.

(b) If a motion for withdrawal of a plea of guilty is made before sentence is imposed, the court may permit withdrawal of the plea upon a showing by the defendant of any fair and just reason. In order to correct manifest injustice, the court after sentence, may set aside the judgment of conviction and permit the defendant to withdraw his plea.

Rule 17 Post Trial Motions

(a) Motion to Set Aside the Verdict

- (1) The defendant may file a motion to set aside the verdict if he believes the jury verdict was contrary to the law or the evidence presented at trial. The court will set the jury verdict aside only where it finds there was insufficient evidence to support the verdict and there was reasonable doubt as to the defendant's guilt as a matter of law.

(b) Motion for New Trial

- (1) The defendant may file a motion for a new trial based upon error or mistake by the court or on the basis of newly discovered evidence. The court may grant the motion only if the errors or mistakes substantially prejudice the defendant or if the newly discovered evidence could result in acquittal.

- (2) A motion for a new trial based on:
 - (A) newly discovered evidence shall be made within thirty (30) business days after final judgment, but if an appeal is pending, the court may grant the motion only once the appeal is resolved;
 - (B) any other grounds shall be made within ten business (10) days after a guilty verdict is entered.
- (3) In the case of a non-jury trial, on motion of a defendant for new trial the court may vacate the judgment if entered, take additional testimony and enter a new judgment.

(c) Motion for Stay

While an appeal is pending, the court may stay the execution of the sentence pending the filing and conclusion of an appeal. The court may order the defendant released on bail, released without bail or continued in detention.

Habeas Corpus

Rule 18 Right to Apply for Writ

(a) Any person detained or imprisoned by order, authority or action of the Nez Perce Tribe may challenge the legality of that detention or imprisonment by application to the Nez Perce Tribal Court for a writ of habeas corpus. The application shall be heard by a judge who has not participated in any proceeding related to the detention or imprisonment of the applicant.

(b) The application for writ of habeas corpus shall be in writing and must include:

- (1) the facts concerning the person's commitment or detention;
- (2) the cause or reason why detention is illegal; and
- (3) a copy of the warrant of commitment or other documentary authority, if any, or an affidavit that such copy has been requested and refused.

(c) Upon receipt of a writ of habeas corpus the court may:

- (1) issue an order directing the person(s) alleged to be detaining the petitioner to show cause why the writ should not be issued; or
- (2) deny the writ.

(d) If an order to show cause is issued it will be served on the person(s) alleged to have custody of the petitioner. Once served, the person(s) to whom the order is directed shall make a return of such order to the court certifying the true cause for detention. Following service, the court shall hear the petition and order the petitioner be brought before it for the hearing. If the writ is granted, it shall be served on the person(s) having custody of the petitioner.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 19 Search and Seizure

(a) Upon the request of any law enforcement officer the Tribal Court may issue a written search warrant to search for and seize evidence of a criminal offense.

(b) A search warrant shall be supported by affidavit or sworn testimony and must particularly describe the person or place to be searched and the item(s) to be seized. If probable cause exists to believe that a crime has been committed and that evidence of the crime is present at the place or on the person to be searched the warrant shall issue. The search warrant shall direct police officers to search the location or person described for the items specified.

(c) A search warrant shall be served during the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m., unless a night search is expressly provided for in the warrant. The officer taking property under a search warrant shall provide a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken to the person from whom it was taken or in the absence of any such person, he shall leave it in the place where the property was found.

(d) A search warrant shall be executed within fourteen (14) days after issuance. Upon execution of the warrant, a return shall be executed and filed with the court along with an inventory of the items seized.

(e) A search warrant will not be required in the following situations:

- (1) the evidence is in plain view and can be seen by the officer(s) from a place where the officer has a right to be;
- (2) a person who has authority to do so voluntarily consents to the search and the search is limited to the scope of the consent given;
- (3) the search is incident to a lawful arrest and is conducted on the person arrested and within the area of the person's immediate reach and control for any evidence, contraband or weapons;
- (4) the officer(s) reasonably believe that a person is armed and presents a danger to the officer or the public in which case the officer may conduct a pat down of the person's outer clothing in search of weapons;
- (5) the officer(s) enter a residence or structure in fresh pursuit of a fleeing suspect;
- (6) the area to be searched is an automobile actually moving or temporarily stopped, as long as the officer(s) have probable cause to believe that it contains items which are subject to seizure.
- (7) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the delay in obtaining a search warrant would endanger the physical safety of the police officers or third persons or allow the destruction, dissipation or removal of seizable evidence.

Rule 20 Extradition

(a) A written request seeking the extradition of any individual found within the exterior boundaries of the Nez Perce Reservation to any state, tribal or federal jurisdiction shall be submitted to the chief judge of the Nez Perce Tribal Court and shall be accompanied by:

- (1) a certified exemplified copy of the warrant; or
- (2) other reliable information that the warrant exists.

(b) If the chief judge, after receiving the extradition request is satisfied as to its validity, he shall issue an arrest warrant. If the request is oral, and the judge determines an emergency exists due to the individual's record, risk of reoffending, or risk of flight, he/she may authorize the warrant verbally for immediate detention. The person named in the warrant shall be taken into custody by the tribal police officers with the assistance of the other law enforcement officials involved if requested and held by tribal police for arraignment by the Tribal Court.
(Amendment authorized by NPTEC 10/14/14)

(c) Once the person suspected of being the one named in the extradition request is in custody of the tribal police, the police shall notify the jurisdiction which issued the request.

(d) Within three (3) business days after arrest, the person arrested shall be brought before the chief judge of the Tribal Court. The court shall inform the person of the demand for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, that he has a right to representation of legal counsel at his own expense and to request a hearing to challenge the extradition request. If a hearing is requested, the judge shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing release the person on bail, release the person without bail or hold him in custody until the date of the hearing. If the hearing is waived, the person shall be promptly turned over to the custody of the appropriate authorities.

(e) Following an extradition hearing conducted by the chief judge of the Tribal Court, if the judge determines that the person brought before the court is in fact the person named in the extradition request and that there is probable cause to believe that he committed the offense complained of, an extradition order shall be issued and the person immediately turned over to the custody of the appropriate authorities.

Rule 21 Bail; Release without Bail; Confinement

(a) To insure defendant's appearance at any court proceeding or to protect the public, the court may:

- (1) set bail in lieu of confinement;
- (2) turn the defendant over to the tribal police for confinement;
- (3) release the defendant on his own recognizance upon his promise to appear; or
- (4) impose any other reasonable condition deemed necessary to assure the appearance of the accused as required.

(b) The amount of bail shall reflect the gravity and nature of the offense charged and the defendant's ability to pay. Other factors to be considered by the court in setting bail include: the location of the defendant's permanent residence, family responsibilities, and past criminal record. If the defendant is committed in lieu of bail, then he may be credited for such time spent in jail.

(c) No person shall be detained or jailed for more than three (3) business days unless there has been a commitment bearing the signature of a judge of the Nez Perce Tribal Court.

(d) Any person arrested for a crime involving domestic violence or a violation of a domestic protection order shall not be released on bond or on his/her own recognizance prior to being arraigned. Such arraignment shall not occur less than 48 business hours or more than 72 business hours following arrest. (added 6/22/99)

Rule 22 Motions

Unless made at trial or hearing or otherwise provided, an application to the court for an order shall be by written motion. The motion shall state the grounds upon which it is made and shall specify the relief order sought. It shall be supported by a memorandum of points and authorities.

Rule 23 Signing of Pleadings, Motions, and Other Papers

(a) For those parties represented by an attorney, all pleadings, motions and other papers shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, who shall also state his address. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign the pleading, motion or other paper himself and state his address.

(b) A person's signature constitutes a certification by the signer that:

- (1) he has read the pleading, motion, or other paper;
- (2) to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, formed after reasonable inquiry, it is well grounded in fact and is warranted by existing law or good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; and
- (3) that it is not interposed or introduced for any improper purpose.

Rule 24 Service and Filing of Papers

(a) This section shall apply to any service of process required under this chapter. Service of process in criminal cases shall be by tribal police, court employee or any other person designated by the chief judge, who is at least eighteen (18) years of age and is not a party. Service shall be made upon the defendant, by delivering to the defendant a copy of the documents to be served in person, by registered or certified mail, or after first appearance, by first class postage pre-paid with certificate of mailing.

(b) Service may be accomplished at any place within the exterior boundaries of the Nez Perce Reservation. The person conducting service of process on another shall make a return to the clerk stating the name of the case, the name of the person served, the place, date and time of service, and shall subscribe his name thereto under penalty of perjury for the intentional making of a false return.

(c) All written pleadings and motions, notices and similar papers other than those which are heard ex-parte, shall be served on each party as provided in civil actions and filed with the court. The party filing the motion or pleading shall certify the date and method of service upon the opposing party.

CHAPTER 2-2 RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES--ONE FORM OF ACTION

Rule 1 Scope of Rules

These rules govern the procedure in the Nez Perce Tribal courts in all suits of a civil nature whether cognizable as cases at law or in equity. They shall be construed and administered to secure determination of every action as just, speedy, and inexpensive as possible.

Rule 2 One Form of Action

There shall be one form of action to be known as "civil action".

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS, PLEADINGS, MOTIONS AND ORDERS

Rule 3 Commencement of Action

A civil action is commenced by filing a complaint with the Court.

Rule 3.1 Inability to pay fees – Affidavit

(a) The Tribal Court may authorize the commencement or defense of any civil suit, action or proceeding, or an appeal therein, without prepayment fees, costs or security therefor, by any person who makes affidavit that he is indigent and unable to pay such costs or give security therefor, whenever the Court finds, after informal inquiry, the person to be indigent for the purpose of prepayment of fees, costs or security in a civil action or proceeding. Such affidavit shall state the nature of the action, defense or appeal and the affiant's belief he is entitled to redress.

(b) No fees, costs or security shall be waived for an appeal if the Court certifies in writing that the action is frivolous or malicious or that it is not taken in good faith.

(c) The Court may, upon the filing of a like affidavit and a finding of indigency, direct that the expense of printing the transcript or record on appeal be paid out of the Court fund.

(d) The Court may retroactively require payment for any fees, costs or security which may have been waived in the case if the allegation of poverty is untrue, or if the Court is satisfied that the action is frivolous or malicious, or if the action is not taken in good faith.

Rule 4 Summons

(a) Form. The summons shall be signed by the clerk, bear the seal of the Court, identify the Court and the parties, be directed to the defendant, and state the name and address of the plaintiff's attorney, or, if unrepresented, of the plaintiff. It shall also state the time period within which the defendant must appear and defend and notify the defendant that failure to do so will result in a judgment by default against the defendant for the relief demanded in the complaint. The Court may allow a summons to be amended.

(b) Issuance. Upon or after filing the complaint, the plaintiff may present a summons to the clerk for signature and seal. If the summons is in proper form, the clerk shall sign, seal, and issue it to the plaintiff for service on the defendant. A summons, or a copy of the summons if addressed to multiple defendants, shall be issued for each defendant to be served.

(c) Service With Complaint; By Whom Made.

- (1) A summons shall be served together with a copy of the complaint. The plaintiff is responsible for service of a summons and complaint within the time allowed under subsection (l) and shall furnish the person effecting service with the necessary copies of the summons and complaint.
- (2) Service may be affected by any person who is not a party and who is at least eighteen (18) years of age. At the request of the plaintiff, however, the Court may direct that service be effected by a tribal police officer, or other person or officer specially appointed by the Court for that purpose.

(d) Waiver of Service; Duty to Save Costs of Service; Request to Waive.

- (1) A defendant who waives service of summons does not thereby waive any objection to the jurisdiction of the Court over the person of the defendant.
- (2) An individual, corporation, or association that is subject to service under subsection (e), (f), or (h) and that receives notice of an action in the manner provided in this subpart has a duty to avoid unnecessary costs of serving the summons. To avoid costs, the plaintiff may notify such a defendant of the commencement of the action and request that the defendant waive service of a summons. The notice and request shall:
 - (A) be in writing and be addressed directly to the defendant, if an individual, or to an officer or managing or general agent (or other agent authorized by appointment or law to receive service of process) of a defendant subject to service under subsection (h);
 - (B) be dispatched through first-class mail or other reliable means;
 - (C) be accompanied by a copy of the complaint and shall identify the Court in which it has been filed;
 - (D) inform the defendant of the consequences of compliance and of a failure to comply with the request;
 - (E) set forth the date on which the request is sent;
 - (F) allow the defendant a reasonable time to return the waiver, which shall be at least thirty (30) days from the date on which the request is sent, or sixty (60) days from that date if the defendant is addressed outside the United States; and
 - (G) provide the defendant with an extra copy of the notice and request, as well as a prepaid means of compliance in writing.

If a defendant located within the United States fails to comply with a request for waiver made by a plaintiff located within the United States, the Court shall impose the costs subsequently incurred in effecting service on the defendant unless good cause for the failure be shown.

- (3) A defendant that, before being served with process, timely returns a waiver so requested is not required to serve an answer to the complaint until sixty (60) days after the date on which the request for waiver of service was sent, or ninety (90) days after that date if the defendant was addressed outside the United States.
- (4) When the plaintiff files a waiver of service with the Court, the action shall proceed, except as provided in subpart (3), as if a summons and complaint had been served at the time of filing the waiver, and no proof of service shall be required.
- (5) The costs to be imposed on a defendant under subpart (2) for failure to comply with a request to waive service under subsection (e), (f), or (h), together with the costs, including a reasonable attorney's fee, of any motion required to collect the costs of service of summons shall include the costs subsequently incurred in effecting service.

(e) Service. Service upon any person from whom a waiver has not been obtained and filed, other than an infant or an incompetent person, may be effected by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to the individual personally or by leaving copies thereof at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.

(f) Service Upon Individuals in a Foreign Country. Unless otherwise provided by federal law, service upon an individual from whom a waiver has not been obtained and filed, other than an infant or an incompetent person, may be effected in a place not within the United States:

- (1) by any internationally agreed means reasonably calculated to give notice, such as those means authorized by the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents; or
- (2) if there is no internationally agreed means of service or the applicable international agreement allows other means of service, provided that service is reasonably calculated to give notice:
 - (A) in the manner prescribed by the law of the foreign country for service in that country in an action in any of its courts of general jurisdiction;
 - (B) as directed by the foreign authority in response to a letter rogatory or letter of request;
 - (C) unless prohibited by the law of the foreign country, by:
 - (i) delivery to the individual personally of a copy of the summons and the complaint; or

- (ii) any form of mail requiring a signed receipt, to be addressed and dispatched by the clerk of the Court to the party to be served; or

- (3) by other means not prohibited by international agreement as may be directed by the Court.

(g) Service Upon Minors and Incompetent Persons. Service upon a minor or an incompetent person shall be effected by service on the minor or incompetent person and the parent or legal guardian of the minor or incompetent person.

(h) Service Upon Corporations and Associations. Unless otherwise provided by federal law, service upon a domestic or foreign corporation or upon a partnership or other unincorporated association that is subject to suit under a common name, and from which a waiver of service has not been obtained and filed, shall be effected:

- (1) in the United States in the manner prescribed for individuals by subsection (e), or by delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint to an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process; or
- (2) in a place not within the United States in any manner prescribed for individuals by subsection (f) except personal delivery as provided in subpart (2)(C)(i) thereof.

(i) Service Upon Foreign, State or Local Governments

- (1) Service upon a foreign state or a political subsection, agency, or instrumentality thereof shall be in accordance with the procedures for federal and state courts as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1608.
- (2) Service upon a state or municipal corporation or other government organization subject to suit shall be effected by delivering a copy of the summons and the complaint to its chief executive officer or by serving the summons and complaint in the manner prescribed by the law of that state for the service of summons or other like process upon any such defendant.

(j) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. Service of a summons on a person otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the Nez Perce Tribal Court may be made anywhere in the United States or elsewhere if effected under this rule.

(k) Proof of Service. If service is not waived, the person effecting service shall make proof thereof to the Court. If service is made by a person other than a tribal police officer, the person shall make affidavit thereof. Proof of service in a place not within the United States shall, if effected under subpart (1) of subsection (f), be made pursuant to the applicable treaty or convention, and shall, if effected under subpart (2) or (3) thereof, include a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of delivery to the addressee satisfactory to the Court. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service. The Court may allow proof of service to be amended.

(l) Time Limit for Service. If service of the summons and complaint is not made upon a defendant within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the filing of the complaint, the Court, upon motion or on its own initiative after notice to the plaintiff, shall dismiss the action without prejudice as to that defendant or direct that service be effected within a specified time; provided that if the plaintiff shows good cause for the failure, the Court shall extend the time for service for an appropriate period. This subsection does not apply to service in a foreign county pursuant to subsection (f) or (i)(1) of this rule.

(m) Seizure of Property; Service of Summons Not Feasible. The Court may assert jurisdiction over property. Notice to claimants of the property shall then be sent in the manner provided by the statute or by service of a summons under this rule.

Rule 4.1 Service of Other Process

(a) Generally. Process other than a summons as provided in Rule 4 or subpoena as provided in Rule 45 shall be served by a tribal police officer within the reservation, or a person specially appointed for that purpose, who may serve anywhere in the United States. Proof of service shall be made as provided in Rule 4(1). The process may be served anywhere within the United States.

(b) Enforcement of Orders; Commitment for Civil Contempt. An order of civil commitment of a person held to be in contempt of a decree or injunction issued by the Court may be served and enforced anywhere in the United States.

Rule 5 Service and Filing of Pleadings and Other Papers

(a) Service; When Required. Every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the Court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the Court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in Rule 4.

In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer, claim or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure.

(b) Same; How Made. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party is ordered by the Court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to the attorney or party or by mailing it to the attorney or party at the attorney's or party's last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of the Court. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at the attorney's or party's office with a clerk or one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at the person's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

(c) Same; Numerous Defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the Court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the Court directs.

(d) Filing; Certificate of Service. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party, together with a certificate of service, shall be filed with the Court within a reasonable time after service, but the court may on motion of a party or on its own initiative order that depositions upon oral examination and interrogatories, requests for documents, requests for admission, and answers and responses thereto not be filed unless on order of the court or for use in the proceeding.

(e) Filing with the Court Defined. The filing of papers with the Court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the Court, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with the judge, in which event the judge shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk. The Court may permit papers to be filed by facsimile or other electronic means. The clerk shall not refuse to accept for filing any paper presented for that purpose solely because it is not presented in proper form as required by these rules or practices.

Rule 6 Time

(a) Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the Court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion:

- (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if the request is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; or
- (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect;

but it may not extend the time for taking any action under Rules 48(b) and (c)(2), 50 (b), 57(b), (d) and (e), and 58(b), except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

(b) For Motions--Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served no later than five (5) days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the Court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and except as otherwise provided in Rule 57(c), opposing affidavits may be served not later than one (1) day before the hearing, unless the Court permits them to be served at some other time.

(c) Additional Time After Service by Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon the party and the notice or paper is served upon the party by mail, three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period.

Rule 7 Pleadings Allowed; Form of Motions

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; a reply to a counterclaim, denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of Rule 14; and a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleading shall be allowed, except that the Court may order a reply to an answer or a third-party answer.

(b) Motions and Other Papers.

- (1) An application to the Court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.
- (2) The rules applicable to captions and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all motions and other papers provided for by these rules.
- (3) All motions shall be signed in accordance with Rule 11.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, Etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas, and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

Rule 8 General Rules of Pleadings

(a) Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain

- (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds upon which the Court's jurisdiction depends, unless the Court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new grounds of jurisdiction to support it;
- (2) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief; and
- (3) a demand for judgment for the relief the pleader seeks.

Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms the party's defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If a party is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, the party shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, the pleader shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, the pleader may make denials as specific denials of designated averments or subparts or may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or subparts as the pleader expressly admits; but, when the pleader does so intend to controvert all its averments, including averments of the grounds upon which the Court's jurisdiction depends, the pleader may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in Rule 1.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the Court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure to Deny. Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading to be Concise and Direct; Consistency.

(1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleading or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of the statements if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as the party has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal, equitable, or maritime grounds. All statements shall be made subject to obligations set forth in Rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

Rule 9 Pleading Special Matters.

(a) Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party, except to the extent required to show the jurisdiction of the Court. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, the party desiring to raise the issue shall do so by specific negative averment, which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

(b) Fraud, Mistake, Condition of the Mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(c) Conditions Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

(d) Official Document or Act. In pleading an official document or official act it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued, or the act done in compliance with law.

(e) Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(f) Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

(g) Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

Rule 10 Form of Pleadings

(a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the title of the action, the file number, and a designation as in Rule 7(a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party of each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

(b) Subparts; Separate Statements. All averments of claim or defense shall be made in numbered subparts, the contents of each of which shall be limited as far as practicable to a statement of a single set of circumstances; and a subpart may be referred to by number in all succeeding pleadings. Each claim founded upon a separate transaction or occurrence and each defense other than denials shall be stated in a separate count or defense whenever a separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth.

Rule 11 Signing of Pleadings, Motions, and Other Papers; Representations to Court; Sanctions

(a) Signature. Every pleading, written motion and other paper of a party shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, or if the party is not represented by an attorney, shall be signed by the party. Each paper shall state the signer's address and telephone number, if any. Except when otherwise specifically provided by this code, pleadings need not be verified or accompanied by affidavit. An unsigned paper shall be stricken unless omission of the signature is corrected promptly after being called to the attention of the attorney or party.

(b) Representations to Court. By presenting to the Court (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) a pleading, written motion, or other paper, an attorney or unrepresented party is certifying that to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances:

- (1) it is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation;

- (2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions therein are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law or the establishment of new law;
- (3) the allegations and other factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and
- (4) the denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence or, if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) Sanctions. If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the Court determines that subsection (b) has been violated, the Court may, subject to the conditions stated below, impose an appropriate sanction upon the attorneys, law firms, or parties that have violated subsection (b) or are responsible for the violation.

(1) How Initiated.

- (A) By Motion. A motion for sanctions under this rule shall be made separately from other motions or requests and shall describe the specific conduct alleged to violate subsection (b). It shall be served as provided in Rule 5, but shall not be filed with or presented to the Court unless, within twenty-one (21) days after service of the motion (or such other period as the Court may prescribe), the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is not withdrawn or appropriately corrected. If warranted, the Court may award to the party prevailing on the motion the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion. Absent exceptional circumstances, a law firm shall be held jointly responsible for violations committed by its partners, associates, and employees.
- (B) On Court's Initiative. On its own initiative, the Court may enter an order describing the specific conduct that appears to violate subsection (b) and directing an attorney, law firm, or party to show cause why it has not violated subsection (b) with respect thereto.

(2) Nature of Sanctions; Limitations. A sanction imposed for violation of this rule shall be limited to what is sufficient to deter repetition of such conduct or comparable conduct by others similarly situated. Subject to the limitations in subparts (A) and (B), the sanction may consist of, or include, directives of a nonmonetary nature, an order to pay a penalty into court, or, if imposed on motion and warranted for effective deterrence, an order directing payment to the movant of some or all of the reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses incurred as a direct result of the violation.

- (A) Monetary sanctions may be awarded against a represented party for a violation of subsection (b)(2).
- (B) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded on the Court's initiative unless the Court issues its order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or against the party which is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned.

- (3) Order. When imposing sanctions, the Court shall describe the conduct determined to constitute a violation of this rule and explain the basis for the sanction imposed.

(d) Inapplicability to Discovery. Subsections (a) through (c) of this rule do not apply to disclosures and discovery requests, responses, objections, and motions that are subject to the provisions of Rules 26 through 37.

Rule 12 Defenses and Objections; When and How Presented; By Pleading or Motion; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

- (a) When Presented.

- (1) A defendant shall serve an answer:

- (A) within twenty (20) days after being served with the summons and complaint; or

- (B) if service of the summons has been timely waived on request under Rule 4(d), within sixty (60) days after the date when the request for waiver was sent, or within ninety (90) days after that date if the defendant was addressed outside the United States.

- (2) A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against that party shall serve an answer thereto within twenty (20) days after being served. The plaintiff shall serve a reply to a counterclaim in the answer within twenty (20) days after service of the answer, or, if a reply is ordered by the Court, within twenty (20) days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs.

- (3) Unless a different time is fixed by court order, the service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows:

- (A) if the Court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within ten (10) days after notice of the Court's action; or

- (B) if the Court grants a motion for a more definite statement the responsive pleading shall be served within ten (10) days after the service of the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion:

- (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter;

- (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person;
- (3) improper venue;
- (4) insufficiency of process;
- (5) insufficiency of service of process;
- (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted; or
- (7) failure to join a party under Rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted.

No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, the adverse party may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 53, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 53.

(c) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the Court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 53, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 53.

(d) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)-(7) in subsection (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in subsection (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the Court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, the party may move for a more definite statement before interposing a responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the Court is not obeyed within ten (10) days after notice of the order or within such other time as the Court may fix, the Court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(f) Motion to Strike. Upon motion by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within twenty (20) days after the service of the pleading upon the party or upon the Court's own initiative at any time, the Court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

(g) Consolidation of Defenses in Motion. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to the party. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to the party which this rule permits to be raised by motion, the party shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subsection (h)(2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

(h) Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses.

- (1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived:
 - (A) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in subsection (g); or
 - (B) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in the responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Rule 15(a) to be made as a matter of course.
- (2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under Rule 19, and the objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Rule 7(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.
- (3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the Court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the Court shall dismiss the action.

Rule 13 Counterclaim and Cross-Claim

(a) Compulsory Counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the Court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the claim if:

- (1) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action; or
- (2) the opposing party brought suit upon the claim by attachment or other process by which the Court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on that claim, and the pleader is not stating any counterclaim under this Rule 13.

(b) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counter claim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

(c) Counterclaim Exceeding opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(d) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving a pleading may, with the permission of the Court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(e) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, the pleader may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

(f) Cross-Claim Against Co-Party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(g) Joinder of Additional Parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross-claim in accordance with the provisions of Rules 19 and 20.

(h) Separate Trials; Separate Judgments. If the Court orders separate trials as provided in Rule 42(b), judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of Rule 51(b) when the Court has jurisdiction so to do, even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

Rule 14 Third Party Practice

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third-party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party plaintiff for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if the third-party plaintiff files the third-party complaint not later than ten (10) days after serving the original answer. Otherwise the third-party plaintiff must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third-party complaint, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make any defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in Rule 12 and any counter-claims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in Rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert any defenses as provided in Rule 12 and any counterclaims and cross-claims as provided in Rule 13. Any party may move to strike the third-party claim, or for its severance or separate trial. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to the third-party defendant for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, the plaintiff may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

Rule 15 Amended and Supplemental Pleadings

(a) Amendments. A party may amend the party's pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, the party may so amend it at any time within twenty (20) days after it is served. Otherwise a party may amend the party's pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within ten (10) days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the Court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the Court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the Court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice the party in maintaining the party's action or defense upon the merits. The Court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. An amendment of a pleading relates back to the date of the original pleading when:

- (1) relation back is permitted by the law that provides the statute of limitations applicable to the action;
- (2) the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading; or
- (3) the amendment changes the party or the naming of the party against whom a claim is asserted if the foregoing provision (2) is satisfied and, within the period provided by Rule 4(l) for service of the summons and complaint, the party to be brought in by amendment (A) has received such notice of the institution of the action that the party will not be prejudiced in maintaining a defense on the merits, and (B) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against the party.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party the Court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit the party to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of claim for relief or defense. If the Court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

Rule 16 Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management

(a) Pretrial Conferences; Objectives. In any action, the Court may in its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties and any unrepresented parties to appear before it for a conference or conferences before trial for such purposes as:

- (1) expediting the disposition of the action;
- (2) establishing early and continuing control so that the case will not be protracted because of lack of management;
- (3) discouraging wasteful pretrial activities;
- (4) improving the quality of the trial through more thorough preparation, and;
- (5) facilitating the settlement of the case.

(b) Scheduling and Planning. Except in categories of actions exempted by court rule as inappropriate, the judge shall after receiving the report from the parties under Rule 26(f) or after consulting with the attorneys for the parties and any unrepresented parties, by a scheduling conference, telephone, mail, or other suitable means, enter a scheduling order that limits the time:

- (1) to join other parties and to amend the pleadings;
- (2) to file motions; and
- (3) to complete discovery.

The scheduling order also may include:

- (4) modifications of the times for disclosures under Rules 26(a) and 26(e)(1) and of the extent of discovery to be permitted;
- (5) the date or dates for conferences before trial, a final pretrial conference, and trial; and
- (6) any other matters appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

The order shall issue as soon as practicable but in any event within ninety (90) days after the appearance of a defendant and within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the complaint has been served on a defendant. A schedule shall not be modified except upon a showing of good cause and by leave of the judge.

(c) Subjects for Consideration at Pretrial Conferences. At any conference under this rule consideration may be given, and the Court may take appropriate action, with respect to:

- (1) the formulation and simplification of the issues, including the elimination of frivolous claims or defenses;
- (2) the necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
- (3) the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof, stipulations regarding the authenticity of documents, and advance rulings from the Court on the admissibility of evidence;

- (4) the avoidance of unnecessary proof and of cumulative evidence, and limitation or restrictions on the use of testimony under the Rules of Evidence;
- (5) the appropriateness and timing of summary adjudication under Rule 53;
- (6) the control and scheduling of discovery, including orders affecting disclosures and discovery pursuant to Rule 26 and Rules 29 through 37;
- (7) the identification of witnesses and documents, the need and schedule for filing and exchanging pretrial briefs, and the date or dates for further conferences and for trial;
- (8) settlement and the use of special procedures to assist in resolving the dispute when authorized by this code;
- (9) the form and substance of the pretrial order;
- (10) the disposition of pending motions;
- (11) the need for adopting special procedures for managing potentially difficult or protracted actions that may involve complex issues, multiple parties, difficult legal questions, or unusual proof problems;
- (12) an order for a separate trial pursuant to Rule 42(b) with respect to a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, or with respect to any particular issue in the case;
- (13) an order directing a party in the trial with respect to a manageable issue that could, on the evidence, be the basis for a judgment as a matter of law under Rule 48(a) or a judgment on partial findings under Rule 50(c);
- (14) an order establishing a reasonable limit on the time allowed for presenting evidence; and
- (15) such other matters as may facilitate the just, speedy, and inexpensive disposition of the action.

At least one of the attorneys for each party participating in any conference before trial shall have authority to enter into stipulations and to make admissions regarding all matters that the participants may reasonably anticipate may be discussed. If appropriate, the Court may require that a party or its representative be present or reasonably available by telephone in order to consider possible settlement of the dispute.

(d) Final Pretrial Conference. Any final pretrial conference shall be held as close to the time of trial as reasonable under the circumstances. The participants at any such conference shall formulate a plan for trial, including a program for facilitating the admission of evidence. The conference shall be attended by at least one of the attorneys who will conduct the trial for each of the parties and by any unrepresented parties.

(e) Pretrial Orders. After any conference held pursuant to this rule, an order shall be entered reciting the action taken. This order shall control the subsequent course of the action unless modified by a subsequent order. The order following a final pretrial conference shall be modified only to prevent manifest injustice.

(f) Sanctions. If a party or party's attorney fails to obey a scheduling or pretrial order, or if no appearance is made on behalf of a party at a scheduling or pretrial conference, or if a party or party's attorney is substantially unprepared to participate in the conference, or if a party or party's attorney fails to participate in good faith, the judge, upon motion or the judge's own initiative, may make such orders with regard thereto as are just, and among others any of the orders provided in Rule 37(b)(2)(B), (C), (D). In lieu of or in addition to any other sanction, the judge shall require the party or the attorney representing the party or both to pay the reasonable expenses incurred because of any noncompliance with this rule, including attorney's fees, unless the judge finds that the noncompliance was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

PARTIES

Rule 17 Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another may sue in that person's own name without joining the party for whose benefit the action is brought and when a statute of the United States so provides, an action for the use or benefit of another shall be brought in the name of the United States. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had been commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

(b) Infants or Incompetent Persons. Whenever an infant or incompetent person has a representative, such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other like fiduciary, the representative may sue or defend on behalf of the infant or incompetent person. An infant or incompetent person who does not have a duly appointed representative may sue by a next friend or by a guardian ad litem. The Court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for an infant or incompetent person not otherwise represented in an action or shall make such other order as it deems proper for the protection of the infant or incompetent person.

Rule 18 Joinder of Claims and Remedies

(a) Joinder of Claims. A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims, legal, or equitable, as the party has against an opposing party.

(b) Joinder of Remedies; Fraudulent Conveyances. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the Court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. In particular, a plaintiff may state a claim for money and a claim to have set aside a conveyance fraudulent as to that plaintiff, without first having obtained a judgment establishing the claim for money.

Rule 19 Joinder of Persons Needed for Just Adjudication

(a) Persons to be Joined if Feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the Court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if:

- (1) in the person's absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties; or
- (2) the person claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in the person's absence may:
 - (A) as a practical matter impair or impede the person's ability to protect that interest; or
 - (B) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of the claimed interest.

If the person has not been so joined, the Court shall order that the person be made a party. If the person should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, the person may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff. If the joined party objects to venue and joinder of that party would render the venue of the action improper, that party shall be dismissed from the action.

(b) Determination by Court Whenever Joinder Not Feasible. If a person as described in subsection (a)(1)-(2) hereof cannot be made a party, the Court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the Court include:

- (1) to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to the person or those already parties;
- (2) the extent to which, by protective provision in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided;
- (3) whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; and
- (4) whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

(c) Pleading Reasons for Nonjoinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons as described in subsection (a)(1)-(2) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

(d) Exception of Class Actions. This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 23.

Rule 20 Permissive Joinder of Parties

(a) Permissive Joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

(b) Separate Trials. The Court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom the party asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against the party, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

Rule 21 Misjoinder and Non-Joinder of Parties

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the Court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

Rule 22 Interpleader

Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that the plaintiff is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Rule 20.

Rule 23 Class Actions

(a) Prerequisite to a Class Action. One or more members of a class may sue or be sued as representative parties on behalf of all only if:

- (1) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;
- (2) there are questions of law or fact common to the class;
- (3) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; and
- (4) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.

(b) Class Actions Maintainable. An action may be maintained as a class action if the prerequisites of subsection (a) are satisfied, and in addition:

- (1) the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class would create a risk of:
 - (A) inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for the party opposing the class;
 - (B) adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests;
- (2) the party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or
- (3) the Court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the findings include:
 - (A) the interest of members of the class in individually controlling the prosecution or defense of separate actions;
 - (B) the extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversy already commenced by or against members of the class;
 - (C) the desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the claims in the particular forum;
 - (D) the difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class action.

(c) Determination by Order Whether Class Action to be Maintained; Notice; Judgment; Actions Conducted Partially as Class Actions.

- (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the Court shall determine by order whether it is to be so maintained. An order under this subsection may be conditional and may be altered or amended before the decision on the merits.
- (2) In any class action maintained under subsection (b)(3), the Court shall direct to the members of the class the best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise each member that:

- (A) the Court will exclude the member from the class if the member so requests by a specified date;
 - (B) the judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who do not request exclusion; and
 - (C) any member who does not request exclusion may, if the member desires, enter an appearance through counsel.
- (3) The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subsection (b)(1) or (b)(2), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and describe those whom the Court finds to be members of the class. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action under subsection (b)(3), whether or not favorable to the class, shall include and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subsection (c)(2) was directed, and who have not requested exclusion, and whom the Court finds to be members of the class.
- (4) When appropriate:
- (A) an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues; or
 - (B) a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this rule shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

(d) Orders in Conduct of Actions. In the conduct of actions to which this rule applies, the Court may make appropriate orders:

- (1) determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;
- (2) requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the Court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;
- (3) imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;
- (4) requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefrom allegations to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceed accordingly;
- (5) dealing with similar procedural matters. The orders may be combined with an order under Rule 16 and may be altered or amended as may be desirable from time to time.

(e) Dismissal or Compromise. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to all the members of the class in such manner as the Court directs.

Rule 23.1 Derivative Actions by Shareholders

In a derivative action brought by one or more shareholders or members to enforce a right of a corporation or of an unincorporated association, the corporation or association having failed to enforce a right which may properly be asserted by it, the complaint shall be verified and shall allege:

(a) that the plaintiff was a shareholder or member at the time of the transaction of which the plaintiff complains or that the plaintiff's share or membership thereafter devolved on the plaintiff by operation of law; and

(b) that the action is not a collusive one to confer jurisdiction on the Nez Perce Tribal Court which it would not otherwise have.

The complaint shall also allege with particularity the efforts, if any, made by the plaintiff to obtain the action the plaintiff desires from the directors of comparable authority and, if necessary, from the shareholders or members, and the reasons for the plaintiff's failure to obtain the action or for not making the effort. The derivative action may not be maintained if it appears that the plaintiff does not fairly and adequately represent the interests of the shareholders or members similarly situated in enforcing the right of the corporation or association. The action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the approval of the Court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall be given to shareholders or members in such manner as the Court directs.

Rule 23.2 Actions Relating to Unincorporated Associations

An action brought by or against the members of an unincorporated association as a class by naming certain members as representative parties may be maintained only if it appears that the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the association and its members. In the conduct of the action the Court may make appropriate orders corresponding with those described in Rule 23(d), and the procedure for dismissal or compromise of the action shall correspond with that provided in Rule 23(e).

Rule 24 Intervention

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action:

- (1) when this code confers an unconditional right to intervene; or
- (2) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and the applicant is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede the applicant's ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action:

- (1) when this code confers a conditional right to intervene; or
- (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common.

When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any law or executive order administered by a federal, state or tribal governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirement or agreement issued or made pursuant to the law or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion, the Court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon the parties as provided in Rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. The same procedure shall be followed when this code gives a right to intervene. When the legality of an act of the tribe is drawn in question in any action in which the tribe or an officer, agency, or employee thereof is not a party, the Court shall notify the tribal office of legal counsel. A party challenging the legality of legislation should call the attention of the Court to its consequential duty, but failure to do so is not a waiver of any constitutional right otherwise timely asserted.

Rule 25 Substitution of Parties

(a) Death

- (1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the Court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by any party or by the successors or representatives of the deceased party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided in Rule 5 and upon persons not parties in the manner provided in Rule 4 for the service of a summons. Unless the motion for substitution is made not later than ninety (90) days after the death is suggested upon the record by service of a statement of the fact of the death as provided herein for the service of the motion, the action shall be dismissed as to the deceased party.
- (2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or of one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the Court upon motion served as provided in subsection (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against the party's representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party, unless the Court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subsection (a) of this rule.

(d) Tribal Officers; Death or Separation from Office.

- (1) When a tribal officer is a party to an action in an official capacity and during its pendency dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate, and the officer's successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings following the substitution shall be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer not affecting the substantial rights of the parties shall be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but the omission to enter such an order shall not affect the substitution.
- (2) A tribal officer who sues or is sued in an official capacity may be described as a party by the officer's official title rather than by name; but the Court may require the officer's name to be added.

DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

Rule 26 General Provisions Governing Discovery; Duty of Disclosure

(a) Required Disclosures; Methods to Discover Additional Matter.

- (1) Initial Disclosures. Except to the extent otherwise stipulated or directed by order, a party shall, without awaiting a discovery request, provide to other parties:
 - (A) the name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information relevant to disputed facts alleged with particularity in the pleadings, identifying the subjects of the information;
 - (B) a copy of, or a description by category and location of, all documents, data compilations, and tangible things in the possession, custody, or control of the party that are relevant to disputed facts alleged with particularity in the pleadings;
 - (C) a computation of any category of damages claimed by the disclosing party, making available for inspection and copying as under Rule 34 the documents or other evidentiary material, not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of injuries suffered; and
 - (D) for inspection and copying as under Rule 34 any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.

Unless otherwise stipulated or directed by the Court, these disclosures shall be made at or within ten (10) days after the meeting of the parties under subsection (f). A party shall make its initial disclosures based on the information then reasonably available to it and is not excused from making its disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation of the case or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because another party has not made its disclosures.

(2) Disclosure of Expert Testimony.

- (A) In addition to the disclosures required by subpart (1), a party shall disclose to other parties the identity of any person who may be used at trial to present evidence under Rules 45, 46 or 48 of the Rules of Evidence.
- (B) Except as otherwise stipulated or directed by the Court, this disclosure shall, with respect to a witness who is retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony in the case or whose duties as an employee of the party regularly involve giving expert testimony, be accompanied by a written report prepared and signed by the witness. The report shall contain a complete statement of all opinions to be expressed and the basis and reasons therefor; the data or other information considered by the witness in forming the opinions; any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions; the qualifications of the witness, including a list of all publications authored by the witness within the preceding ten (10) years; the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony; and a listing of any other cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial or by deposition within the preceding four (4) years.
- (C) These disclosures shall be made at the times and in the sequence directed by the Court. In the absence of other directions from the Court or stipulation by the parties, the disclosures shall be made at least ninety (90) days before the trial date or the date the case is to be ready for trial or, if the evidence is intended solely to contradict or rebut evidence on the same subject matter identified by another party under subpart (2)(B), within thirty (30) days after disclosure made by the other party. The parties shall supplement these disclosures when required under subsection (e)(1).

(3) Pretrial Disclosures. In addition to the disclosures required in the preceding subparts, a party shall provide to other parties the following information regarding the evidence that it may present at trial other than solely for impeachment purposes:

- (A) the name and, if not previously provided, the address and telephone number of each of those whom the party expects to present and those whom the party may call if the need arises;
- (B) the designation of those witnesses whose testimony is expected to be presented by means of a deposition and, if not taken stenographically, a transcript of the pertinent portions of the deposition testimony; and

- (C) an appropriate identification of each document or other exhibit, including summaries of other evidence, separately identifying those which the party expects to offer and those which the party may offer if the need arises.

Unless otherwise directed by the Court, these disclosures shall be made at least thirty (30) days before trial. Within fourteen (14) days thereafter, unless a different time is specified by the Court, a party may serve and file a list disclosing:

- (i) any objections to the use under Rule 32(a) of a deposition designated by another party under subpart (B); and
- (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefor, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under subpart (C).

Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 10 and 11 of the Rules of Evidence, shall be deemed waived unless excused by the Court for good cause shown.

- (4) Form of Disclosures; Filing. Unless otherwise directed by order, all disclosures under subparts (1) through (3) shall be made in writing, signed, served, and promptly filed with the Court.
- (5) Methods to Discover Additional Matter. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property under Rule 34 or 45(a)(1)(C), for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission.

(b) Discovery Scope and Limits. Unless otherwise limited by order of the Court in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

- (1) In General. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. The information sought need not be admissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
- (2) Limitations. By order, the Court may alter the limits in these rules on the number of depositions and interrogatories and may also limit the length of depositions under Rule 30 and the number of requests under Rule 36. The frequency or extent of use of the discovery methods otherwise permitted under these rules shall be limited by the Court if it determines that:

- (A) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative or is obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive;
- (B) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity by discovery in the action to obtain the information sought; or
- (C) the burden or expense of the proposed discovery outweighs its likely benefit, taking into account the needs of the case, the amount in controversy, the parties' resources, the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation, and the importance of the proposed discovery in resolving the issues.

The Court may act upon its own initiative after reasonable notice or pursuant to a motion under subsection (c).

- (3) Trial Preparation; Materials. Subject to the provisions of subsection (b)(4) of this rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subsection (b)(1) of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's representative (including the other party's attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of the party's case and that the party is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the Court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(3) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this subpart, a statement previously made is:

- (A) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it; or
- (B) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

- (4) Trial Preparation: Experts.

- (A) A party may depose any person who has been identified as an expert whose opinions may be presented at trial. If a report from the expert is required under subsection (a)(2)(B), the deposition shall not be conducted until report is provided.

- (B) A party may, through interrogatories or by deposition, discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in Rule 35(b) or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.
- (C) Unless manifest injustice would result:
 - (i) the Court shall require that the party seeking discovery to pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under this subsection; and
 - (ii) with respect to discovery obtained under subsection (b)(4)(B) of this rule the Court shall require the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.
- (5) Claims of Privilege or Protection of Trial Preparation Materials. When a party withholds information otherwise discoverable under these rules by claiming that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation material, the party shall make the claim expressly and shall describe the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced or disclosed in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable other parties to assess the applicability of the privilege or protection.

(c) Protective Orders. Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, accompanied by a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action, and for good cause shown, the Court may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following:

- (1) that the disclosure or discovery not be had;
- (2) that the disclosure or discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place;
- (3) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery;
- (4) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the disclosure or discovery be limited to certain matters;
- (5) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the Court;

- (6) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the Court;
- (7) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be revealed or be revealed only in a designated way; and
- (8) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the Court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the Court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or other person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(3) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(d) Timing and Sequence of Discovery. Except when authorized under these rules or by order, or agreement of the parties, a party may not seek discovery from any source before the parties have met and conferred as required by subsection (f). Unless the Court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery.

(e) Supplementation of Disclosures and Responses. A party who has made disclosure under subsection (a) or responded to a request for discovery with a disclosure or response is under a duty to supplement or correct the disclosure or response to include information thereafter acquired if ordered by the Court in the following circumstances:

- (1) A party is under duty to supplement at appropriate intervals its disclosures under subsection (a) if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing. With respect to testimony of an expert from whom a report is required under subsection (a)(2)(B) the duty extends both to information contained in the report and to information provided through a deposition of the expert, and any additions or other changes to this information shall be disclosed by the time the party's disclosures under Rule 26(a)(3) are due.
- (2) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response to an interrogatory, request for production, or request for admission if the party learns that the response is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

(f) Meeting of Parties; Planning for Discovery. Except in actions exempted by law or when otherwise ordered, the parties shall, as soon as practicable and in any event at least fourteen (14) days before a scheduling conference is held or a scheduling order is due under Rule 16(b), meet to discuss the nature and basis of their claims and defenses and the possibilities for a prompt settlement or resolution of the case, to make or arrange for the disclosures required by subsection (a)(1), and to develop a proposed discovery plan. The plan shall indicate the parties' views and proposals concerning:

- (1) what changes should be made in the timing, form, or requirement for disclosures under subsection (a) or law, including a statement as to when disclosures under subsection (a)(1) were made or will be made;
- (2) the subjects on which discovery may be needed, when discovery should be completed, and whether discovery should be conducted in phases or be limited to or focused upon particular issues;
- (3) what changes should be made in the limitations on discovery imposed under these rules or by law, and what other limitations should be imposed; and
- (4) any other orders that should be entered by the Court under subsection (c) or under Rule 16(b) and (c).

The attorneys of record and all unrepresented parties that have appeared in the case are jointly responsible for arranging and being present or represented at the meeting, for attempting in good faith to agree on the proposed discovery plan, and for submitting to the Court within ten (10) days after the meeting a written report outlining the plan.

(g) Signing of Disclosures, Discovery Requests, Responses, and Objections.

- (1) Every disclosure made pursuant to subsection (a)(1) or subsection (a)(3) shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. An unrepresented party shall sign the disclosure and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the disclosure is complete and correct as of the time it is made.
- (2) Every discovery request, response, or objection made by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name, whose address shall be stated. An unrepresented party shall sign the request, response, or objection and state the party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that to the best of the signer's knowledge, information, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry, the request, response, or objection is:
 - (A) consistent with these rules and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law;
 - (B) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and
 - (C) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

If a request, response, or objection is not signed, it shall be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response, or objection, and a party shall not be obligated to take any action with respect to it until it is signed.

- (3) If without substantial justification a certification is made in violation of this rule, the Court upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall impose upon the person who made the certification, the party on whose behalf the disclosure, request, response, or objection is made, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay the amount of reasonable expenses incurred because of the violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Rule 27 Depositions Before Action or Pending Appeal

(a) Before Action

- (1) Petition. A person who desires to perpetuate testimony regarding any claim for relief that may be brought in the Court may file a verified petition with the Court. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner and shall show:
 - (A) that the petitioner expects to be a party to an action brought in the Court but is presently unable to bring it or cause it to be brought;
 - (B) the subject matter of the expected action and the petitioner's interest therein;
 - (C) the facts which the petitioner desires to establish by the proposed testimony and the reasons for desiring to perpetuate it;
 - (D) the names or a description of the persons the petitioner expects will be adverse parties and their addresses so far as known; and
 - (E) the names and addresses of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which the petitioner expects to elicit from each, and shall ask for an order authorizing the petitioner to take the depositions of the persons to be examined named in the petition, for the purpose of perpetuating their testimony.
- (2) Notice and Service. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the Court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least twenty (20) days before the date of hearing the notice shall be served in the manner provided in Rule 4(d) for service or summons; but if such service cannot with due diligence be made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the Court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise.

- (3) Order and Examination. If the Court is satisfied that the perpetuation of the testimony may prevent a failure or delay of justice, it shall make an order designating or describing the persons whose depositions may be taken and specifying the subject matter of the examination and whether the depositions shall be taken upon oral examination or written interrogatories. The depositions may then be taken in accordance with these rules; and the Court may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35.
- (4) Use of Deposition. If a deposition to perpetuate testimony is taken under these rules it may be used in any action involving the same subject matter subsequently brought in the Tribal Court in accordance with the provisions of Rule 32(a).

(b) Pending Appeal. If an appeal has been taken from a judgment of the Court or before the taking of an appeal if the time therefor has not expired, the Court may allow the taking of the depositions of witnesses to perpetuate their testimony for use in the event of further proceedings in the Court. In such case the party who desires to perpetuate the testimony may make a motion in the Court for leave to take the depositions, upon the same notice and service thereof as if the action was pending in the Court. The motion shall show:

- (1) the names and address of the persons to be examined and the substance of the testimony which the party expects to elicit from each; and
- (2) the reasons for perpetuating their testimony.

If the Court finds that the perpetuation of the testimony is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, it may make an order allowing the depositions to be taken and may make orders of the character provided for by Rules 34 and 35, and thereupon the depositions may be taken and used in the same manner and under the same conditions as are prescribed in these rules for depositions.

(c) Perpetuation by Action. This rule does not limit the power of the Court to entertain an action to perpetuate testimony.

Rule 28 Persons Before Whom Depositions May Be Taken

(a) Within the United States. Within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held, or before a person appointed by the Court. A person so appointed has power to administer oaths and take testimony. The term officer as used in Rules 30, 31, and 32 includes a person appointed by the Court or designated by the parties under Rule 29.

(b) In Foreign Countries. Depositions may be taken in a foreign country:

- (1) pursuant to any applicable treaty or convention;

- (2) pursuant to a letter of request (whether or not captioned a letter rogatory);
- (3) on notice before a person authorized to administer oaths in the place where the examination is held, either by the law thereof or by the law of the United States; or
- (4) before a person commissioned by the Court, and a person so commissioned shall have the power by virtue of commission to administer any necessary oath and take testimony. A commission or a letter of request shall be issued on application and notice and on terms that are just and appropriate.

It is not requisite to the issuance of a commission or a letter of request that the taking of the deposition in any other manner is impracticable or inconvenient; and both a commission and a letter of request may be issued in proper cases. A notice or commission may designate the person before whom the deposition is to be taken either by name or descriptive title. A letter of request may be addressed "To the Appropriate Authority in [here name the country]." When a letter of request or any other device is used pursuant to any applicable treaty or convention, it shall be captioned in the form prescribed by that treaty or convention. Evidence obtained in response to a letter of request need not be excluded merely because it is not a verbatim transcript, because the testimony was not taken under oath, or because of any similar departure from the requirements for depositions taken within the United States under these rules.

(c) Disqualification for Interest. No deposition shall be taken before a person who is a relative or employee or attorney or counsel of any of the parties or is a relative or employee of such attorney or counsel, or is financially interested in the action.

Rule 29 Stipulations Regarding Discovery Procedure

Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the parties may by written stipulation:

- (a) provide the depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner and when so taken may be used like other depositions; and
- (b) modify other procedures governing or limitations placed upon discovery, except that stipulations extending the time provided in Rules 33, 34, and 36 for responses to discovery may, if they would interfere with any time set for completion of discovery, for hearing of a motion, or for trial, be made only with the approval of the Court.

Rule 30 Depositions Upon Oral Examination

(a) When Depositions May Be Taken; When Leave Required.

- (1) A party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination without leave of court except as provided in subpart (2). The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in Rule 45.
- (2) A party must obtain leave of court, which shall be granted to the extent consistent with the principles stated in Rule 26(b)(2), if the person to be examined, is confined in prison or if, without the written stipulation of parties:

- (A) a proposed deposition would result in more than ten (10) depositions being taken under this rule or Rule 31 by the plaintiffs, or by the defendants, or by third-party defendants;
- (B) the person to be examined already has been deposed in the case; or
- (C) a party seeks to take a deposition before the time specified in Rule 26(d) unless the notice contains a certification, with supporting facts, that the person to be examined is expected to leave the United States and be unavailable for examination in this country unless deposed before that time.

(b) Notice of Examination: General Requirements; Method of Recording; Production of Documents and Things; Deposition of Organization; Deposition by Telephone.

- (1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced as set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to, or included in, the notice.
- (2) The party taking the deposition shall state in the notice the method by which the testimony shall be recorded. Unless the Court orders otherwise, it may be recorded by sound, sound-and-visual, or stenographic means and the party taking the deposition shall bear the cost of the recording. Any party may arrange for transcription to be made from the recording of a deposition taken by nonstenographic means.
- (3) With prior notice to the deponent and other parties, any party may designate another method to record the deponent's testimony in addition to the method specified by the person taking the deposition. The additional record or transcript shall be made at that party's expense unless the Court otherwise orders.
- (4) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, a deposition shall be conducted before an officer appointed or designated under Rule 28 and shall begin with a statement on the record by the officer that includes:
 - (A) the officer's name and business address;
 - (B) the date, time, and place of the deposition;
 - (C) the name of the deponent;
 - (D) the administration of the oath or affirmation to the deponent; and
 - (E) an identification of all persons present.

If the deposition is recorded other than stenographically, the officer shall repeat items (A) through (C) at the beginning of each unit of recorded tape or other recording medium. The appearance or demeanor of deponents or attorneys shall not be distorted through camera or sound-recording techniques. At the end of the deposition, the officer shall state on the record that the deposition is complete and shall set forth any stipulations made by counsel concerning the custody of the transcript or recording and the exhibits, or concerning other pertinent matters.

- (5) The notice to a party deponent may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with Rule 34 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of Rule 34 shall apply to the request.
- (6) A party may in the party's notice and in a subpoena name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which the person will testify. A subpoena shall advise a non-party organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This subsection (b)(6) does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these rules.
- (7) The parties may stipulate in writing or the Court may upon motion order that a deposition be taken by telephone or other remote electronic means. For the purposes of this rule and Rules 28(a) and 37(b)(1) a deposition taken by such means is taken at the place where the deponent is to answer questions.

(c) Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Rules of Evidence except Rules 3 and 43. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath or affirmation and shall personally, or by someone acting under the officer's direction and in the officer's presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other method authorized by subsection (b)(4) of this rule. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, to the manner of taking it, to the evidence presented, to the conduct of any party, or to any other aspect of the proceedings shall be noted by the officer upon the record of the deposition; but the examination shall proceed, with the testimony being taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and the party taking the deposition shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(d) Schedule and Duration; Motion to Terminate or Limit Examination.

- (1) Any objection to evidence during a deposition shall be stated concisely and in a non-argumentative and non-suggestive manner. A party may instruct a deponent not to answer only when necessary to preserve a privilege, to enforce a limitation on evidence directed by the Court, or to present a motion under subpart (3).

- (2) By order, the Court may limit the time permitted for the conduct of a deposition, but shall allow additional time consistent with Rule 26(b)(2) if needed for a fair examination of the deponent or if the deponent or another party impedes or delays the examination. If the Court finds such an impediment, delay, or other conduct that has frustrated the fair examination of the deponent, it may impose upon the persons responsible an appropriate sanction, including the reasonable costs and attorney's fees incurred by any parties as a result thereof.
- (3) At any time during a deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the Court may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in Rule 26(c). If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon order of the Court. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(3) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(e) Review by Witness; Changes; Signing. If requested by the deponent or a party before completion of the deposition, the deponent shall have thirty (30) days after being notified by the officer that the transcript or recording is available in which to review the transcript or recording and, if there are changes in form or substance, to sign a statement reciting such changes and the reasons given by the deponent for making them. The officer shall indicate in the certificate prescribed by subsection (f)(1) whether any review was requested and, if so, shall append any changes made by the deponent during the period allowed.

(f) Certification and Filing by Officer; Exhibits; Copies; Notice of Filing.

- (1) The officer shall certify that the witness was duly sworn by the officer and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. This certificate shall be in writing and accompany the record of the deposition. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the officer shall securely seal the deposition in an envelope or package indorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of [here insert name of witness]" and shall promptly file it with the Court or send it to the attorney who arranged for the transcript or recording, who shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss, destruction, tampering, or deterioration. Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness, shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to the deposition, and may be inspected and copied by any party, except that if the person producing the materials desires to retain them the person may:

- (A) offer copies to be marked for identification and annexed to the deposition and to serve thereafter as originals if the person affords to all parties fair opportunity to verify the copies by comparison with the originals; or

- (B) offer the originals to be marked for identification, after giving to each party an opportunity to inspect and copy them, in which event the materials may then be used in the same manner as if annexed to the deposition. Any party may move for an order that the original be annexed to and returned with the deposition to the Court, pending final disposition of the case.
 - (2) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or agreed by the parties, the officer shall retain stenographic notes of any deposition taken stenographically or a copy of the recording of any deposition taken by another method. Upon payment of reasonable charges therefor, the officer shall furnish a copy of the transcript or other recording of the deposition to any party or to the deponent.
 - (3) The party taking the deposition shall give prompt notice of its filing to all other parties.
- (g) Failure to Attend or to Serve Subpoena; Expenses.
- (1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by that party and that party's attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.
 - (2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon the witness and the witness because of such failure does not attend, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because that party expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the Court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by that party and that party's attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

Rule 31 Depositions Upon Written Questions

- (a) Serving Questions; Notice.
 - (1) A party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon written questions without leave of court except as provided in subpart (2). The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Rule 45. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the Court prescribes.
 - (2) A party must obtain leave of court, which shall be granted to the extent consistent with the principles stated in Rule 26(b)(2), if the person to be examined is confined in prison or if, without the written stipulation of the parties:

- (A) a proposed deposition would result in more than ten (10) depositions being taken under this rule or Rule 30 by the plaintiffs, or by the defendants, or by third-party defendants;
 - (B) the person to be examined has already been deposed in the case; or
 - (C) a party seeks to take a deposition before the time specified in Rule 26(d).
- (3) A party desiring to take a deposition upon written questions shall serve them upon every other party with a notice stating:
- (A) the name and address of the person who is to answer, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which the person belongs; and
 - (B) the name or descriptive title and address of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken. A deposition upon written questions may be taken of a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency in accordance with the provisions of Rule 30(b)(6).
- (4) Within fourteen (14) days after the notice and written questions are served, a party may serve cross questions upon all other parties. Within seven (7) days after being served with cross questions, a party may serve redirect questions upon all other parties. Within seven (7) days after being served with redirect questions, a party may serve recross questions upon all other parties. The Court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Officer to Take Responses and Prepare Record. A copy of the notice and copies of all questions served shall be delivered by the party taking the deposition to the officer designated in the notice, who shall proceed promptly, in the manner provided by Rule 30(c), (e), and (f), to take the testimony of the witness in response to the questions and prepare, certify, and file or mail the deposition attaching thereto the copy of the notice and the questions received by the officer.

(c) Notice of Filing. When the deposition is filed the party taking it shall promptly give notice thereof to all other parties.

Rule 32 Use of Depositions in Court Proceedings

(a) Use of Depositions. At the trial or upon the hearing of a motion or an interlocutory proceeding, any part or all of a deposition, so far as admissible under the Rules of Evidence applied as though the witness were then present and testifying, may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had reasonable notice thereof, in accordance with any of the following provisions.

- (1) Any deposition may be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of deponent as a witness, or for any other purpose permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

- (2) The deposition of a party or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, or managing agent, or a person designated under the Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a public or private corporation, partnership or association or governmental agency which is a party may be used by an adverse party for any purpose.
- (3) The deposition of a witness, whether or not a party, may be used by any party for any purpose if the Court finds:
 - (A) that the witness is dead;
 - (B) that the witness is at a greater distance than 100 miles from the Tribal Court, or is out of the United States, unless it appears that the absence of the witness was procured by the party offering the deposition;
 - (C) that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of age, illness, infirmity, or imprisonment;
 - (D) that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena; or
 - (E) upon application and notice, that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court, to allow the deposition to be used.

A deposition taken without leave of court pursuant to a notice under Rule 30(a)(2)(C) shall not be used against a party who demonstrates that, when served with the notice, it was unable through the exercise of diligence to obtain counsel to represent it at the taking of the deposition; nor shall a deposition be used against a party who, having received less than eleven (11) days' notice of a deposition, has promptly upon receiving such notice filed a motion for a protective order under Rule 26(c)(2) requesting that the deposition not be held or be held at a different time or place and such motion is pending at the time the deposition is held.

- (4) If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require the offeror to introduce any other part which ought in fairness to be considered with the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.

Substitution of parties pursuant to Rule 25 does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and when an action has been brought and another action involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former action may be used in the latter as if originally taken therefor. A deposition previously taken may also be used as permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

(b) Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Rule 28(b) and subsection (d)(3) of this rule, objection may be made at the trial or hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.

(c) Form of Presentation. Except as otherwise directed by court, a party offering deposition testimony pursuant to this rule may offer it in stenographic or nonstenographic form, but, if in nonstenographic form, the party shall also provide the Court with a transcript of the portions so offered. On request of any party in a case tried before a jury, deposition testimony offered other than for impeachment purposes shall be presented in nonstenographic form, if available, unless the Court for good cause orders otherwise.

(d) Effect of Errors and Irregularities in Depositions.

- (1) As to Notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless written objection is promptly served upon the party giving the notice.
- (2) As to Disqualification of Officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.
- (3) As to Taking of Deposition.
 - (A) Objections to competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.
 - (B) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.
 - (C) Objections to the form of written questions submitted under Rule 31 are waived unless served in writing upon the party propounding them within the time allowed for serving the succeeding cross or other questions and within five (5) days after service of the last questions authorized.
- (4) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, indorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rules 30 and 31 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

Rule 33 Interrogatories to Parties

- (a) Availability. Without leave of court or written stipulation, any party may serve upon any other party written interrogatories, not exceeding twenty-five (25) in number including all discrete subparts, to be answered by the party served or, if the party served is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Leave to serve additional interrogatories shall be granted to the extent consistent with the principles of Rule 26(b)(2). Without leave of court or written stipulation, interrogatories may not be served before the time specified in Rule 26(d).

(b) Answers and Objections

- (1) Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the objecting party shall state the reasons for objections and shall answer to the extent the interrogatory is not objectionable.
- (2) The answers are to be signed by the person making them, and the objections signed by the attorney making them.
- (3) The party upon whom the interrogatories have been served shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within thirty (30) days after the service of the interrogatories. A shorter or longer time may be directed by the Court or, in the absence of such an order, agreed to in writing by the parties subject to Rule 29.
- (4) All grounds for an objection to an interrogatory shall be stated with specificity. Any ground not stated in a timely objection is waived unless the party's failure to object is excused by the Court for good cause shown.
- (5) The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under Rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory.

(c) Scope; Use at Trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under Rule 26(b)(1), and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the Rules of Evidence.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the Court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until a pre-trial conference or other later time.

(d) Option to Produce Business Records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, including a compilation, abstract or summary thereof and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. A specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and to identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained.

Rule 34 Production of Documents and Things and Entry Upon Land for Inspection and Other Purposes

- (a) Scope. Any party may serve on any other party a request:
 - (1) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on the requestor's behalf, to inspect and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phono records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 26(b) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or
 - (2) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 26(b).

(b) Procedure. The request shall set forth, either by individual item or by category, the items to be inspected, and describe each with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts. Without leave of court or written stipulation, a request may not be served before the time specified in Rule 26(d).

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within thirty (30) days after the service of the request. A shorter or longer time may be directed by the Court or, in the absence of such an order, agreed to in writing by the parties, subject to Rule 29. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified, and inspection permitted for the remaining parts. The party submitting the request may move for any order under Rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

A party who produces documents for inspection shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the request.

- (c) Persons and parties. A person not a party to the action may be compelled to produce documents and things or to submit to an inspection as provided in Rule 45.

Rule 35 Physical and Mental Examinations of Persons

- (a) Order for Examination. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the Court may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a suitably licensed or certified examiner or to produce for examination the person in the party's custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made.

(b) Report of Examiner.

- (1) If requested the party against whom an order is made under Rule 35(a) or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to the requesting party a copy of the detailed written report of the examiner setting out the examiner's findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report of examination of a person not a party, the party shows that the party is unable to obtain it. The Court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if an examiner fails or refuses to make a report the Court may exclude the examiner's testimony if offered at trial.
- (2) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege the party may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine the party in respect of the same mental or physical condition.
- (3) This subsection applies to examinations made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This subsection does not preclude discovery of a report of an examiner or the taking of a deposition of the examiner in accordance with the provisions of any other rule.

Rule 36 Requests for Admission

(a) Request for Admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of Rule 26(b)(1) set forth in the request that relate to statements or opinions for fact or of the application of law to fact including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. Without leave of court or written stipulation requests for admission may not be served before the time specified in Rule 26(d).

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within thirty (30) days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the Court may allow or as the parties may agree to in writing, subject to Rule 29, the party to whom the request is directed serves upon the party requesting the admission a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by the party's attorney. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fairly meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify an answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, the party shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless the party states that the party has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by the party is insufficient to enable the party to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which the admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; the party may, subject to the provisions of Rule 37(c), deny the matter or set forth reasons why the party cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admissions may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the Court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the Court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The Court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pre-trial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(3) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(b) Effect of Admission. Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established unless the Court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provision of Rule 16 governing amendment of a pre-trial order, the Court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to satisfy the Court that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice that party in maintaining the action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule is for the purpose of the pending action only and is not an admission for any other purpose nor may it be used against the party in any other proceeding.

Rule 37 Failure to Make or Cooperate in Discovery; Sanctions

(a) Motion for Order Compelling Disclosure or Discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling disclosure or discovery as follows:

(1) Motion.

- (A) If a party fails to make a disclosure required by Rule 26(a), any other party may move to compel disclosure and for appropriate sanctions. The motion must include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the party not making the disclosure in an effort to secure the disclosure without court action.
- (B) If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Rules 30 or 31, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a), or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. The motion must include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party failing to make the discovery in an effort to secure the information or material without court action. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before applying for an order.

- (2) Evasive or Incomplete Disclosure, Answer, or Response. For purposes of this subsection an evasive or incomplete disclosure, answer, or response is to be treated as a failure to disclose, answer, or respond.
- (3) Expenses and Sanctions.
 - (A) If the motion is granted or if the disclosure or requested discovery is provided after the motion was filed, the Court shall, after affording an opportunity to be heard, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in making the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the motion was filed without the movant's first making a good faith effort to obtain the disclosure or discovery without court action, or that the opposing party's nondisclosure, response, or objection was substantially justified, or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.
 - (B) If the motion is denied, the Court may enter any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and shall, after affording an opportunity to be heard, require the moving party or the attorney filing the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the Court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.
 - (C) If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the Court may enter any protective order authorized under Rule 26(c) and may, after affording an opportunity to be heard, apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.
- (b) Failure to Comply with Order.
 - (1) If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the Court, the failure may be considered a contempt of court.

- (2) If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subsection (a) of this rule or Rule 35, or if a party fails to obey an order entered under Rule 26(f), the Court may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:
- (A) an order that the matters regarding which the order was made, or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;
 - (B) an order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting that party from introducing designated matters in evidence;
 - (C) an order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;
 - (D) in lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;
 - (E) where a party has failed to comply with an order under Rule 35(a) requiring that party to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in subparts (A), (B), and (C) of this subsection, unless the party failing to comply shows that party is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(c) Failure to Disclose; False or Misleading Disclosure; Refusal to Admit.

- (1) A party that without substantial justification fails to disclose information required by Rule 26(a) or 26(e)(1) shall not, unless such failure is harmless, be permitted to use as evidence at a trial, at a hearing or on a motion any witness or information not so disclosed. In addition to or in lieu of this sanction, the Court, on motion and after affording an opportunity to be heard, may impose other appropriate sanctions. In addition to requiring payment of reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, these sanctions may include any of the actions authorized under subparts (A), (B), and (C) of subsection (b)(2) of this rule and may include informing the jury of the failure to make the disclosure.

- (2) If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Rule 36, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, the requesting party may apply to the Court for an order requiring the other party to pay the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The Court shall make the order unless it finds that:
 - (A) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Rule 36(a);
 - (B) the admission sought was of no substantial importance;
 - (C) the party failing to admit had reasonable grounds to believe that the party might prevail on the matter; or
 - (D) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

(d) Failure of Party to Attend at Own Deposition or Serve Answers to Interrogatories or Respond to Request for Inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails:

- (1) to appear before the officer who is to take the deposition, after being served with a proper notice; or
- (2) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, after proper service of the interrogatories; or
- (3) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, after proper service of the request, the Court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and under subparts (A), (B), and (C) of subsection (b)(2) of this rule.

Any motion specifying a failure under clause (2) or (3) of this subsection shall include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the party failing to answer or respond in an effort to obtain such answer or response without court action. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the Court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising that party or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the Court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this subsection may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has a pending motion for a protective order as provided by Rule 26(c).

(e) Failure to Participate in the Framing of a Discovery Plan. If a party or a party's attorney fails to participate in good faith in the development and submission of a proposed discovery plan as is required by Rule 26(f), the Court may, after opportunity for hearing, require such party or attorney to pay to any other party the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by failure.

TRIALS

Rule 38 Jury Trial of Right

(a) Right Preserved. The right of trial by jury shall be preserved to the parties for any claim in which a legal remedy is sought, but excluding a claim in which an equitable remedy is sought.

(b) Demand. Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by:

- (1) serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than ten (10) days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue; and
- (2) filing the demand as required by Rule 5(d). Such demand may be indorsed upon a pleading of the party.

(c) Same: Specification of Issues. In the demand a party may specify the issues which the party wishes so tried; otherwise the party shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If the party has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within ten (10) days after service of the demand or such lesser time as the Court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues or fact in the action.

(d) Waiver. The failure of a party to serve and file a demand as required by this rule constitutes a waiver by the party of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury made as herein provided may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.

Rule 39 Trial by Jury or by the Court

(a) By Jury. When trial by jury has been demanded as provided in Rule 38, the action shall be designated upon the docket as a jury action. The trial of all issues so demanded shall be by jury, unless (1) the parties or their attorneys of record, by written stipulation filed with the Court or by an oral stipulation made in open court and entered in the record, consent to trial by the Court sitting without a jury or (2) the Court upon motion or of its own initiative finds that a right of trial by jury of some or all of those issues does not exist under the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968.

(b) By Court. Issues not demanded for trial by jury as provided in Rule 38 shall be tried by the Court; but, notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such a demand might have been made of right, the Court in its discretion upon motion may order a trial by a jury of any or all issues.

Rule 40 Assignment of Cases for Trial

The Court shall provide by rule for the placing of actions upon the trial calendar (1) without request of the parties or (2) upon request of a party and notice to the other parties or (3) in such other manner as the courts deem expedient. Precedence shall be given to actions entitled thereto by tribal law.

Rule 41 Dismissal of Actions(a) Voluntary Dismissal: Effect Thereof.

- (1) By Plaintiff; by Stipulation. Subject to the provisions of Rule 23(e), of Rule 64, and of any tribal law, an action may be dismissed by the plaintiff without order of court:
 - (A) by filing notice of dismissal at any time before service by the adverse party of an answer or of a motion for summary judgment, whichever first occurs; or
 - (B) by filing a stipulation of dismissal signed by all parties who have appeared in the action. Unless otherwise stated in the notice of dismissal or stipulation, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that a notice of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when filed by a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action based on or including the same claim.
- (2) By Order of Court. Except as provided in subpart (1) of this subsection of this rule, an action shall not be dismissed at the plaintiff's instance save upon order of the Court and upon such terms and conditions as the Court deems proper. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon the defendant of the plaintiff's motion to dismiss, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the Court. Unless otherwise specified in the order, a dismissal under this subpart is without prejudice.

(b) Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross-Claim, or Third-Party Claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to subpart (1) of subsection (a) of this rule shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

(c) Costs of Previously Dismissed Actions. If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the Court may make such order for the payment of costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until plaintiff has complied with the order.

Rule 42 Consolidation; Separate Trials

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the Court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The Court, in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claim, cross-claim, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues, always preserving the right of trial by jury as declared Rule 38.

Rule 43 Taking of Testimony

(a) Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by tribal law, these rules or the Rules of Evidence.

(b) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(c) Evidence on Motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the Court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the Court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or deposition.

(d) Interpreters. The Court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix the interpreter's reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the Court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the Court.

Rule 44 Proof of Official Record

(a) Authentication.

(1) Domestic. An official record kept by the tribe or within the United States, or any state, district, or commonwealth, or within a territory subject to the administrative or judicial jurisdiction of the United States, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by the officer's deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of the Tribal Court or a court of record of the district or political subsection in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the Court, or may be made by any tribal officer or public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subsection in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the officer's office.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the Court may, for good cause shown, (i) admit an attested copy without final certification or (ii) permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification. The final certification is unnecessary if the record and the attestation are certified as provided in a treaty or convention to which the United States and the foreign country in which the official record is located are parties.

(b) Lack of Record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subsection (a)(1) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subsection (a)(2) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

Rule 44.1 Determination of Foreign Law

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give notice by pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The Court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Rules of Evidence. The Court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

Rule 45 Subpoena

(a) Form; Issuance.

(1) Every subpoena shall:

- (A) state that it is issued from the Nez Perce Tribal Court;
- (B) state the title of the action, that it is pending in the Nez Perce Tribal Court, and its civil action number;
- (C) command each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony or to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, documents or tangible things in the possession, custody or control of that person, or to permit inspection of premises, at a time and place therein specified; and
- (D) set forth the text of subsections (c) and (d) of this rule.

A command to produce evidence or to permit inspection may be joined with a command to appear at trial or hearing or at deposition or may be issued separately.

(2) The clerk of the Court shall issue a subpoena, signed but otherwise in blank, to a party requesting it, who shall complete it before service.

(b) Service.

(1) A subpoena may be served by any person who is not a party and is not less than 18 years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and, if the person's attendance is commanded, by tendering to that person a $10.00 fee for one day's attendance plus mileage. Prior notice of any commanded production of documents and things or inspection of premises before trial shall be served on each party in the manner prescribed by Rule 5(b).

- (2) A subpoena directed to a witness in a foreign country who is a national or resident of the United States shall issue under the circumstances and in the manner and be served pursuant to the procedures used by federal courts as provided in Title 28 U.S.C. § 1783.
- (3) Proof of service when necessary shall be made by filing with the clerk of the Court a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made the service.

(c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

- (1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The Court shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty as appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

- (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.
- (B) Subject to subpart (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within fourteen (14) days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than fourteen (14) days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the Court. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

- (A) On timely motion, the Court shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
- (ii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iii) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena:

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;
- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party;
- (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the Court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the Court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

- (1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.
- (2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(e) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the Court.

Rule 46 Exception Unnecessary

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the Court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the Court is made or sought, makes known to the Court the action which the party desires the Court to take or the party's objection to the action of the Court and the grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice the party.

Rule 47 Special Verdicts and Interrogatories

(a) Special Verdicts. The Court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the Court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The Court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the Court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives the right to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires the party demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand the Court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

(b) General Verdict Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories. The Court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The Court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the Court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers shall be entered pursuant to Rule 55. When the answers are consistent with each other but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment may be entered pursuant to Rule 55 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the Court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment shall not be entered, but the Court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial.

Rule 48 Judgment as a Matter of Law in Actions Tried by Jury; Alternative Motion for New Trial; Conditional Rulings

(a) Judgment as a Matter of Law.

- (1) If during a trial by jury a party has been fully heard on an issue and there is no legally sufficient evidentiary basis for a reasonable jury to find for that party on that issue, the Court may determine the issue against that party and may grant a motion for judgment as a matter of law against that party with respect to a claim, or defense that cannot under the controlling law be maintained or defeated without a favorable finding on that issue.
- (2) Renewal of Motion of Judgment After Trial; Alternative Motion for New Trial. Whenever a motion for a judgment as a matter of law made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the Court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Such a motion may be renewed by service and filing not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment. A motion for a new trial under Rule 57 may be joined with a renewal of the motion for judgment as a matter of law, or a new trial may be requested in the alternative. If a verdict was returned, the Court may in disposing of the renewed motion, allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of judgment as a matter of law. If no verdict was returned, the Court may, in disposing of the renewed motion, direct the entry of judgment as a matter of law or may order a new trial.

(b) Renewal of Motion for Judgment After Trial; Alternative Motion for New Trial. Whenever a motion for a judgment as a matter of law made at the close of all the evidence is denied or for any reason is not granted, the Court is deemed to have submitted the action to the jury subject to a later determination of the legal questions raised by the motion. Such a motion may be renewed by service and filing not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment. A motion for new trial under Rule 57 may be joined with a renewal of the motion for judgment as a matter of law, or a new trial may be requested in the alternative. If a verdict was returned, the Court may in disposing of the renewed motion, allow the judgment to stand or may reopen the judgment and either order a new trial or direct the entry of judgment as a matter of law. If no verdict was returned, the Court may, in disposing of the renewed motion, direct the entry of judgment as a matter of law or may order a new trial.

(c) Same: Conditional Rulings on Grant of Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law.

- (1) If the renewed motion for judgment as a matter of law is granted, the Court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless the appellate court has otherwise ordered. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally denied, the appellee on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the appellate court.
- (2) The party against who judgment as a matter of law has been rendered may serve a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 57 not later than ten (10) days after entry of the judgment.

(d) Same: Denial of Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law. If the motion for judgment as a matter of law is denied, the party who prevailed on that motion may, as appellee, assert grounds entitling the party to a new trial in the event the appellate court concludes that the trial court erred in denying the motion for judgment. If the appellate court reverses the judgment, nothing in these rules precludes it from determining that the appellee is entitled to a new trial, or from directing the trial court to determine whether a new trial shall be granted.

Rule 49 Instructions to Jury: Objection

At the close of the evidence or at such earlier time during the trial as the Court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the Court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The Court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury. The Court, at its election, may instruct the jury before or after argument, or both. No party may assign as error the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless that party objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter objected to and the grounds of the objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury.

Rule 50 Findings by the Court; Judgment on Partial Findings

(a) Effect. In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the Court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and judgment shall be entered pursuant to Rule 55; and in granting or refusing interlocutory injunctions the Court shall similarly set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law which constitute the grounds of its action. Requests for findings are not necessary for purposes of review. Findings of fact, whether based on oral or documentary evidence, shall not be set aside unless clearly erroneous, and due regard shall be given to the opportunity of the trial court to judge the credibility of the witnesses. It will be sufficient if the findings of fact and conclusions of law are stated orally and recorded in open court following the close of the evidence or appear in an opinion or memorandum of decision filed by the Court. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are unnecessary on decisions of motions under Rule 12 or 53, or any other motion except as provided in subsection (c) of this rule.

(b) Amendment. Upon motion of a party made not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment the Court may amend its findings or make additional findings and may amend the judgment accordingly. The motion may be made with a motion for a new trial pursuant to Rule 57. When findings of fact are made in actions tried by the Court without a jury, the question of the sufficiency of the evidence to support the findings may thereafter be raised whether or not the party raising the question has made in the district court an objection to such findings or has made a motion to amend them or a motion for judgment.

(c) Judgment on Partial Findings. If during a trial without a jury a party has been fully heard on an issue and the Court finds against the party on that issue, the Court may enter judgment as a matter of law against that party with respect to a claim or defense that cannot under the controlling law be maintained or defeated without a favorable finding on that issue, or the Court may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. Such a judgment shall be supported by findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by subsection (a) of this rule.

JUDGMENT

Rule 51 Judgments; Costs

(a) Definition; Forms. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings, the report of a master, or the record of prior proceedings.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims or Involving Multiple Parties. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, or when multiple parties are involved, the Court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination that there is not just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in the party's pleadings.

(d) Costs; Attorneys' Fees.

(1) Costs Other than Attorneys' Fees. Except when express provision therefor is made either in this code or these rules, costs other than attorneys' fees shall be allowed as of course to the prevailing party unless the Court otherwise directs. Such costs may be taxed by the clerk on one day's notice. On motion served within five (5) days thereafter, the action of the clerk may be reviewed by the Court.

(2) Attorneys' Fees.

(A) Claims for attorneys' fees and related nontaxable expenses shall be made by motion unless the substantive law governing the action provides for the recovery of such fees as an element of damages to be proved at trial.

(B) Unless otherwise provided by this code or order of the Court, the motion must be filed and served no later than fourteen (14) days after entry of judgment; must specify the judgment and the law, rule or other grounds entitling the moving party to the award; and must state the amount or provide a fair estimate of the amount sought. If directed by the Court, the motion shall also disclose the terms of any agreement with respect to fees to be paid for the services for which claim is made.

(C) On request of a party or class member, the Court shall afford an opportunity for adversary submission with respect to the motion in accordance with Rule 43(c). The Court may determine issues of liability for fees before receiving submissions bearing on issues of evaluation of services for which liability is imposed by the Court. The Court shall find the facts and state its conclusions of law as provided in Rule 50(a), and a judgment shall be set forth in a separate document as provided in Rule 55.

(D) The provisions of subparts (A) through (C) do not apply to claims for fees and expenses as sanctions for violations of these rules.

Rule 52 Default

(a) Entry. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by these rules and that fact is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter the party's default.

(b) Judgment. Judgment by default may be entered as follows:

- (1) By the Clerk. When the plaintiff's claim against a defendant is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the clerk upon request of the plaintiff and upon affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the defendant, if the defendant has been defaulted for failure to appear and if he is not an infant or incompetent person.
- (2) By the Court. In all other cases the party entitled to a judgment by default shall apply to the Court therefor; but no judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented in the action by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other such representative who has appeared therein. If the party against whom judgment by default is sought has appeared in the action, the party (or, if appearing by representative, the party's representative) shall be served with written notice of the application for judgment at least three (3) days prior to the hearing on such application. If, in order to enable the Court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the Court may conduct such hearings or order such references as it deems necessary and proper and shall accord a right of trial by jury to the parties when and as required by this code.

(c) Setting Aside Default. For good cause shown the Court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Rule 58(b).

(d) Plaintiffs, Counterclaims, Cross-Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of Rule 51(c).

Rule 53 Summary Judgment

(a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of twenty (20) days from the commencement of the action or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor upon all or any part thereof.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in the party's favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and Proceedings Thereon. The motion shall be served at least ten (10) days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under this rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the Court at the hearing on the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating, counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The Court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of the adverse party's pleading, but the adverse party's response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If the adverse party does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against the adverse party.

(f) When Affidavits Are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that the party cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify the party's opposition, the Court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the Court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the Court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused the other party to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

Rule 54 Declaratory Judgments

(a) In a case of actual controversy within its jurisdiction, the Tribal Court, upon the filing of an appropriate pleading, may declare the rights and other legal relations of any interested party seeking such declaration whether or not further relief is or could be sought.

(b) The procedure for obtaining a declaratory judgment shall be in accordance with these rules, and the right to trial by jury may be demanded under the circumstances and in the manner provided in Rules 38 and 39. The existence of another adequate remedy does not preclude a judgment for declaratory relief in cases where it is appropriate. The Court may order a speedy hearing of an action for a declaratory judgment and may advance it on the calendar.

Rule 55 Entry of Judgment

- (a) Subject to the provisions of Rule 51(b):
 - (1) upon a general verdict of a jury, or upon a decision by the Court that a party shall recover only a sum certain or costs or that all relief shall be denied, the clerk, unless the Court otherwise orders, shall forthwith prepare, sign, and enter the judgment without awaiting any direction by the Court;
 - (2) upon a decision by the Court granting other relief, or upon a special verdict or a general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories, the Court shall promptly approve the form of the judgment, and the clerk shall thereupon enter it.

Every judgment shall be set forth on a separate document. Entry of the judgment shall not be delayed, nor the time for appeal extended, in order to tax costs or award fees. Attorneys shall not submit forms of judgment except upon direction of the Court, and these directions shall not be given as a matter of course.

Rule 56 Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments

(a) "Foreign judgment" means any judgment, decree, or order of a court of the United States or of any other court.

(b) A copy of any foreign judgment authenticated in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which it was issued may be filed in with the clerk of the Court. The clerk shall treat the foreign judgment in the same manner as a judgment of the Tribal Court. A judgment so filed has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a judgment of the Tribal Court and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner, with the following exception:

- (1) The terms of a judgment providing for the custody of a minor child may not be modified, vacated, reopened nor stayed unless the Court has assumed jurisdiction of the case.
- (c)
- (1) At the time of the filing of the foreign judgment, the judgment creditor or his attorney shall make and file with the clerk of the court an affidavit setting forth the name and last known post-office address of the judgment debtor, and the judgment creditor.
 - (2) Promptly upon the filing of the foreign judgment and the affidavit, the clerk shall mail notice of the filing of the foreign judgment to the judgment debtor at the address given and shall make a note of the mailing in the docket. The notice shall include the name and post office address of the judgment creditor and the judgment creditor's attorney, if any. In addition, the judgment creditor may mail a notice of the filing of the judgment to the judgment debtor and may file proof of mailing with the clerk. Lack of notice of filing by the clerk shall not affect the enforcement proceedings if proof of mailing by the judgment creditor has been filed.

- (3) No execution or other process for enforcement of a foreign judgment filed hereunder shall issue until five (5) days after the date the judgment is filed.

- (1) If the judgment debtor shows the court that an appeal from the foreign judgment is pending or will be taken, or that a stay of execution has been granted, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires, or until the stay of execution expires or is vacated, upon proof that the judgment debtor has furnished security for the satisfaction of the judgment required by the law of the jurisdiction in which it was rendered, if the Court determines such security is necessary.
- (2) If the judgment debtor shows the Court any ground upon which enforcement of the judgment would be stayed in the issuing jurisdiction, the Court shall stay enforcement of the foreign judgment for an appropriate period, and may require security for satisfaction of the judgment during the stay.

(e) Any person filing a foreign judgment shall pay to the clerk of the Court a fee established by the Tribal Court.

(f) The right of a judgment creditor to bring an action to enforce his judgment instead of proceeding under this rule remains unimpaired.

(g) This act may be cited as the 'Enforcement of Judgments Act.

Rule 57 New Trials; Amendment of Judgments

(a) Grounds. A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues:

- (1) in an action in which there has been a trial by jury, for any of the reasons for which new trials have heretofore been granted in actions at law in the Courts of the United States; and
- (2) in an action tried without a jury, for any of the reasons for which rehearings have heretofore been granted in suits in equity in the courts of the United States. On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions of law or make new findings and conclusions, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

(b) Time for Motion. A motion for a new trial shall be served not later than ten (10) days after the entry of the judgment.

(c) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has ten (10) days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding twenty (20) days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

(d) On Initiative of Court. Not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment the Court of its own initiative may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the Court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the Court shall specify in the order the grounds therefor.

(e) Motion to Alter or Amend a Judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than ten (10) days after entry of the judgment.

Rule 58 Relief From Judgment or Order

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the Court orders. During the pendency of an appeal, such mistakes may be so corrected before the appeal is docketed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with leave of the appellate court.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud, etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the Court may relieve a party or a party's legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

- (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;
- (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 57(b);
- (3) fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;
- (4) the judgment is void;
- (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application; or
- (6) any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.

The motion shall be made within a reasonable time, and for reasons (1), (2), and (3) not more than one year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this subsection (b) does not affect the finality of a judgment or suspend its operation. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the Court. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review, are abolished, and the procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

Rule 59 Harmless Error

No error in either the admission or the exclusion of evidence and no error or defect in any ruling or order or in anything done or omitted by the Court or by any of the parties is ground for granting a new trial or for setting aside a verdict or for vacating, modifying or otherwise disturbing a judgment or order, unless refusal to take such action appears to the Court inconsistent with substantial justice. The Court at every stage of the proceeding must disregard any error or defect in the proceeding which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties.

Rule 60 Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment

(a) Automatic Stay; Exceptions--Injunctions, Receiverships, and Patent Accountings. Except as stated herein, no execution shall issue upon a judgment nor shall proceedings be taken for its enforcement until the expiration of ten (10) days after its entry. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action, or a judgment or order directing an accounting in an action for infringement of letters patent, shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of subsection (c) of this rule govern the suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting of an injunction during the pendency of an appeal.

(b) Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the Court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Rule 57, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 58, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to Rule 48, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 50(b).

(c) Injunction Pending Appeal. When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the Court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

(d) Stay Upon Appeal. When an appeal is taken the appellant by giving a supersede as bond may obtain a stay subject to the exceptions contained in subsection (a) of this rule. The bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal, as the case may be. The stay is effective when the supersede as bond is approved by the Court.

(e) Power of Appellate Court Not Limited. The provisions in this rule do not limit any power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

(f) Stay of Judgment as to Multiple Claims or Multiple Parties. When a court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in Rule 51(b), the Court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

Rule 61 Inability of a Judge to Proceed

If a trial or hearing has been commenced and the judge is unable to proceed, any other judge may proceed with it upon certifying familiarity with the record and determining that the proceedings in the case may be completed without prejudice to the parties. In a hearing or trial without a jury, the successor judge shall at the request of a party recall any witness whose testimony is material and disputed and who is available to testify again without undue burden. The successor judge may also recall any other witness.

PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES

Rule 62 Seizure of Person or Property

At commencement of and during the course of an action, all remedies providing for seizure of person or property for the purpose of securing satisfaction of the judgment ultimately to be entered in the action are available under the circumstances and in the manner provided by the law of the tribe, existing at the time the remedy is sought.

Rule 63 Injunctions (revised 6/22/99)

(a) Preliminary Injunction.

- (1) Notice. No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the adverse party.
- (2) Consolidation of Hearing With Trial on Merits. Before or after the commencement of the hearing of an application for a preliminary injunction, the Court may order the trial of the action on the merits to be advanced and consolidated with the hearing of the application. Even when this consolidation is not ordered, any evidence received upon an application for a preliminary injunction which would be admissible upon the trial on the merits becomes part of the record on the trial and need not be repeated upon the trial. This subsection (a)(2) shall be so construed and applied as to save to the parties any rights they may have to trial by jury.

(b) There shall exist an action known as a “petition for a domestic protection order” in cases of domestic violence.

- (1) A person may seek relief from domestic violence by filing a petition based on a sworn affidavit with the Nez Perce Tribal Court, alleging that they are a victim of domestic violence. Any petition properly filed under this chapter may seek protection for any additional persons covered by this chapter.
- (2) A person’s right to petition for relief under this chapter shall not be affected by that person having left the residence or household to avoid abuse.

- (3) The petition shall disclose the existence of any custody or any marital annulment, dissolution, or separation proceedings pending between the parties, the existence of any other custody order affecting the children of the parties, and the existence of child protection, or adoption proceedings affecting the children of any of the parties.
- (4) When the petitioner requests custody of any child, the petition shall disclose:
 - (A) The county and state where the child has resided for six months immediately prior to filing of the petition;
 - (B) The party or other responsible person with whom the child is presently residing; and
 - (C) The party or other responsible person with whom the child has resided for six (6) months immediately prior to the filing of the petition.
- (5) A petition shall be filed:
 - (A) Where the petitioner currently or temporarily resides;
 - (B) Where the respondent resides; or
 - (C) Where the act of domestic violence occurred.
- (6) There is no minimum requirement of residency to petition for a domestic protection order.
- (7) The petition shall not be a matter of public record.
- (c) Ex Parte Protection Order.
 - (1) The Court may grant an ex parte temporary protection order pending a full hearing, granting such relief as the Court deems proper, where a petition under this section alleges that irreparable injury could result from domestic violence if an order is not issued immediately without prior notice to the respondent. The temporary order may include an order:
 - (A) Restraining the respondent from contacting the petitioner, either directly or indirectly;
 - (B) Restraining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit acts of domestic violence upon the petitioner;
 - (C) Excluding the respondent from the dwelling which the parties shared or from the residence of the petitioner until further ordered by the Court;
 - (D) Awarding temporary custody and/or establishing temporary visitation rights with regard to the minor children;

- (E) Restraining any party from interfering with the other's custody of the children or from removing the children from the jurisdiction of the Court;
 - (F) Ordering other relief as the Court deems necessary for the protection of a domestic partner, including orders or directives to peace officers as allowed under this code;
 - (G) Restraining the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner;
 - (H) Restraining the respondent from entering any premises when it appears to the Court that such restraint is necessary to prevent the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner;
- (2) An ex parte temporary domestic protection order shall remain in effect for 10 days from the date of issuance.
 - (3) A full hearing shall be held no more than 10 days from the date of issuance of an ex parte temporary domestic protection order. The respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the temporary order and notice of hearing, in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure of the Nez Perce Tribal Code.
 - (4) If the respondent is not personally served with a copy of the temporary order and notice of hearing, the existing temporary order may be extended for 10 days from the date originally set for hearing, and a new hearing date set. The respondent must be personally served with the new notice of hearing.
- (d) Domestic protection order.
- (1) A court may grant the following relief, if requested, in a domestic protection order after notice and hearing, whether or not the respondent appears:
 - (A) Temporary custody of the minor children of the petitioner or of the parties be awarded to the petitioner or respondent if the exercise of such jurisdiction is consistent with the provisions of this code, or consistent with prior custody orders entered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
 - (B) Restraining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit acts of domestic violence upon the petitioner;
 - (C) Restraining the respondent from contacting, harassing, telephoning, or otherwise communicating with the petitioner, either directly or indirectly;

- (D) Excluding the respondent from the dwelling which the parties shared or from the residence of the petitioner;
 - (E) Other relief as the Court deems necessary for the protection of the petitioner, including orders or directives to peace officers as allowed under this code;
 - (F) Restraining the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner;
 - (G) Restraining the respondent from entering any premises when it appears to the Court that such restraint is necessary to prevent the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner;
 - (H) Prohibiting the respondent from having in their possession any firearm and/or ammunition whether working or not; or
 - (I) Suspending or revoking the respondent's privilege to hunt with a firearm. The authority to revoke or suspend privileges extends to the rights of tribal members to hunt pursuant to the provisions of the Treaty of June 11, 1855, 12 Stat. 957 and subsequent treaties and agreements.
- (2) No protection order under this section shall in any manner affect title to real property.
 - (3) Relief shall not be denied because the petitioner used reasonable force in self-defense against the respondent, or because the petitioner or respondent was a minor at the time of the incident of domestic violence.
 - (4) Any relief granted by the domestic protection order shall be for a fixed period not to exceed 90 days; provided that an order obtained pursuant to this chapter may, upon written motion and upon good cause shown, be renewed for additional terms not to exceed one (1) year each if the requirements of this chapter are met. The motion to renew an order may be granted without a hearing, if not timely objected to by the party against whom the order is entered.
 - (5) In providing relief under this chapter, the Court may realign the designation of the parties as "petitioner" and "respondent" where the Court finds that the original petitioner is the abuser and the original respondent is the victim of domestic violence.
 - (6) A court shall not grant a mutual domestic protection order to opposing parties.
- (e) Full Faith and Credit.

- (1) Any domestic protection order issued that is consistent with subsection (b) of this section by one State or Indian tribe (the issuing State or Indian tribe) shall be accorded full faith and credit by the Nez Perce Tribe and enforced as if it were the order of the Nez Perce Tribe.
- (2) A domestic protection order issued by a State or Tribal court is consistent with this subsection if:
 - (A) such court has jurisdiction over the parties and matter under the law of such State or Indian tribe; and
 - (B) reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard is given to the person against whom the order is sought sufficient to protect that person's right to due process. In the case of ex parte orders, notice and opportunity to be heard must be provided within the time required by State or Tribal law, and in any event within a reasonable time after the order is issued.
- (3) A domestic protection order issued by a State or Tribal court against one who has petitioned, filed a complaint, or otherwise filed a written pleading for protection against abuse by a domestic household member is not entitled to full faith and credit if:
 - (A) no cross or counter petition, complaint or other written pleading was filed seeking such a protection order; or
 - (B) a cross or counter petition has been filed and the Court did not make specific findings that each party was entitled to such an order.

(f) Temporary Restraining Order; Notice; Hearing; Duration. A temporary restraining order may be granted without written or oral notice to the adverse party or that party's attorney only if:

- (1) it clearly appears from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that immediate and irreparable injury, loss or damage will result to the applicant before the adverse party or that party's attorney can be heard in opposition; and
- (2) the applicant's attorney certifies to the Court in writing the efforts, if any, which have been made to give the notice and the reasons supporting the claim that notice should not be required.

Every temporary restraining order granted without notice shall be indorsed with the date and hour of issuance; shall be filed forthwith in the clerk's office and entered of record; shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice, and shall expire by its terms within such time after entry, not to exceed ten (10) days, as the Court fixes, unless within the time so fixed the order, for good cause shown, is extended for a like period or unless a party against whom the order is directed consents that it may be extended or a longer period. The reasons for the extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining or protection order is granted without notice, the motion for a preliminary injunction or protection order shall be set down for hearing at the earliest possible time and takes precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the motion comes on for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction or protection order and, if the party does not do so, the Court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. On two (2) days' notice to the party who obtained the temporary restraining order without notice or on such shorter notice to that party as the Court may prescribe, the adverse party may appear and move its dissolution or modification and in that event the Court shall proceed to hear and determine such motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

(g) Security. No restraining order, preliminary injunction or protection order shall issue except upon the giving of security by the applicant, in such sum as the Court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained.

The provisions of Rule 63.1 apply to a surety upon a bond or undertaking under this rule.

(h) Form and Scope of Injunction, Restraining Order or Protection Order. Every order granting an injunction and every restraining or protection order shall set forth the reasons for its issuance; shall be specific in terms; shall describe in reasonable detail, and not be reference to the complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained; and is binding only upon the parties to the action, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and upon those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service or otherwise.

Rule 63.1 Security: Proceedings Against Sureties

Whenever these rules require or permit the giving of security by a party, and security is given in the form of a bond or stipulation or other undertaking with one or more sureties, each surety submits to the jurisdiction of the Court and irrevocably appoints the clerk of the Court as the surety's agent upon whom any papers affecting the surety's liability on the bond or undertaking may be served. The surety's liability may be enforced on motion without the necessity of an independent action. The motion and such notice of the motion as the Court prescribes may be served on the clerk of the Court, who shall forthwith mail copies to the sureties if their addresses are known.

Rule 64 Receivers Appointed by Court

An action wherein a receiver has been appointed shall not be dismissed except by order of the Court. The practice in the administration of estates by receivers or by other similar officers appointed by the Court shall be in accordance with the practice followed in the courts of the United States or as provided in rules promulgated by such courts. In all other respects the action in which the appointment of a receiver is sought, or which is brought by or against a receiver is governed by these rules.

Rule 65 Deposit in Court

In an action in which any part of the relief sought is a judgment for a sum of money or the disposition of a sum of money or the disposition of any other thing capable of delivery, a party, upon notice to every other party, and by leave of court, may deposit with the Court all or any part of such sum or thing, whether or not that party claims all or any part of the sum or thing.

The party making the deposit shall serve the order permitting deposit on the clerk of the Court.

Rule 66 Offer of Judgment

At any time more than ten (10) days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against the defending party for the money or property or to the effect specified in the offer, with costs then accrued. If within ten (10) days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the clerk shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than ten (10) days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

Rule 67 Execution

In General Process to enforce a judgment for the payment of money shall be a writ of execution, unless the Court directs otherwise. The procedure on execution, in proceedings supplementary to and in aid of a judgment, and in proceedings on and in aid of execution shall be in accordance with this code. In aid of the judgment of execution, the judgment creditor or a successor in interest when that interest appears of record, may obtain discovery from any person, including the judgment debtor, in the manner provided in these rules.

Rule 68 Process in Behalf of and Against Persons Not Parties

When an order is made in favor of a person who is not a party to the action, that person may enforce obedience to the order by the same process as if a party; and, when obedience to an order may be lawfully enforced against a person who is not a party, that person is liable to the same process for enforcing obedience to the order as if a party.

SPECIAL PROCEEDING

Rule 69 Condemnation of Property

(a) Applicability of Other Rules. The Rules of Civil Procedure for the United States District Court for the District of Idaho govern the procedure for the condemnation of real and personal property under the power of eminent domain, except as otherwise provided in this rule.

(b) Joinder of Properties. The plaintiff may join in the same action one or more separate pieces of property, whether in the same or different ownership and whether or not sought for the same use.

(c) Complaint.

(1) Caption. The complaint shall contain a caption as provided in Rule 10(a), except that the plaintiff shall name as defendants the property, designated generally by kind, quantity, and location, and at least one of the owners of some part of or interest in the property.

- (2) Contents. The complaint shall contain a short and plain statement of the authority for the taking, the use for which the property is to be taken, a description of the property sufficient for its identification, the interests to be acquired, and as to each separate piece of property a designation of the defendants who have been joined as owners thereof or of some interest therein. Upon the commencement of the action, the plaintiff need join as defendants only the persons having or claiming an interest in the property whose names are then known, but prior to any hearing involving the compensation to be paid for a piece of property, the plaintiff shall add as defendants all persons having or claiming an interest in that property whose names can be ascertained by a reasonable diligent search of the records, considering the character and value of the property involved and the interests to be acquired, and also those whose names have otherwise been learned. All others may be made defendants under the designation "Unknown Owners." Process shall be served as provided in subsection (d) of this rule upon all defendants, whether named as defendants at the time of the commencement of the action or subsequently added, and a defendant may answer as provided in subsection (e) of this rule. The Court meanwhile may order such distribution of a deposit as the facts warrant.

- (3) Filing. In addition to filing the complaint with the Court, the plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk at least one copy thereof for the use of the defendants and additional copies at the request of the clerk or of a defendant.

(d) Process.

- (1) Notice: Delivery. Upon the filing of the complaint the plaintiff shall forthwith deliver to the clerk joint or several notices directed to the defendants named or designated in the complaint. Additional notices directed to defendants subsequently added shall be so delivered. The delivery of the notice and its service have the same effect as the delivery and service of the summons under Rule 4.
- (2) Same; Form. Each notice shall state the Court, the title of the action, the name of the defendant to whom it is directed, that the action is to condemn property, a description of the defendant's property sufficient for its identification, the interest to be taken, the authority for the taking, the uses for which the property is to be taken, that the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney an answer within twenty (20) days after service of the notice, and that the failure so to serve an answer constitutes a consent to the taking and to the authority of the Court to proceed to hear the action and to fix the compensation. The notice shall conclude with the name of the plaintiff's attorney and an address where the attorney may be served. The notice need contain a description of no other property than that to be taken from the defendants to whom it is directed.

(3) Service of Notice.

- (A) Personal Service. Personal service of the notice (but without copies of the complaint) shall be made in accordance with Rule 4 upon a defendant whose residence is known and who resides within the United States or a territory subject to the administrative or judicial jurisdiction of the United States.
- (B) Service by Publication. Upon the filing of a certificate of the plaintiff's attorney stating that the attorney believes a defendant cannot be personally served, because after diligent inquiry the defendant's place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff, or, if ascertained, that it is beyond the territorial limits of personal service as provided in this rule, service of the notice shall be made on the defendant by publication in a newspaper published in a newspaper having a general circulation where the property is located, once a week for not less than three successive weeks. Prior to the last publication, a copy of the notice shall also be mailed to a defendant who cannot be personally served as provided in this rule but whose place of residence is then known. Unknown owners may be served by publication in like manner by a notice addressed to "Unknown Owners."

Service by publication is complete upon the date of the last publication. Proof of publication and mailing shall be made by certificate of the plaintiff's attorney, to which shall be attached a printed copy of the published notice with the name and dates of the newspaper marked thereon.

- (4) Return; Amendment. Proof of service of the notice shall be made and amendment of the notice or proof of its service allowed in the manner provided for the return and amendment of the summons under Rule 4.

(e) Appearance or Answer. If a defendant has no objection or defense to the taking of the defendant's property, the defendant may serve a notice of appearance designating the property in which the defendant claims to be interested. Thereafter, the defendant shall receive notice of all proceedings affecting it. If a defendant has any objection or defense to the taking of the property, the defendant shall serve an answer within twenty (20) days after the service of notice upon the defendant. The answer shall identify the property in which the defendant claims to have an interest, state the nature, and extent of the interest claimed, and state all the defendant's objections and defenses to the taking of the property. A defendant waives all defenses and objections not so presented, but at the trial of the issue of just compensation, whether or not the defendant has previously appeared or answered, the defendant may present evidence as to the amount of the compensation to be paid for the property, and the defendant may share in the distribution of the award. No other pleading or motion asserting any additional defense or objection shall be allowed.

(f) Amendment of Pleadings. Without leave of court, the plaintiff may amend the complaint at any time before the trial of the issue of compensation and as many times as desired, but no amendment shall be made which will result in a dismissal forbidden by subsection (i) of this rule. The plaintiff need not serve a copy of an amendment, but shall serve notice of the filing, as provided in Rule 5(b), upon any party affected thereby who has appeared and, in the manner provided in subsection (d) of this rule, upon any party affected thereby who has not appeared. The plaintiff shall furnish to the clerk of the Court for the use of the defendants at least one copy of each amendment and shall furnish additional copies on the request of the clerk or of a defendant. Within the time allowed by subsection (e) of this rule a defendant may serve an answer to the amended pleading, in the form and manner and with the same effect as there provided.

(g) Substitution of Parties. If a defendant dies or becomes incompetent or transfers an interest after the defendant's joinder, the Court may order substitution of the proper party upon motion and notice of hearing. If the motion and notice of hearing are to be served upon a person not already a party, service shall be made as provided in subsection (d)(3) of this rule.

(h) Trial. If the action involves the exercise of the power of eminent domain under the law of the tribe, any party may have a trial by jury of the issue of just compensation by filing a demand therefor within the time allowed for answer or within such further time as the Court may fix, unless the Court in its discretion orders that, because of the character, location, or quantity of the property to be condemned, or for other reasons in the interest of justice, the issue of compensation shall be determined by commission of three persons appointed by it.

In the event that a commission is appointed the Court may direct that not more than two (2) additional persons serve as alternate commissioners to hear the case and replace commissioners who, prior to the time when a decision is filed, are found by the Court to be unable or disqualified to perform their duties. An alternate who does not replace a regular commissioner shall be discharged after the commission renders its final decision. Before appointing the member of the commission and alternates the Court shall advise the parties of the identity and qualifications of each prospective commissioner and alternate and may permit the parties to examine each such designee. The parties shall not be permitted or required by the Court to suggest nominees. Each party shall have the right to object for valid cause to the appointment of any person as a commissioner or alternate. Trial of all issues shall otherwise be by court.

(i) Dismissal of Action.

- (1) As of Right. If no hearing has begun to determine the compensation to be paid for a piece of property and the plaintiff has not acquired the title or a lesser interest in or taken possession, the plaintiff may dismiss the action as to that property without an order of the Court, by filing a notice of dismissal setting forth a brief description of the property as to which the action is dismissed.
- (2) By Stipulation. Before the entry of any judgment vesting the plaintiff with title or a lesser interest in or possession of property, the action may be dismissed in whole or in part, without an order of the Court, as to any property by filing a stipulation of dismissal by the plaintiff and the defendant affected thereby; and if the parties so stipulate, the Court may vacate any judgment that has been entered.
- (3) By Order of the Court. At any time before compensation for a piece of property has been determined and paid and after motion and hearing, the Court may dismiss the action as to that property, except that it shall not dismiss the action as to any party of the property of which the plaintiff has taken possession or in which the plaintiff has taken title or a lesser interest, but shall award just compensation for the possession, title or lesser interest so taken. The Court at any time may drop a defendant unnecessarily or improperly joined.

- (4) Effect. Except as otherwise provided in the notice, or stipulation of dismissal, or order of the Court, any dismissal is without prejudice.

(j) Deposit and Its Distribution. The plaintiff shall deposit with the Court any money required by law as a condition to the exercise of the power of eminent domain; and although not so required, may make a deposit when permitted by statute. In such cases the Court and attorneys shall expedite the proceedings for the distribution of the money so deposited and for the ascertainment and payment of just compensation. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant exceeds the amount which has been paid to that defendant on distribution of the deposit, the Court shall enter judgment against the plaintiff and in favor of that defendant for the deficiency. If the compensation finally awarded to any defendant is less than the amount which has been paid to that defendant, the Court shall enter judgment against that defendant and in favor of the plaintiff for the overpayment.

Rule 70 Stenographer; Stenographic Report or Transcript as Evidence

Stenographic Report or Transcript as Evidence. Whenever the testimony of a witness at a trial or hearing which was stenographically reported is admissible in evidence at a later trial, it may be proved by the transcript thereof duly certified by the person who reported the testimony.

Rule 71 Jurisdiction Unaffected

These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the Nez Perce Tribe.

Rule 72 Rules by Court

The Court may from time to time, after giving appropriate public notice and an opportunity to comment, make and amend rules governing its practice not inconsistent with these rules. The rules shall take effect upon the date specified by the Court and shall remain in effect unless amended by the Court. In all cases not provided for by rule, the Court may regulate its practice in any manner not inconsistent with these rules.

- (2) service by the Court clerk upon the filing of a complaint by the tribal prosecutor.

(b) A tribal police officer shall serve a copy of a tribal citation on the defendant by personal delivery to him when the defendant is present, or when the citation is for a traffic infraction and the defendant is not present, by issuing the citation to the registered owner of the vehicle involved and affixing it in plain view on the vehicle. The original citation shall be filed with the Tribal Court and a copy delivered to the tribal prosecutor within one (1) business day of serving.

(c) The filing of a complaint by the tribal prosecutor and service of a citation by the Court clerk shall be in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedures except that a citation shall be served in lieu of a summons.

(d) The Tribal Court may permit the amendment of any process or pleading at any time so long as the substantial rights of the defendant are not prejudiced. If an amendment of a citation complaint is made, the Court may grant a continuance of the trial for good cause.

(e) Only one person and one violation may be charged by a complaint on a single citation. A citation shall require that the defendant appear in Tribal Court not less than five (5) nor more than fifteen (15) business days after the date of the citation.

Compensation or restitution shall reflect the actual documented damages or loss suffered as determined by the Tribal Court at a separate hearing and shall not include compensation for emotional distress or other special damages. The victim shall bear the burden of proving damages in damage hearings and mitigating circumstances shall be taken into account. Once a damage determination is made the victim shall bear the burden of collecting any and all judgments;

- (3) assess a fine; or

(d) In any proceedings in which the defendant is found to have committed an infraction, the Tribal Court may assess court costs against the defendant to be added to any fine, restitution or other remedy prescribed. The Court may also allow the assessment of attorney's fees against the defendant if the tribe is required to pursue the collection of a judgment under this chapter. Where the infraction involves a controlled substance or alcohol either as an element of the offense or as a factor contributing to the commission of the offense, the Court may impose a period of probation and order drug and/or alcohol evaluation, counseling and random testing as a condition of probation, the violation of which probation shall itself be an offense under § 4-1-33 of the Nez Perce Tribal Code punishable by up to sixty days in detention/jail and a fine up to $500. In the event of a repeated offense by a minor, the Court may require the family of the offender residing with the offender to participate in counseling.

(e) When in the judgment of the Prosecutor it would be appropriate, the Prosecution may also commence an action for forfeiture under Chapter 2-6 of the Nez Perce Tribal Code.

Upon attachment, the garnishee shall pay or deliver to the police all debts he owes to the debtor or any of the debtor's money in his possession, or any portion thereof sufficient to discharge the claim of the creditor. The police shall issue the garnishee a receipt for any funds or property delivered.

(b) A person who is a garnishee at the time of service upon them of a copy of the writ and notices, shall be liable to the creditor for the amount of any credits or debts which the garnishee owes to the debtor or any property of the debtor which the garnishee has in his possession until the attachment is discharged or any judgment recovered by the creditor is satisfied unless such property is delivered or such debts paid to the Court.

§2-7-6 Writ of Recovery

(a) Whenever the Court has issued a judgment ordering the party to deliver possession of real or personal property to another party and such delivery has not taken place within the time limit prescribed in the judgment, the Court shall upon motion of the aggrieved party, issue an order to the debtor to show cause why a writ of attachment should not issue. Such order shall fix the date and time for hearing, which shall be no sooner than five (5) business days from the issuance of the order. The order shall inform the debtor he may file an affidavit on his behalf with the Court and may appear and present testimony on his behalf at the time of such hearing and if he fails to appear, the writ of attachment shall issue. Following the hearing, the Court may issue a writ of recovery for the property involved.

(b) The writ shall describe the real or personal property involved in enough detail to enable the Tribal Police to locate such property, and shall authorize a Tribal Police Officer to take possession of specified real or personal property from a wrongful holder and deliver possession to the party indicated on the writ. If real or personal property is within the jurisdiction of the Court, it may enter a judgment divesting the title of any party and vesting it in others and such judgment has the effect of a conveyance executed in due form of law.

§2-7-7 Specific Acts

If a judgment directs a party to perform any specific act and the party fails to comply within the time specified, the Court may direct the act to be done at the cost of the disobedient party by some other person appointed by the Court and the act when so done has like effect as if done by the party. On application of the party entitled to performance, the clerk shall issue a writ of attachment against the property of the disobedient party to compel obedience to the judgment. The Court may also in proper cases adjudge the party in contempt.

§2-7-8 Service of Writ

Service of a writ under this chapter shall be in accordance with service of process as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure.

§2-7-9 Exempt Property

Any property, wages or other assets which are exempt from execution by federal law and any Indian regalia, relics and family heirlooms, as determined by the tribal court judge, are exempt from execution under this chapter.

§2-7-10 Homestead Exemption

A homestead is automatically protected by exemption, in addition to those exemptions set forth in § 2-7-9. If the homestead exemption is made by a married person from the community property, the property, on the death of either of the spouses, vests in the survivor, subject to no other liability; in other cases, upon the death of the person whose property was selected as a homestead, it shall go to his heirs or devisees, subject to the power of the Tribal Court to assign the same for a limited period to the family of the decedent; but in no case shall it be held liable for the debts of the owner. (added 6/22/99)

CHAPTER 2-8 RULES OF EVIDENCE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 1 Scope

These rules govern proceedings in the courts of the Nez Perce Tribe to the extent and with the exceptions stated in rule 67.

Rule 2 Purpose and Construction

These rules shall be construed to secure fairness in administration, elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay, and promotion of growth and development of the law of evidence to the end that the truth may be ascertained and proceedings justly determined.

Rule 3 Rulings on Evidence

(a) Effect of Erroneous Ruling. Error may not be predicated upon a ruling which admits or excludes evidence unless a substantial right of the party is affected, and

- (1) Objection. In case the ruling is one admitting evidence a timely objection or motion to strike appears of record, stating the specific ground of objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context; or
- (2) Offer of Proof. In case the ruling is one excluding evidence, the substance of the evidence was made known to the Court by offer or was apparent from the context within which questions were asked.

(b) Record of Offer and Ruling. The Court may add any other or further statement which shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. It may direct the making of an offer in question and answer form.

(c) Hearing of Jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted to the extent practicable, so as to prevent inadmissible evidence from being suggested to the jury by any means, such as making statements or offers of proof or asking questions in the hearing of the jury.

(d) Plain Error. Nothing in this rule precludes taking notice of plain errors affecting substantial rights although they were not brought to the attention of the Court.

Rule 4 Preliminary Questions

(a) Questions of Admissibility Generally. Preliminary questions concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the Court, subject to the provisions of subsection (b). In making its determination it is not bound by the rules of evidence except those with respect to privileges.

(b) Relevancy Conditioned on Fact. When the relevancy of evidence depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the Court shall admit it upon, or subject to, the introduction of evidence sufficient to support a finding of the fulfillment of the condition.

(c) Hearing of Jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confessions shall in all cases be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters shall be so conducted when the interests of justice require, or when an accused is a witness and so requests.

(d) Testimony by Accused. The accused does not, by testifying upon a preliminary matter, become subject to cross-examination as to other issues in the case.

(e) Weight and Credibility. This rule does not limit the right of a party to introduce before the jury evidence relevant to weight or credibility.

Rule 5 Limited Admissibility

When evidence which is admissible as to one party or for one purpose but not admissible as to another party or for another purpose is admitted, the Court, upon request, shall restrict the evidence to its proper scope and instruct the jury accordingly.

Rule 6 Remainder of or Related Writings or Recorded Statements

When a writing or recorded statement or part thereof is introduced by a party, an adverse party may require the introduction at that time of any other part or any other writing or recorded statement which ought in fairness to be considered contemporaneously with it.

JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 7 Judicial Notice of Adjudicative Facts

(a) Scope of Rule. The rule governs only judicial notice of adjudicative facts.

(b) Kinds of Facts. A judicially noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either:

- (1) generally known with the territorial jurisdiction of the Tribal Court or;
- (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

(c) When Discretionary. A court may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.

(d) When Mandatory. A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information.

(e) Opportunity to Be Heard. A party is entitled upon timely request to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken.

(f) Time of Taking Notice. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.

(g) Instructing Jury. In a civil action or proceeding, the Court shall instruct the jury to accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed. In a criminal case, the Court shall instruct the jury that it may, but is not required to, accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed.

PRESUMPTIONS IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

Rule 8 Presumptions in General in Civil Actions and Proceedings

In all civil actions and proceedings, a presumption imposes on the party against whom it is directed the burden of going forward with evidence to rebut or meet the presumption, but does not shift to such party the burden of proof in the sense of the risk of nonpersuasion, which remains throughout the trial upon the party on whom it was originally cast.

RELEVANCY AND ITS LIMITS

Rule 9 Definition of "Relevant Evidence"

"Relevant evidence" means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.

Rule 10 Relevant Evidence Generally Admissible; Irrelevant Evidence Inadmissible

All relevant evidence is admissible, except as otherwise provided by these rules. Evidence which is not relevant is not admissible.

Rule 11 Exclusion of Relevant evidence on Grounds of Prejudice, Confusion, or Waste of Time

Although relevant, evidence may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, or by consideration of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

Rule 12 Character Evidence Not Admissible to Prove Conduct; Exceptions; Other Crimes

(a) Character Evidence Generally. Evidence of a person's character or a trait of character is not admissible for the purpose of proving action in conformity therewith on a particular occasion, except:

- (1) Character of Accused. Evidence of a pertinent trait of character offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same;
- (2) Character of Victim. Evidence of a pertinent trait of character of the victim of the crime offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same, or evidence of a character trait of peacefulness of the victim offered by the prosecution in a homicide case to rebut evidence that the victim was the first aggressor;
- (3) Character of Witness. Evidence of the character of a witness, as provided in rules 35, 36, and 37.

(b) Other Crimes, Wrongs, or Acts. Evidence of other crimes wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a person in order to show action in conformity therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident, provided that upon request by the accused, the prosecution in a criminal case shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial, or during trial if the Court excuses pretrial notice on good cause shown, of the general nature of any such evidence it intends to introduce at trial.

Rule 13 Methods of Proving Character

(a) Reputation or Opinion. In all cases in which evidence of character or a trait of character of a person is admissible, proof may be made by testimony as to reputation or by testimony in the form of an opinion. On cross-examination, inquiry is allowable into relevant specific instances of conduct.

(b) Specific Instances of Conduct. In cases in which character or a trait of character of a person is an essential element of a charge, claim or defense, proof may also be made of specific instances of that person's conduct.

Rule 14 Habit: Routine Practice

Evidence of the habit of a person or of the routine practice of an organization, whether corroborated or not and regardless of the presence of eyewitnesses, is relevant to prove that the conduct of the person or organization on a particular occasion was in conformity with the habit or routine practice.

Rule 15 Subsequent Remedial Measures

When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment.

Rule 16 Compromise and Offers to Compromise

Evidence of (a) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (b) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible. This rule does not require the exclusion of any evidence otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. This rule also does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution.

Rule 17 Payment of Medical and Similar Expenses

Evidence of furnishing or offering or promising to pay medical, hospital, or similar expenses occasioned by an injury is not admissible to prove liability for the injury.

Rule 18 Inadmissibility of Pleas, Plea Discussions, and Related Statements

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this rule, evidence of the following is not, in any civil or criminal proceeding, admissible against the defendant who made the plea or was a participant in the plea discussions:

- (1) a plea of guilty which was later withdrawn;

- (2) any statement made in the course of any proceedings under rule 11 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure or comparable tribal, state or federal procedure regarding a guilty plea; or
 - (3) any statement made in the course of plea discussions with the tribal prosecutor which do not result in a plea of guilty or which result in a plea of guilty later withdrawn.
- (b) However, such a statement is admissible:
- (1) in any proceeding wherein another statement made in the course of the same plea or plea discussions has been introduced and the statement ought in fairness be considered contemporaneously with it; or
 - (2) in a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement if the statement was made by the defendant under oath and on the record.

Rule 19 Liability Insurance

Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not admissible upon the issue whether the person acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of insurance against liability when offered for another purpose, such as proof of agency, ownership, or control, or bias or prejudice of a witness.

Rule 20 Sex Offense Cases; Relevance of Victim's Past Behavior

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a criminal case in which a person is accused of rape, forcible sexual penetration with a foreign object, unlawful sexual intercourse, sexual assault or indecent exposure, reputation or opinion evidence of the past sexual behavior of an alleged victim of such offense is not admissible.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a criminal case in which a person is accused of rape, forcible sexual penetration with a foreign object, unlawful sexual intercourse, sexual assault or indecent exposure, evidence of a victim's past sexual behavior other than reputation or opinion evidence is also not admissible, unless such evidence other than reputation or opinion evidence is:

- (1) admitted in accordance with subsections (c)(1) and (c)(2);
 - (2) admitted in accordance with subsection (c) and is evidence of:
 - (A) past sexual behavior with persons other than the accused, offered by the accused upon the issue of whether the accused was or was not, with respect to the alleged victim, the source of semen or injury; or
 - (B) past sexual behavior with the accused and is offered by the accused upon the issue of whether the alleged victim consented to the sexual behavior with respect to which such offense is alleged.
- (c)
- (1) If the person accused of committing rape, forcible sexual penetration with a foreign object, unlawful sexual intercourse, sexual assault or indecent exposure intends to offer under subsection (b) evidence of specific instances of the alleged victim's past sexual behavior, the accused shall make a written motion to offer such evidence not later than fifteen (15) days before the date on which the trial in which such evidence is to be offered is scheduled to begin, except that the Court may allow the motion to be made at a later date, including during trial, if the Court determines either that the evidence is newly discovered and could not have been obtained earlier through the exercise of due diligence or that the issue to which such evidence relates has newly arisen in the case. Any motion made under this subsection shall be served on all other parties and on the alleged victim.

- (2) The motion described in subsection (c)(1) shall be accompanied by a written offer of proof. If the Court determines that the offer of proof contains evidence described in subsection (b), the Court shall order a hearing in chambers to determine if such evidence is admissible. At such hearing the parties may call witnesses, including the alleged victim, if the relevancy of the evidence which the accused seeks to offer in the hearing in chambers or at a subsequent hearing in chambers scheduled for such purpose, shall accept evidence on the issue of whether such condition of fact is fulfilled and shall determine such issue.
- (3) If the Court determines on the basis of the hearing described in subsection (c)(2) that the evidence which the accused seeks to offer is relevant and that the probative value of such evidence outweighs the danger of unfair prejudice, such evidence shall be admissible in the trial to the extent an order made by the Court specifies evidence which may be offered and areas with respect to which the alleged victim may be examined or cross-examined.

(d) For purposes of this rule, the term "past sexual behavior" means sexual behavior other than the sexual behavior with respect to which an offense of rape, forcible sexual penetration with a foreign object, unlawful sexual intercourse, sexual assault or indecent exposure is alleged.

PRIVILEGES

Rule 21 Claim of Privilege

An objection that information is privilege must be made by the person seeking to have such information excluded from being presented as evidence. If both privileged and nonprivileged information is in the same testimony, the Court may exercise the privileged matter and allow presentation of the remaining information.

Rule 22 Waiver of Privilege

Privilege can be waived voluntarily by disclosing information or consenting to disclosure of any part of privileged information to a nonprivileged source. This rule does not apply if the disclosure itself is a privileged communication.

Rule 23 Self-Incrimination

Every natural person has a privilege to refuse to disclose in court proceedings or to a public official of the tribe or any government agency or division, any matter that will incriminate him.

Rule 24 Advocate-Client Privilege

(a) A client has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent any other person from disclosing a confidential communication made for the purpose of receiving professional or other legal services.

(b) The privilege provided by this rule is not available:

- (1) if the services of the advocate were obtained to enable or aid anyone to commit or plan to commit what the client knew or reasonably should have known to be a crime or a fraud;
- (2) if the communications are relevant to an issue between parties who claim the same deceased client;
- (3) if the communications are relevant to prove breach of duty by an advocate or client;
- (4) if the documents at issue were attested to by the advocate; or
- (5) when a communication relevant to the matter and of common interest between or among two or more clients is made by any of them to a lawyer retained or consulted in common when offered in an action between or among any of the clients.

Rule 25 Diagnosis or Treatment

(a) A patient has a privilege to refuse to disclose and to prevent other persons from disclosing a confidential communication made for purposes of diagnosis or treatment of his physical, mental or emotional condition including alcohol or drug addiction among himself, his physician or psychotherapist and persons who are participating in the diagnosis or treatment under the direction of the physician or psychotherapist.

(b) No privilege shall be available under this rule:

- (1) for proceedings to decide appointments of a guardian or conservator for a patient for mental illness or to hospitalize the patient for mental illness;
- (2) if the Court orders an examination of the physical, mental or emotional condition of a patient and the communication is made in the course of such examination with respect to the particular purpose for which the examination is ordered unless the Court orders otherwise;
- (3) if the physical, mental or emotional condition of the patient is an element of his claim or defense or, after the patient's death, in any proceeding in which any party relies upon the condition as an element of his claim or defense; or

- (4) in a trial or proceeding as to a communication relevant to an issue concerning the physical, mental or emotional condition of or injury to a child, or concerning the welfare of a child including, but not limited to the abuse, abandonment or neglect of a child.

Rule 26 Husband-Wife Privilege

(a) A party has a privilege to prevent testimony as to any confidential communication between the party and his or her spouse made during the marriage.

(b) No privilege shall be available under this rule:

- (1) in a trial or proceeding as to a communication relevant to an issue concerning the physical, mental or emotional condition of or injury to a child, or concerning the welfare of a child including, but not limited to the abuse, abandonment or neglect of a child;
- (2) in a criminal action or proceeding in which one spouse is charged with a crime against the person or property of:
 - (A) the other spouse;
 - (B) a person residing in the household of either spouse; or
 - (C) a third person committed in the course of committing a crime against the other spouse or a person residing in the household of either spouse.

Rule 27 Religious Privilege

A person has a privilege to refuse to disclose and prevent others from disclosing a confidential communication made by the person to a recognized religious or spiritual leader, counselor or advisor in the course of his capacity as such leader, counselor or advisor.

Rule 28 Public Officer Privilege

A public officer acting in his capacity as such may claim privilege limited to official information communicated to him in an official confidence.

WITNESSES

Rule 29 General Rule of Competency

Every person is competent to be a witness except as otherwise provided in these rules.

Rule 30 Lack of Personal Knowledge

A witness may not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence to prove personal knowledge may, but need not, consist of the witness' own testimony. This rule is subject to the provisions of rule 46, relating to opinion testimony by expert witnesses.

Rule 31 Oath or Affirmation

Before testifying, every witness shall be required to declare that the witness will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form calculated to awaken the witness' conscience and impress the witness' mind with the duty to do so.

Rule 32 Interpreters

An interpreter is subject to the provisions of these rules relating to qualification as an expert and the administration of an oath or affirmation to make a true translation.

Rule 33 Competency of Judge as Witness

The judge presiding at the trial may not testify in that trial as a witness. No objection need be made in order to preserve the point.

Rule 34 Competency of Juror as Witness

(a) At the Trial. A member of the jury may not testify as a witness before that jury in the trial of the case in which the juror is sitting. If the juror is called so to testify, the opposing party shall be afforded an opportunity to object out of the presence of the jury.

(b) Inquiry into Validity of Verdict or Indictment. Upon an inquiry into the validity of a verdict or indictment, a juror may not testify as to any matter or statement occurring during the course of the jury's deliberations or to the effect of anything upon that or any other juror's mind or emotions as influencing the juror to assent to or dissent from the verdict or indictment or concerning the juror's mental processes in connection therewith, except that a juror may testify on the question whether extraneous prejudicial information was improperly brought to the jury's attention or whether any outside influence was improperly brought to bear upon any juror. Nor may a juror's affidavit or evidence of any statement by the juror concerning a matter about which the juror would be precluded from testifying be received for these purposes.

Rule 35 Who May Impeach

The credibility of a witness may be attacked by any party, including the party calling the witness.

Rule 36 Evidence of Character and Conduct of Witness

(a) Opinion and Reputation Evidence of Character. The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of opinion or reputation, but subject to these limitations:

- (1) the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness; and
- (2) evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence or otherwise.

(b) Specific Instances of Conduct. Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting the witness' credibility, other than conviction of crime as provided in rule 37, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. They may, however, in the discretion of the Court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be inquired into on cross-examination of the witness:

- (1) concerning the witness' character for truthfulness or untruthfulness; or
- (2) concerning the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to the character the witness being cross-examined has testified.

The giving of testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of the accused's or the witness' privilege against self-incrimination when examined with respect to matters which relate only to credibility.

Rule 37 Impeachment by Evidence of Conviction of Crime

(a) General Rule. For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness:

- (1) evidence that a witness other than an accused has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted, subject to rule 11, if the Court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the accused; and evidence that an accused has been convicted of such a crime shall be admitted if the Court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the accused; or
- (2) evidence that any witness has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted if it involved dishonesty or false statement, regardless of the punishment.

(b) Time Limit. Evidence of a conviction under this rule is not admissible if a period of more than ten (10) years has elapsed since the date of the conviction or of the release of the witness from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date, unless the Court determines, in the interests of justice, that the probative value of the conviction supported by specific facts and circumstances substantially outweighs its prejudicial effect. However, evidence of a conviction more than ten (10) years old as calculated herein, is not admissible unless the proponent gives to the adverse party sufficient advance written notice of intent to use such evidence to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to contest the use of such evidence.

(c) Effect of Pardon, Annulment, or Certificate of Rehabilitation. Evidence of a conviction is not admissible under this rule if:

- (1) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, and that person has not been convicted of a subsequent crime; or
- (2) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence.

(d) Juvenile Adjudications. Evidence of juvenile adjudication is generally not admissible under this rule. The Court may, however, in a criminal case allow evidence of a juvenile adjudication of a witness other than the accused if conviction of the offense would be admissible to attack the credibility of an adult and the Court is satisfied that admission in evidence is necessary for a fair determination of the issue of guilt or innocence.

(e) Pendency of Appeal. The pendency of an appeal therefrom does not render evidence of a conviction inadmissible. Evidence of the pendency of an appeal is admissible.

Rule 38 Religious Beliefs or Opinions

Evidence of the beliefs or opinions of a witness on matters of religion is not admissible for the purpose of showing that by reason of their nature the witness' credibility is impaired or enhanced.

Rule 39 Mode and Order of Interrogation and Presentation

(a) Control by Court. The Court shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to:

- (1) make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the truth;
- (2) avoid needless consumption of time; and
- (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.

(b) Scope of Cross-Examination. Cross-examination should be limited to the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting the credibility of the witness. The Court may, in the exercise of discretion, permit inquiry into additional matters as if on direct examination.

(c) Leading Questions. Leading questions should not be used on the direct examination of a witness except as may be necessary to develop the witness' testimony. Ordinarily leading questions should be permitted on cross-examination. When a party calls a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse party, interrogation may be by leading questions.

Rule 40 Writing Used to Refresh Memory

If a witness uses a writing to refresh memory for the purpose of testifying, either:

- (a) while testifying; or
- (b) before testifying, if the Court in its discretion determines it is necessary in the interests of justice, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing produced at the hearing, to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness thereon, and to introduce in evidence those portions which relate to the testimony of the witness. If it is claimed that the writing contains matters not related to the subject matter of the testimony the Court shall examine the writing in camera, excise any portions not so related, and order delivery of the remainder to the party entitled thereto. Any portion withheld over objections shall be preserved and made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal. If a writing is not produced or delivered pursuant to order under this rule, the Court shall make any order justice requires, except that in criminal cases when the prosecution elects not to comply, the order shall be one striking the testimony or, if the Court in its discretion determines that the interests of justice so require, declaring a mistrial.

Rule 41 Prior Statements of Witnesses

(a) Examining Witness Concerning Prior Statement. In examining a witness concerning a prior statement made by the witness, whether written or not, the statement need not be shown nor its contents disclosed to the witness at that time, but on request the same shall be shown or disclosed to opposing counsel.

(b) Extrinsic Evidence of Prior Inconsistent Statement of Witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is afforded an opportunity to explain or deny the same and the opposite party is afforded an opportunity to interrogate the witness thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party-opponent as defined in rule 50(d)(2).

Rule 42 Calling and Interrogation of Witnesses by Court

(a) Calling by Court. The Court may, on its own motion or at the suggestion of a party, call witnesses, and all parties are entitled to cross-examine witnesses thus called.

(b) Interrogation by Court. The Court may interrogate witnesses, whether called by itself or by a party.

(c) Objections. Objections to the calling of witnesses by the Court or to interrogation by it may be made at the time or at the next available opportunity when the jury is not present.

Rule 43 Exclusion of Witnesses

At the request of a party the Court shall order witnesses excluded so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses, and it may make the order of its own motion. This rule does not authorize exclusion of:

- (a) a party who is a natural person;
- (b) an officer or employee of a party which is not a natural person designated as its representative by its attorney; or
- (c) a person whose presence is shown by a party to be essential to the presentation of the party's cause.

OPINIONS AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

Rule 44 Opinion Testimony by Lay Witnesses

If the witness is not testifying as an expert, the witness' testimony in the form of opinions or inferences is limited to those opinions or inferences which are:

- (a) rationally based on the perception of the witness; and
- (b) helpful to a clear understanding of the witness' testimony or the determination of a fact in issue.

Rule 45 Testimony by Experts

If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise.

Rule 46 Bases of Opinion Testimony by Experts

The facts or data in the particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to the expert at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence.

Rule 47 Opinion on Ultimate Issue

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), testimony in the form of an opinion or inference otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an ultimate issue to be decided by the trier of fact.

(b) No expert witness testifying with respect to the mental state or condition of a defendant in a criminal case may state an opinion or inference as to whether the defendant did or did not have the mental state or condition constituting an element of the crime charged or of a defense thereto. Such ultimate issues are matters for the trier of fact alone.

Rule 48 Disclosure of Facts or Data Underlying Expert Opinion

The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give reasons therefor without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the Court requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross-examination.

Rule 49 Court Appointed Experts

(a) Appointment. The Court may on its own motion or on the motion of any party enter an order to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed and may request the parties to submit nominations. The Court may appoint any expert witnesses agreed upon by the parties and may appoint expert witnesses of its own selection. An expert witness shall not be appointed by the Court unless the witness consents to act. A witness so appointed shall be informed of the witness' duties by the Court in writing, a copy of which shall be filed with the clerk, or at a conference in which the parties shall have opportunity to participate. A witness so appointed shall advise the parties of the witness' findings, if any; the witness' deposition may be taken by any party; and the witness may be called to testify by the Court or any party. The witness shall be subject to cross-examination by each party, including a party calling the witness.

(b) Compensation. Expert witnesses so appointed are entitled to reasonable compensation in whatever sum the Court may allow. The compensation thus fixed may be payable from any funds available to the Court for this purpose.

(c) Disclosure of Appointment. In the exercise of its discretion, the Court may authorize disclosure to the jury of the fact that the Court appointed the expert witness.

(d) Parties' Experts of Own Selection. Nothing in this rule limits the parties in calling expert witnesses of their own selection.

HEARSAY

Rule 50 Definitions

The following definitions apply under this article:

- (a) "Statement" is:
 - (1) an oral or written assertion; or
 - (2) nonverbal conduct of a person, if it is intended by the person as an assertion.
- (b) "Declarant is a person who makes a statement.

(x) Other Exceptions. A statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness, if the Court determines that:

- (1) the statement is offered as evidence of a material fact;
- (2) the statement is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and
- (3) the general purposes of these rules and the interest of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence.

However, a statement may not be admitted under this exception unless the proponent of it makes known to the adverse party sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet it, the proponent's intention to offer the statement and the particulars of it, including the name and address of the declarant.

Rule 53 Hearsay Exceptions; Declarant Unavailable

(a) Definition of Unavailability. "Unavailability as a witness" includes situations in which the declarant:

- (1) is exempted by ruling of the Court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of the declarant's statement;
- (2) persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of the declarant's statement despite an order of the Court to do so;
- (3) testifies to a lack of memory of the subject matter of the declarant's statement;
- (4) is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or
- (5) is absent from the hearing and the proponent of a statement has been unable to procure the declarant's attendance (or in the case of a hearsay exception under subsection (b)(2), (3), or (4), the declarant's attendance or testimony) by process or other reasonable means.

A declarant is not unavailable as a witness if exemption, refusal, claim of lack of memory, inability, or absence is due to the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of a statement for the purpose of preventing the witness from attending or testifying.

(b) Hearsay Exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule if the declarant is unavailable as a witness:

- (1) Former Testimony. Testimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding, or in a deposition taken in compliance with law in the course of the same or another proceeding, if the party against whom the testimony is now offered, or, in a civil action or proceeding, a predecessor in interest, had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination.
- (2) Statement Under Belief of Impending Death. In a prosecution for homicide or in a civil action or proceeding, a statement made by a declarant while believing that the declarant's death was imminent, concerning the cause or circumstances of what the declarant believed to be impending death.
- (3) Statement Against Interest. A statement which was at the time of its making so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or so far tended to subject the declarant to civil or criminal liability, or to render invalid a claim by the declarant against another, that a reasonable person in the declarant's position would not have made the statement unless believing it to be true. A statement tending to expose the declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the accused is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement.

- (4) Statement of Personal or Family History.
 - (A) A statement concerning the declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of personal or family history, even though declarant had no means of acquiring personal knowledge of the matter stated; or
 - (B) a statement concerning the foregoing matters, and death also, of another person, if the declarant was related to the other by blood, adoption, or marriage or was so intimately associated with the other's family as to be likely to have accurate information concerning the matter declared.
- (5) Other Exceptions. A statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness, if the Court determines that:
 - (A) the statement is offered as evidence of a material fact;
 - (B) the statement is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and
 - (C) the general purposes of these rules and the interests of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence.

However, a statement may not be admitted under this exception unless the proponent of it makes known to the adverse party sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet it, the proponent's intention to offer the statement and the particulars of it, including the name and address of the declarant.

Rule 54 Hearsay Within Hearsay

Hearsay included within hearsay is not excluded under the hearsay rule if each part of the combined statements conforms with an exception to the hearsay rule provided in these rules.

Rule 55 Attacking and Supporting Credibility of Declarant

When a hearsay statement, or a statement defined in rule 50(d)(2)(C), (D), or (E), has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked, and if attacked may be supported, by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if the declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a statement or conduct by the declarant at any time, inconsistent with the declarant's hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that the declarant may have been afforded an opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom a hearsay statement has been admitted calls the declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine the declarant on the statement as if under cross-examination.

AUTHENTICATION AND IDENTIFICATION

Rule 56 Requirement of Authentication or Identification

(a) General Provision. The requirement of authentication or identification as a condition precedent to admissibility is satisfied by evidence sufficient to support a finding that the matter in question is what the proponent claims.

(b) Illustrations. By way of illustration only, and not by way of limitation, the following are examples of authentication or identification conforming with the requirements of this rule:

- (1) Testimony of Witness With Knowledge. Testimony that a matter is what it is claimed to be.

- (7) Public Records or Reports. Evidence that a writing authorized by law to be recorded or filed and in fact recorded or filed in a public office, or a purported public record report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, is from the public office where items of this nature are kept.

(c) Foreign Public Documents. A document purporting to be executed or attested in an official capacity by a person authorized by the laws of a foreign country to make the execution or attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position:

- (1) of the executing or attesting person; or
- (2) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the execution or attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation.

A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the Court may for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

(d) Certified Copies of Public Records. A copy of an official record or report or entry therein, or of a document authorized by law to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed

The testimony of a subscribing witness is not necessary to authenticate a writing unless required by the laws of the jurisdiction whose laws govern the validity of the writing.

CONTENTS OF WRITINGS, RECORDINGS AND PHOTOGRAPHS

Rule 59 Definitions

For purposes of this article the following definitions are applicable:

(a) Writings and Recordings. "Writings" and "recordings" consist of letters, words, or numbers, or their equivalent, set down by handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, magnetic impulse, mechanical or electronic recording, or other form of data compilation.

(b) Photographs. "Photographs" include still photographs, X-ray films, video tapes, and motion pictures.

(c) Original. An "original" of a writing or recording is the writing or recording itself or any counterpart intended to have the same effect by a person executing or issuing it. An "original" of a photograph includes the negative or any print therefrom. If data are stored in a computer or similar device, any printout or other output readable by sight, shown to reflect the data accurately, is an "original".

(d) Duplicate. A "duplicate" is a counterpart produced by the same impression as the original, or from the same matrix, or by means of photography, including enlargements and miniatures, or by mechanical or electronic re-recording, or by chemical reproduction, or by other equivalent techniques which accurately reproduces the original.

Rule 60 Requirement of Original

To prove the content of a writing, recording, or photograph, the original writing, recording, or photograph is required, except as otherwise provided in these rules.

Rule 61 Admissibility of Duplicates

A duplicate is admissible to the same extent as an original unless:

- (a) a genuine question is raised as to the authenticity of the original; or
- (b) in the circumstances it would be unfair to admit the duplicate in lieu of the original.

Rule 62 Admissibility of Other Evidence of Contents

The original is not required, and other evidence of the contents of a writing, recording, or photograph is admissible if:

- (a) Originals Lost or Destroyed. All originals are lost or have been destroyed, unless the proponent lost or destroyed the in bad faith;
- (b) Original Not Obtainable. No original can be obtained by any available judicial process or procedure;
- (c) Original in Possession of Opponent. At a time when an original was under the control of the party against whom offered, that party was put on notice, by the pleadings or otherwise, that the contents would be a subject of proof at the hearing, and that party does not produce the original at the hearing; or
- (d) Collateral Matters. The writing, recording or photograph is not closely related to a controlling issue.

Rule 63 Public Records

The contents of an official record, or of a document authorized to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed, including data compilations in any form, if otherwise admissible, may be proved by copy, certified as correct in accordance with rule 57 or testified to be correct by a witness who has compared it with the original. If a copy which complies with the foregoing cannot be obtained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, then other evidence of the contents may be given.

Rule 64 Summaries

The contents of voluminous writings, records, or photographs which cannot conveniently be examined in court may be presented in the form of a chart, summary, or calculation. The originals, or duplicates, shall be made available for examination or copying, or both, by other parties at a reasonable time and place. The Court may order that they be produced in court.

Rule 65 Testimony or Written Admission of Party

Contents of writings, recordings, or photographs may be proved by the testimony or deposition of the party against whom offered or by that party's written admission, without accounting for the nonproduction of the original.

Rule 66 Functions of Court and Jury

When the admissibility of other evidence of contents of writings, recordings, or photographs under these rules depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the question whether the condition has been fulfilled is ordinarily for the Court to determine in accordance with the provisions of rule 4. However, when an issue is raised (a) whether the asserted writing ever existed, or (b) whether another writing, recording or photograph produced at the trial is the original, or (c) whether other evidence of contents correctly reflects the contents, the issue is for the trier of fact to determine as in the case of other issues of fact.

§2-9-12 Clerical Mistakes

In determining whether an object is drug paraphernalia, a court or other authority should consider, in addition to all other logically relevant factors, the following:

1. Statements by an owner or by anyone in control of the object concerning its use;
2. Prior convictions, if any, of an owner, or of anyone in control of the object, under any state or federal law relating to any controlled substance;
3. The proximity of the object, in time and space, to a direct violation of this chapter;
4. The proximity of the object to controlled substances;
5. The existence of any residue of controlled substances on the object
6. Direct or circumstantial evidence of the intent of an owner, or of anyone in control of the object, to deliver it to persons whom he knows, or should reasonably know, intend to use the object to facilitate a violation of this chapter; the innocence of an owner, or of anyone in control of the object, as to a direct violation of this chapter shall not prevent a finding that the object is intended for use, or designed for use as drug paraphernalia;
7. Instructions, oral or written, provided with the object concerning its use;
8. Descriptive materials accompanying the object which explain or depict its use;
9. National and local advertising concerning its use;
10. The manner in which the object is displayed for sale;
11. Whether the owner, or anyone in control of the object, is a legitimate supplier of like or related items to the community, such as a licensed distributor or dealer of tobacco products;
12. Direct or circumstantial evidence of the ratio of sales of the object(s) to the total sales of the business enterprise;

14. Expert testimony concerning its use.

§4-1-2 Scope

This chapter shall apply to all criminal provisions of this code.

§4-1-3 Purpose and Construction

The purpose of the criminal provisions of this code are to:

- (a) forbid and prevent the commission of offenses and give fair warning of conduct which is declared to be an offense;
- (b) define adequately the conduct and mental state which constitute each offense and safeguard conduct that is without fault from condemnation;
- (c) prescribe penalties which are proportionate to the seriousness of the offense; and
- (d) prevent arbitrary and oppressive treatment of persons accused or convicted of offenses and to promote the correction and rehabilitation of such persons.

§4-1-4 Civil Remedies Preserved

This code shall not affect any civil remedy available under the Nez Perce Tribal Code which may arise from any act or omission which is punishable under this chapter. The fact that conduct is found to be an affirmative defense under this chapter does not abolish or impair any remedy for such conduct available in any civil action.

Multiple Prosecutions and Double Jeopardy

§4-1-5 Prosecution for Multiple Offenses

- (a) When the same conduct of a defendant may establish the commission of more than one offense, the defendant may be prosecuted for each such offense. He may not, however, be convicted of more than one offense if:
 - (1) one offense is included in the other;
 - (2) one offense consists only of a conspiracy or other form of preparation to commit the other;
 - (3) inconsistent findings of fact are required to establish the commission of the offenses;
 - (4) the offenses differ only in that one is defined to prohibit a designated kind of conduct generally and the other to prohibit a specific instance of such conduct; or
 - (5) the offense is defined as a continuing course of conduct and the defendant's course of conduct was uninterrupted, unless this code provides that specific periods of such conduct constitute separate offenses.
- (b) Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this section, a defendant shall not be subject to separate trials for multiple offenses based on the same conduct or arising from the same criminal episode.

(c) Upon application of either party and when the defendant is charged with two or more offenses based on the same conduct or arising from the same criminal episode, the Court may order any such charge to be tried separately if it is satisfied that justice so requires.

(d) A defendant may be convicted of an offense included in an offense charged in the complaint. An included offense may be:

- (1) established by proof of the same or less than all the facts required to establish the commission of the offense charged;
- (2) an attempt or solicitation to commit the offense charged or to commit an offense otherwise included therein; or
- (3) different from the offense charge only in the respect that a less serious injury or risk of injury to the same person, property or public interest or a lesser kind of culpability suffices to establish its commission.

(e) The Court shall charge the jury with respect to an included offense if there is a rational basis for a verdict acquitting the defendant of the offense charged and convicting him of the included offense.

§4-1-6 Double Jeopardy

If a defendant has been prosecuted in the Nez Perce Tribal Court for one or more offenses arising out of the same conduct as the original prosecution, a subsequent prosecution in the Nez Perce Tribal Court for the same or a different offense arising out of the same conduct is barred. The initial prosecution shall have been established in any proceeding in which the jury has been impaneled and sworn in, or, if the matter was to be tried without a jury, once the first witness is sworn.

Burden of Proof

§4-1-7 Burden and Presumption of Innocence

No person may be convicted of an offense unless each element of such offense is proven beyond a reasonable doubt. In the absence of such proof the defendant shall be acquitted.

§4-1-8 Negating Defenses

The prosecution need not negate any defense either in the complaint or by proof unless the defense is in issue as a result of evidence presented at trial by either party, or unless the defense is an affirmative defense and the defendant has presented evidence of it.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF LIABILITY

§4-1-9 Acts and Omissions to Act

(a) A person is not guilty of an offense unless his liability is based on conduct which includes a voluntary act or the omission to perform an act of which he is physically capable.

(b) The following are not voluntary acts with the meaning of this section:

- (1) a reflex or convulsion;
- (2) a bodily movement during unconsciousness or sleep;
- (3) conduct during hypnosis or resulting from hypnotic suggestion;
- (4) a bodily movement that otherwise is not a product of the effort or determination of the actor.

(c) Liability for the commission of an offense may not be based on an omission unaccompanied by action unless:

- (1) the omission is expressly made sufficient by the definition of the offense; or
- (2) a duty to perform the omitted act is otherwise required by this code.

§4-1-10 Culpability

A person is not guilty of an offense unless he acted with the requisite mental state with respect to each material element of the offense or unless his act constitutes an offense involving strict liability.

§4-1-11 Causal Relationships Between Conduct and Result

(a) Conduct is the cause of a result when:

- (1) the result in question would not have occurred but for the conduct; and
- (2) the relationship between the conduct and result satisfies any additional causal requirements imposed by the code or the definition of the offense.

(b) When a particular mental state is an element of an offense the element is not established if the actual result is not within the purpose or contemplation of the actor or within the risk of which the actor is aware or should be aware unless:

- (1) the actual result differs from that intended, contemplated or the probable result only in the respect that a different person or different property is injured or affected;
- (2) the injury or harm intended or contemplated, or probable would have been more serious or extensive than that caused; or
- (3) the actual result involves the same kind of injury or harm as that designed, contemplated or probable and is not too remote or accidental in its occurrence to have a just bearing on the actor's liability or the gravity of his offense.

§4-1-12 Ignorance or Mistake

(a) Ignorance or mistake as to a matter of fact or law is a defense if:

- (1) it negates the mental state for the offense; or
- (2) this code provides that the state of mind established by such ignorance or mistake constitutes a defense.

(b) Although ignorance or mistake would otherwise afford a defense to the offense charged, the defense is not available if the defendant would be guilty of another offense had the situation been as he supposed.

§4-1-13 Accomplices

(a) A person is an accomplice of another person in the commission of an offense if:

- (1) with the purpose of promoting or facilitating the commission of the offense he:
 - (A) solicits such other person to commit it;
 - (B) aids or agrees or attempts to aid such other person in planning or committing it;
 - (C) having a legal duty to prevent the commission of the offense, fails to make proper effort to do so; or
- (2) his conduct is expressly declared by the code or the definition of the crime to establish his complicity.

(b) When causing a particular result is an element of an offense, an accomplice in the conduct causing such result is an accomplice in the commission of that offense, if he acts with the kind of culpability necessary for the commission of the offense.

(c) A person who is legally incapable of committing a particular offense may be guilty thereof if it is committed by the conduct of another person for which he is legally accountable.

(d) A person is not an accomplice in an offense committed by another person if:

- (1) he is a victim of that offense; or
- (2) he terminates his complicity prior to the commission of the offense; and
 - (A) wholly deprives it of effectiveness; and
 - (B) gives timely warning to the Tribal Police or otherwise makes proper effort to prevent the commission of the offense.

(e) An accomplice may be convicted on proof of the commission of the offense and of his complicity therein, though the person claimed to have committed the offense has not been prosecuted or convicted, has been convicted of a different offense or degree of offense, has an immunity to prosecution or conviction or has been acquitted.

§4-1-14 Corporations, Unincorporated Associations and Persons Acting, or Under a Duty to Act, in Their Behalf

(a) A corporation or unincorporated association may be convicted of the commission of an offense if:

- (1) the offense is a violation or the offense is defined by law in which a legislative purpose to impose liability on such entity plainly appears and the conduct is performed by an agent of the corporation or association acting in behalf of the entity within the scope of his office or employment, unless the law defining the offense specifically designates the agents for whose conduct the entity is accountable or the circumstances under which it is accountable;
- (2) the offense consists of an omission to discharge a specific duty to act imposed on such entities by the code or other law; or
- (3) the commission of the offense was authorized, requested, commanded, performed or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors or by a high managerial agent acting in behalf of the entity within the scope of his office or employment.

(b) When absolute liability is imposed for the commission of an offense, a legislative purpose to impose liability on a corporation or association shall be assumed.

(c) In any prosecution of a corporation or an unincorporated association for the commission of an offense under Subsection (a) of this section, other than an offense for which absolute liability has been imposed, it shall be a defense if the defendant proves by a preponderance of evidence that the high managerial agent having supervisory responsibility over the subject matter of the offense employed due diligence to prevent its commission. This paragraph shall not apply if it is plainly inconsistent with the legislative purpose in defining the particular offense.

(d) A person is legally accountable for any conduct he performs or causes to be performed in the name of the corporation or an unincorporated association or in its behalf to the same extent as if it were performed in his own name or behalf.

(e) Whenever a duty to act is imposed by law upon a corporation or an unincorporated association, any agent of the corporation or association having primary responsibility for the discharge of the duty is legally accountable for a reckless omission to perform the required act to the same extent as if the duty were imposed by law directly upon him.

(f) When a person is convicted of an offense by reason of his legal accountability for the conduct of a corporation or an unincorporated association, he is subject to the sentence authorized by law when a natural person is convicted of an offense of the grade and the degree involved.

§4-1-15 Intoxication

(a) Except for intoxication, which is not self-induced, intoxication of the actor is not a defense unless it negates any particular purpose, motive or intent which is a necessary element of the crime.

(b) Intoxication does not, in itself, constitute mental disease within the meaning of this code.

§4-1-16 Duress

(a) It is an affirmative defense that the actor engaged in the conduct charged to constitute an offense because he was coerced by the use of, or a threat to use, unlawful force against his person or the person of another, which a reasonable person in his situation would have been unable to resist.

(b) The defense provided by this section is unavailable if:

- (1) the actor knowingly, willfully or negligently placed himself in a situation in which it was probable that he would be subjected to duress;
- (2) the coerced conduct threatens to cause death or serious bodily harm to some person other than the actor.

§4-1-17 Consent

(a) The consent of the victim to conduct constituting an offense or to the result thereof is a defense if it precludes an element of the offense or the infliction of the harm or evil sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense.

(b) When conduct constitutes an offense because it causes or threatens bodily harm, consent to such conduct is a defense only if:

- (1) the bodily harm consented to or threatened is not serious;
- (2) the conduct and the harm are reasonably foreseeable hazards of joint participation in a lawful athletic contest or competitive sport; or
- (3) the consent establishes a justification for the conduct.

(c) Assent does not constitute consent if:

- (1) it is given by a person who is legally incompetent to authorize the conduct charged to constitute the offense;
- (2) it is given by a person who by reason of youth, mental disease, defect or intoxication is manifestly or known by the actor to be unable to make a reasonable judgment as to the nature or harmfulness of the conduct charged to constitute the offense;
- (3) it is given by a person whose consent is sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense; or

- (4) it is induced by force, duress or deception of a kind sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense.

§4-1-18 Entrapment

(a) It shall be a defense if a Tribal Police Officer or a person acting in cooperation with such an official for the purpose of obtaining evidence of the commission of an offense, induces or encourages the defendant to engage in conduct constituting such offense by either:

- (1) making knowingly false representations designed to induce the belief that such conduct is not prohibited; or
- (2) employing methods of persuasion or inducement which create a substantial risk that such an offense will be committed by persons other than those who are ready to commit it.

(b) The defense afforded by this section is unavailable when causing or threatening bodily injury is an element of the offense charged and the prosecution is based on conduct causing or threatening such injury to a person other than the person perpetrating the entrapment.

(c) The defendant shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of evidence the defense of entrapment under this section.

§4-1-19 Mental Disease or Defect Excluding Responsibility

(a) It shall be an affirmative defense to prosecution of an offense if the defendant at the time of the criminal conduct and as a result of mental disease or defect lacks substantial capacity either to appreciate the criminal nature of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law. A mental disease or defect does not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise anti-social conduct, nor shall it preclude a finding that the defendant is guilty but insane if the possibility of intent is not completely eliminated by the mental disease or defect.

(b) Evidence of mental disease or defect is not admissible unless the defendant, at the time of entering his plea of not guilty or within ten (10) business days thereafter or at such later time as the Court may for good cause permit, files a written notice of his intent to rely on such defense.

§4-1-20 Medical Examination and Institutionalization

(a) Whenever there is reason to doubt the defendant's mental competency to stand trial the Court shall designate a licensed psychiatrist to conduct a competency determination. Upon completion of the evaluation a report shall be submitted to the Court and shall include the following:

- (1) a description of the nature of the evaluation;
- (2) a diagnosis or evaluation of the mental condition of the defendant; and
- (3) an opinion as to the defendant's capacity to understand the proceedings against him and to assist in his own defense.

(b) In the event that the Court determines that following trial the defendant's condition requires commitment to a mental institution or in the event the Court determines that the defendant lacks fitness to proceed, the Court shall direct that the defendant be committed to an appropriate facility for care and treatment.

JUSTIFICATION AND DEFENSES

§4-1-21 Justification Generally; Civil Remedies Unaffected

Justification is an affirmative defense to the prosecution of any offense based on such conduct and may be claimed:

- (a) when the harm or evil sought to be avoided is greater than that sought to be prevented by the law defining the offense charged, no tribal law exists which excludes the justification claimed, and the actor does not knowingly, willfully or negligently bring about the situation requiring his conduct; or
- (b) if the conduct is required or authorized by law.

§4-1-22 Force in Self-Protection or Protection of Others

(a) The use of reasonable force upon or toward another person is justifiable when the actor believes it is immediately necessary for the purpose of protecting himself or a third person against the use of unlawful force. The force used must be reasonably necessary to protect the actor or a third person.

- (b) The use of force is not justifiable under this section:
 - (1) to resist or assist another in resisting arrest which the actor knows is being made by a peace officer, although the arrest is unlawful;
 - (2) if the actor uses deadly force unless the actor believes that such force is necessary to protect himself or a third person against death, serious bodily harm, kidnaping or sexual intercourse compelled by force or threat;
 - (3) if the actor, with the purpose of causing death or serious bodily harm, provoked the use of force against himself or a third person in the same encounter; or
 - (4) if the actor was the aggressor or was engaged in combat by agreement, unless he withdraws from the encounter and effectively communicates to the other person his intent to do so and the other notwithstanding continues or threatens to continue the use of unlawful force.

§4-1-23 Force for the Protection of Property

(a) The use of reasonable force upon or toward another is justifiable when the actor believes that such force is immediately necessary to prevent unlawful entry into or interference with real or personal property which is, or is believed by the actor to be, in his possession or in the possession of another person for whose protection he acts.

(b) The use of deadly force is not justifiable under this section unless the actor reasonably believes that the person against whom the force is used attacks, enters or is attempting to enter the actor's place of habitation and manifestly:

- (1) intends to commit an offense or other offense involving threat of serious bodily injury therein and the force is necessary to prevent the offense or such injury; or
- (2) intends and attempts in a violent, riotous or tumultuous manner, to attack or enter the dwelling for the purpose of damaging or threatening to damage the dwelling or to any person and the force is necessary to prevent such assault or injury.

(c) The justification afforded by this section extends to the use of a device for the purpose of protecting property from entry or trespass only if:

- (1) the device is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death or serious bodily harm;
- (2) the use of the device is reasonable under the circumstances, as the actor believes them to be; and
- (3) the device is one customarily used for such a purpose or reasonable care is taken to make known to probable intruders the fact that it is used.

§4-1-24 Force in Law Enforcement

(a) The use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable when the actor is making or assisting in making an arrest or preventing an escape and the actor believes that such force is immediately necessary to effect a lawful arrest, prevent an escape or defend himself or another from bodily harm while making an arrest or preventing an escape.

(b) The use of deadly force is justifiable if:

- (1) the person effecting the arrest is authorized to act as a police officer or is assisting a person whom he believes to be authorized to act as a police officer;
- (2) the actor believes that the force employed creates no substantial risk of injury to innocent persons; and
- (3) the actor believes that there is a substantial risk that the person under arrest or to be arrested will cause death or serious bodily harm if his apprehension is delayed; or
- (4) the actor believes such force is necessary to protect himself or another from death or serious bodily injury.

§4-1-25 Force by Persons with Special Responsibility or Care, Discipline or Safety of Others

The use of force upon or toward the person of another is justifiable if:

(a) the force is used for the purpose of safeguarding or promoting the welfare of a minor, including the prevention or punishment of his misconduct; and

(b) the force used is not designed to cause or known to create a substantial risk of causing death, serious bodily harm, disfigurement, extreme pain, or mental distress.

SENTENCES AND PUNISHMENTS (section amended 1/25/00)

§4-1-26 General Principles

In imposing a sentence for a violation of this chapter, the Court in each case shall consider the protection of the public, the gravity of the offense, the impact of the crime on the victim, and the results of any pre-sentencing reports.

§4-1-27 Sentences and Combinations of Sentences; Civil Penalties

(a) A court may sentence a person adjudged guilty of an offense to any one of the following sentences or a combination of such sentences:

- (1) to pay a fine not to exceed $5,000;
- (2) imprisonment not to exceed 1 year;
- (3) to probation and/or suspension of sentence on such terms and conditions as the Court may direct, including payment of probation program costs;
- (4) to pay court costs;
- (5) to pay restitution or perform any other act for the benefit of any person or party injured personally or in his property by the person adjudged guilty provided such injuries are fairly attributable to the act or failure to act constituting the offense for which guilt was adjudged;
- (6) to treatment, counseling and/or rehabilitation;
- (7) to perform community service or other work for the benefit of the Tribe, through the Tribal Community Services Program, and pay program costs.

(b) This section shall not deprive a court of authority to cite for contempt, cancel or suspend a license, forfeit property, or do any other act or make any other order authorized by law.

§4-1-28 Payment of Fines and Other Monies

Fines shall be paid in cash or certified check. The Court may allow that any fines or other required payments be paid in installments and on conditions tailored to the means of the defendant.

§4-1-29 Decision to Impose a Fine

In determining whether to impose a fine and its amount, the Court should consider:

- (a) the nature of the offense committed and the impact of the offense on the victim and the community;
- (b) the financial resources of the defendant.

§4-1-30 Community Service

The Court may require any person who has been convicted of an offense under this code to engage in community service for the benefit of the Tribe for any period it determines to be appropriate. Defendants receiving community service hours will be referred to the Tribal Community Services Program (CSP) by the Tribal Court and/or Probation Officers within five (5) days after being sentenced and will follow all guidelines of the CSP. Status reports on the defendants will be given to the Court and/or Probation Officers by the CSP.

§4-1-31 Sentencing Proceedings

(a) Sentence shall be imposed without unnecessary delay unless the Court postpones the imposition of sentence in order to conduct a pre-sentencing determination or for a reasonable time to resolve factors important to the sentencing determination which cannot be immediately resolved.

(b) During sentencing and in relation to the appropriate sentence, the Court shall allow the counsel for either party to comment upon any matter including information in mitigation and may allow counsel to call witnesses. The defendant and any victim of the crime committed will be allowed to make a statement before sentence is imposed if he so desires.

(c) After imposing sentence in a case which has gone to trial on a plea of not guilty, the Court shall advise the defendant of the defendant's right to appeal. If the sentence is imposed after a plea of guilty, the Court shall advise the defendant of the right to appeal the sentence.

§4-1-32 Probation

The Court may suspend the defendant's sentence and allow probation upon the terms and conditions determined by the Court. No suspension of a restitution order will be allowed.

§4-1-33 Violation of Terms of Probation

(a) Upon a report of a violation of probation from the Prosecutor or a tribal police officer, the Court may summon the defendant to appear before it or issue a warrant for his arrest. Upon a finding of a probation violation the Court may revoke the probation and shall impose the original sentence or another sentence which the Court deems appropriate.

(b) The Court shall not revoke suspensions or probation except after a hearing. The defendant shall have the right to hear and contest the evidence against him, to offer evidence in his defense and to be represented by counsel of his choice at his own expense.

CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION

§4-5-22 Purposes of this Sub-title - Construction of Provisions

Solely for purposes of this sub-title, the Nez Perce Reservation shall be considered a "state".

- (a) The general purposes of this sub-title are to:

- (1) avoid jurisdictional competition and conflict with courts of other states in matters of child custody which have in the past resulted in the shifting of children from state to state with harmful effects on their well-being;
- (2) promote cooperation with the courts of other states to the end that a custody decree is rendered in that state which can best decide the case in the interest of the child;
- (3) assure that litigation concerning the custody of a child take place ordinarily in the state with which the child and his family have the closest connection and where significant evidence concerning his care, protection, training, and personal relationships is most readily available, and that courts of this state decline the exercise of jurisdiction when the child and his family have a closer connection with another state;
- (4) discourage continuing controversies over child custody in the interest of greater stability of home environment and of secure family relationships for the child;
- (5) deter abductions and other unilateral removals of children undertaken to obtain custody awards;
- (6) avoid relitigation of custody decisions of other states in this state insofar as feasible;
- (7) facilitate the enforcement of custody decrees of other states;
- (8) promote and expand the exchange in information and other forms of mutual assistance between the courts of this state and those of other states concerned with the same child; and
- (9) make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

- (b) This sub-title shall be construed to promote the general purposes stated in this section.

§4-5-23 Definitions

As used in this sub-title:

- (a) "Contestant" means a person, including a parent, who claims a right to custody or visitation rights with respect to a child;

(d) "Decree" or "custody decree" means a custody determination contained in a judicial decree made in a custody proceeding, and includes an initial decree and a modification decree;

(e) "Home state" means the state in which the child immediately preceding the time involved lived with his parents, a parent, or a person acting as parent, for at least six (6) consecutive months, and in the case of a child less than six (6) months old the state in which the child lived from birth with any of the persons mentioned. Periods of temporary absence of any of the named persons are counted as part of the six (6) month or other period;

§4-5-24 Jurisdiction

(a) The Tribal Court has jurisdiction to make a child custody determination by initial or modification decree if:

(1) the state:

(A) is the home state of the child at the time of commencement of the proceeding; or

(B) had been the child's home state within six (6) months before commencement of the proceeding and the child is sent from the state because of his removal or retention by a person claiming his custody or for other reasons, and a parent or person acting as parent continues to live in this state;

(2) it is in the best interest of the child that the Court assume jurisdiction because:

(A) the child and his parents, or the child and at least one contestant, have a significant connection with this state; and

(B) there is available in this state substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationship;

(3) the child is physically present in this state and:

(A) the child has been abandoned; or

(B) it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child because he has been subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse or is otherwise neglected or dependent; or

(A) it appears that no other state would have jurisdiction under prerequisites substantially in accordance with paragraphs (1), (2), or (3) of this section, or another state has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this state is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child; and

(B) it is in the best interest of the child that the Tribal Court assume jurisdiction.

(b) Except under paragraphs (3) and (4) of subsection (a) of this section, physical presence in this state of the child, or of the child and one of the contestants, is not alone sufficient to confer jurisdiction on the Court to make a child custody determination.

(c) Physical presence of the child, while desirable, is not a prerequisite for jurisdiction to determine his custody.

§4-5-25 Notice and Opportunity to be Heard

Before making a decree under this sub-title, reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard shall be given to the contestants, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated, and any person who has physical custody of the child. If any of these persons are outside this state, notice and opportunity to be heard shall be given pursuant to section 4-5-26.

§4-5-26 Notice to Persons Outside this State -- Submission to Jurisdiction

(a) Notice required for the exercise of jurisdiction over a person outside this state shall be given in a manner reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and may be:

(1) by personal delivery outside this state in a manner prescribed for service of process within this state;

(2) in the manner prescribed by the law of the place in which the service is made for service of process in that place in an action in any of its courts of general jurisdiction;

(3) by any form of mail addressed to the person to be served and requesting a receipt; or

(4) as directed by the Court, including publication, if other means of notification are ineffective.

(b) Notice shall be served, mailed, delivered, or last published at least twenty (20) days before any hearing.

(c) Proof of service outside this state may be made by affidavit of the individual who made the service, or in the manner prescribed by the law of this state, the order pursuant to which the service is made, or the law of the place in which the service is made. If service is made by mail, proof may be a receipt signed by the addressee or other evidence of delivery to the addressee.

(d) Notice is not required if a person submits to the jurisdiction of the Court.

§4-5-27 Simultaneous Proceedings in other States

(a) The Court shall not exercise its jurisdiction under this sub-title if at the time of filing the petition of proceeding concerning the custody of the child was pending in a court of another state exercising jurisdiction substantially in conformity with this subtitle, unless the proceeding is stayed by the Court of another state because the Tribal Court is a more appropriate forum or for other reasons.

(b) Before hearing the petition in a custody proceeding the Court shall examine the pleadings and other information supplied by the parties under section 4-5-30 and shall consult the child custody registry established under section 4-5-38, concerning the pendency of proceedings with respect to the child in other states. If the Court has reason to believe that proceedings may be pending in another state it shall direct any inquiry to the state court administrator or other appropriate official of the other state.

(c) If the Court is informed during the course of the proceeding that a proceeding concerning the custody of the child was pending in another state before the Court assumed jurisdiction it shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the Court in which the other proceeding is pending to the end that the issue may be litigated in the more appropriate forum and that information be exchanged in accordance with sections 4-5-41 through 4-5-44. If the Court has made a custody decree before being informed of a pending proceeding in a court of another state it shall immediately inform that court of the fact. If the Court is informed that a proceeding was commenced in another state after it assumed jurisdiction it shall likewise inform the other court to the end that the issues may be litigated in the most appropriate forum.

§4-5-28 Inconvenient Forum

(a) If the Court has jurisdiction under this sub-title to make an initial or modification decree, it may decline to exercise its jurisdiction any time before making a decree if it finds that it is an inconvenient forum to make a custody determination under the circumstances of the case and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.

(b) A finding of inconvenient forum may be made upon the Court's own motion or upon motion of a party or a guardian ad litem or other representative of the child.

(c) In determining if it is an inconvenient forum, the Court shall consider if it is in the interest of the child that another state assume jurisdiction. For this purpose, it may take into account the following factors, among others:

- (1) if another state is or recently was the child's home state;
- (2) if another state has a closer connection with the child and his family or with the child and one or more of the contestants;
- (3) if substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships is more readily available in another state;
- (4) if the parties have agreed on another forum which is no less appropriate; and
- (5) if the exercise of jurisdiction by the Court would contravene any of the purposes stated in §4-5-22.

(d) Before determining whether to decline or retain jurisdiction the Court may communicate with a court of another state and exchange information pertinent to the assumption of jurisdiction by either court with a view to assuring that jurisdiction will be exercised by the most appropriate court and that a forum will be available to the parties.

(e) If the Court finds that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum, it may dismiss the proceedings, or it may stay the proceedings upon condition that a custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another named state or upon any other conditions which may be just and proper, including the condition that a moving party stipulate his consent and submission to the jurisdiction of the other forum.

(f) The Court may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under this chapter if a custody determination is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding while retaining jurisdiction over the divorce or other proceeding.

(g) If it appears to the Court that it is clearly an inappropriate forum it may require the party who commenced the proceedings to pay, in addition to the costs of the proceedings, necessary travel and other expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by other parties or their witnesses. Payment is to be made to the clerk of the Court for remittance to the proper party.

(h) Upon dismissal or stay of proceedings under this section the Tribal Court shall inform the Court found to be the more appropriate forum of this fact, or if the Court which would have jurisdiction in the other state is not certainly known, shall transmit the information to the Court administrator or other appropriate official for forwarding to the appropriate court.

(i) Any communication received from another state informing the Tribal Court of a finding of inconvenient forum because the Court is the more appropriate forum shall be filed with the clerk of the Court. Upon assuming jurisdiction, the Court shall inform the original court of this fact.

§4-5-29 Jurisdiction Declined by Reason of Conduct

(a) If the petitioner for an initial decree has wrongfully taken the child from another state or has engaged in similar reprehensible conduct the Court may decline to exercise jurisdiction if this is just and proper under the circumstances.

(b) Unless required in the interest of the child and subject to subsection (a) of section 4-5-35, the Court shall not exercise its jurisdiction to modify a custody decree of another state if the petitioner, without consent of the person entitled to custody, has improperly removed the child from the physical custody of the person entitled to custody or has improperly retained the child after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of physical custody. If the petitioner has violated any other provision of a custody decree of another state the Court subject to subsection (a) of section 4-5-35, may decline to exercise jurisdiction if this is just and proper under the circumstances.

(c) In appropriate cases a court dismissing a petition under this section may charge the petitioner with necessary travel and other expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by other parties or their witnesses.

§4-5-30 Information Under Oath to be Submitted to the Court

(a) Every party in a custody proceeding in his first pleading or in an affidavit attached to that pleading shall give information under oath as to the child's present address, the places where the child has lived within the last five (5) years, and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period. In this pleading or affidavit every party shall further declare under oath if:

- (1) he has participated (as a party, witness, or in any other capacity) in any other litigation concerning the custody of the same child in this or any other state;
- (2) he has information of any custody proceeding concerning the child pending in a court of this or any other state; and
- (3) he knows of any person not a party to the proceedings who has physical custody of the child or claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child.

(b) If the declaration as to any of the above items is in the affirmative the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the Court. The Court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and as to other matters pertinent to the Court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

(c) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the Court of any custody proceeding concerning the child in this or any other state of which he obtained information during this proceeding.

§4-5-31 Additional Parties

If the Court learns from information furnished by the parties pursuant to section 4-5-30, or from other sources that a person not a party to the custody proceeding has physical custody of the child or claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child, it shall order that person to be joined as a party and to be duly notified of the pendency of the proceeding and of his joinder as a party. If the person joined as a party is outside the reservation he shall be served with process or otherwise notified in accordance with section 4-5-26.

§4-5-32 Appearance of Parties and the Child

(a) The Court may order any party to the proceeding who is in this state to appear personally before the Court. If that party has physical custody of the child, the Court may order that he appear personally with the child.

(b) If a party to the proceeding whose presence is desired by the Court is outside this state with or without the child the Court may order that the notice given under section 4-5-26, include a statement directing that party to appear personally with or without the child and declaring that failure to appear may result in a decision adverse to that party.

(c) If a party to the proceeding who is outside this state is directed to appear under subsection (b) of this section or desires to appear personally before the Court with or without the child, the Court may require another party to pay to the clerk of the Court travel and other necessary expenses of the party so appearing and of the child if this is just and proper under the circumstances.

§4-5-33 Binding Force and Res Judicata Effect of Custody Decree

A custody decree rendered by the Court binds all parties who have been served or notified in accordance with section 4-5-26, or who have submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court, and who have been given an opportunity to be heard. As to these parties the custody decree is conclusive to all issues of law and fact decided and as to the custody determination made unless and until that determination is modified pursuant to law, including the provisions of this sub-title.

§4-5-34 Recognition of Out-of-State Custody Decrees

The Court shall recognize and enforce an initial or modification decree of a court of another state which had assumed jurisdiction under statutory provisions substantially in accordance with this chapter or which was made under factual circumstances meeting the jurisdictional standards of the chapter, so long as this decree has not been modified in accordance with jurisdictional standards substantially similar to those of this chapter.

§4-5-35 Modification of Custody Decree of Another State (amended by NPTEC 7/8/03)

(a) If a court of another state has made a custody decree, the Court shall not modify that decree unless:

- (1) the decree concerns child support and is from the State of Idaho or the State of Washington and the terms of the inter-governmental child support agreements between those states and the Nez Perce Tribe apply, in which case such terms shall supersede the process set forth in this chapter.

§4-5-36 Time and Standard for Modifying Custody Decree

(a) No motion to modify a custody decree may be made earlier than two (2) years after its date, unless the Court permits it to be made on the basis of affidavits that there is reason to believe the child's present environment may endanger seriously his physical, mental, moral or emotional health; except that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Court from reconsidering a custody decree entered upon legal separation in the event of application before the expiration of two (2) years by either party for a decree terminating the marriage.

(b) No modification decree shall be entered except upon a showing that a permanent material change has occurred since the prior decree and that it is in the best interests of the child that the decree be modified.

§4-5-37 Filing and Enforcement of Custody Decree of Another State

(a) A certified copy of a custody decree of another state may be filed in the office of the clerk. The clerk shall treat the decree in the same manner as a custody decree of the Tribal Court. A custody decree so filed has the same effect and shall be enforced in a like manner as a custody decree rendered by the Court.

§4-5-38 Registry of Out-of-State Custody Decrees and Proceedings

The clerk of the Court shall maintain a registry in which he shall enter the following:

- (a) certified copies of custody decrees of other states received for filing;
- (b) communications as to the pendency of custody proceedings in other states;

§4-5-39 Certified Copies of Custody Decree

The clerk of the Court, at the request of the Court of another state or at the request of any person who is affected by or has a legitimate interest in a custody decree, shall certify and forward a copy of the decree to that court or person.

§4-5-40 Testimony by Deposition in Another State

In addition to other procedural devices available to a party, any party to the proceeding or a guardian ad litem or other representative of the child may adduce testimony of witnesses, including parties and the child, by deposition or otherwise, in another state. The Court on its own motion may direct that the testimony of a person be taken in another state and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon which the testimony shall be taken.

§4-5-41 Hearings and Studies in Another State

(a) The Court may request the appropriate court of another state to hold a hearing to adduce evidence, to order a party to produce or give evidence under other procedures of that state, or to have social studies made with respect to the custody of a child involved in proceedings pending in the Court; and to forward to the Court certified copies of the transcript of the record of the hearing, the evidence otherwise adduced, or any social studies prepared in compliance with the request. The cost of the services may be assessed against the parties.

(b) The Court may request the appropriate court of another state to order a party to custody proceedings pending in the Court to appear in the proceedings, and if that party has physical custody of the child, to appear with the child. The request may state that travel and other necessary expenses of the party and of the child whose appearance is desired will be assessed against another party or will otherwise be paid.

§4-5-42 Assistance to Courts of Other States

(a) Upon request of the Court of another state the Court may order a person in this state to appear at a hearing to adduce evidence or to produce or give evidence under other procedures available in this state. A certified copy of the transcript of the record of the hearing or the evidence otherwise adduced shall be forwarded by the clerk of the Court to the requesting court.

(b) A person within this state may voluntarily give his testimony or statement in this state for use in a custody proceeding outside this state.

(c) Upon request of the Court of another state the Court may order a person in this state to appear alone or with the child in a custody proceeding in another state. The Court may condition compliance with the request upon assurance by the other state that travel and other necessary expenses will be advanced or reimbursed.

§4-5-43 Preservation of Documents for use in Other States

In any custody proceeding the Court shall preserve the pleadings, orders and decrees, any record that has been made of its hearings, social studies, and other pertinent documents until the child reaches eighteen (18) years of age. Upon appropriate request of the Court of another state the Court shall forward to the other court certified copies of any or all of such documents.

§4-5-44 Request for Court Records of Another State

If a custody decree has been rendered in another state concerning a child involved in a custody proceeding pending in the Tribal Court, the Court upon taking jurisdiction of the case shall request of the Court of the other state a certified copy of the transcript of any court record and other documents mentioned in section 4-5-43.

§4-5-45 International Application

The general policies of this sub-title extend to the international area. The provisions of this chapter relating to the recognition and enforcement of custody decrees of other states apply to custody decrees and decrees involving legal institutions similar in nature to custody institutions rendered by appropriate authorities of other nations if reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard were given to all affected persons.

§4-5-46 Priority

Upon the request of a party to a custody proceeding which raises a question of existence or exercise of jurisdiction under this sub-title the case shall be given calendar priority and handled expeditiously.

§4-5-50 Temporary Spousal/Child Support (section was formerly § 4-1-12 renumbered and amended by NPTEC 7/8/03) (section amended 2/26/08)

(a) While an action for dissolution is pending and upon consideration of the financial status of the parties, the court may order the payment by one party to the other:

- (1) of temporary maintenance in an amount and according to appropriate terms under the circumstances;
- (2) of temporary support of a child based on the child support guidelines;
- (3) of a reasonable amount for the cost of maintaining or defending any dissolution proceedings.

(b) In those instances where the Court deems it necessary, it may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent a minor or dependent child with respect to his support, custody and visitation. Any costs or fees for such representation shall be borne by either or both of the child's parents.

§4-5-51 Maintenance/Child Support (formerly 4-5-13 renumbered and amended by NPTEC 7/8/03)

(a) Action for separate maintenance and/or child support may be maintained by one spouse who is living separate from the other.

(b) Where a dissolution is granted and after considering all relevant factors, the Court may order separate maintenance for either spouse in such amounts and for such period of time the Court deems just. Separate maintenance may be awarded to a spouse only if such spouse:

- (1) lacks sufficient property to provide for his or her reasonable needs; and
- (2) is unable to support himself or herself through employment.

(c) The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for such child's support. (subsection amended 2/26/08)

- (1) The Tribe shall establish guidelines for determining the amount of child support. The amount resulting from the application of these guidelines is the amount of child support ordered unless a written finding is made, based on criteria approved by the Tribe, that application of the guidelines would be inappropriate or unjust in a particular case. The Tribe shall review the guidelines at least once every four (4) years to ensure that their application results in the determination of appropriate child support amounts. The Tribe shall base the guidelines and criteria for deviation from them on all relevant factors, including:

- (A) The financial resources and needs of the child.
- (B) The financial resources and needs of the custodial party.
- (C) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved.
- (D) The physical and emotional condition of the child and the child's educational needs.
- (E) The financial resources and needs of the noncustodial parent.

- (2) The child support guidelines shall be used in determining the ability to pay child support and the amount of payments. The obligation to pay child support is primary and other financial obligations are secondary.
 - (A) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the amount of the award which would result from the application of the guidelines is the amount of the child support to be awarded, unless evidence is presented in a particular case which indicates that an application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate.
 - (B) If the court determines that the circumstances exist to permit a departure from the guidelines, the judge making the determination shall make a written or specified finding on the record that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in the particular case before the court
 - (C) In-kind payments may be permitted to satisfy a support obligation provided that the court order:
 - (i) states the specific dollar amount of the support obligation, and
 - (ii) describes the type of in-kind payment that is being allowed to satisfy the specific dollar amount of the support order, and
 - (iii) prohibits the in-kind payment from satisfying any assigned support obligations.
- (3) The court may order either parent to name any child under eighteen as a beneficiary of any medical or dental or benefit plan carried by such parent or available to such parent on a group basis through employment.

- (b) The provisions of this chapter apply to any dependent child, whether born before or after the effective date of this act, and regardless of the past or current marital status of the parents.

§4-5-53 Income Withholding

- (a) The CSEP may enforce a support order which is, or has been issued or modified against a noncustodial parent by withholding:
 - (1) as much of his/her income as is necessary to pay the current monthly support amount and if needed an additional amount to be applied toward any arrearage. The total amount may not exceed the maximum amount permitted under section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Act (15 U.S.C.

1673 (b));

(b) The CSEP will comply with all procedural due process requirements of the Nez Perce Tribe.

(c) Income Withholding does not apply to in-kind payments.

(d) Mistake of fact is the only basis for contesting income withholding.

§4-5-54 Notice of Immediate Income Withholding

(a) The court shall order income withholding in all support orders effective the date of the order unless an exception is granted by the court pursuant to subsection (b) of this section. All support orders shall notify the obligor that income withholding shall be enforced by a withholding order issued to the obligor's employer, without additional notice to the obligor.

(b) Immediate income withholding shall not be ordered if

(1) One of the parties demonstrates and the court makes a specific written finding that there is good cause not to require immediate income withholding. A finding of good cause by the court must be based on, at a minimum:

(A) A written determination and explanation of why implementing immediate withholding would not be in the best interests of the child; and

(B) Proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving the modification of support orders; or

(2) A written agreement is reached between the obligor and obligee and the CSEP in cases where the CSEP is providing child support services, which provides for an alternative arrangement, and such agreement is determined by the court to be in the best interests of the child.

(c) Failure to provide for income withholding does not affect the validity of the support order.

§4-5-55 Income Withholding Upon a Delinquency

If a support order does not include immediate income withholding, the obligor is subject to income withholding upon a delinquency at least equal to the child support payment for one (1) month, without the need for a judicial or administrative hearing.

§4-5-56 Judicial Proceedings for Income Withholding

(a) A proceeding to enforce a duty of support is commenced by:

(1) filing a petition or complaint for an original action; or

(2) motion in an existing action or under an existing case number.

(b) Venue for the action is in the tribal court or county district court where the dependent child resides or is present, where the obligor resides, or where the prior support order was entered. The petition or motion may be filed by the obligee, the tribe or any agency providing care or support to the dependent child.

(c) A filing fee shall not be assessed in cases brought on behalf of the Nez Perce Tribe.

(d) A petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the income withholding order, pursuant to § 4-5-54 or § 4-5-55, and:

- (1) The name, address, and social security number of the obligor;
- (2) A copy of the support order;
- (3) The name and address of the obligor's employer;
- (4) The amount of any delinquency; and
- (5) Whether the obligee has received public assistance from any source on behalf of the minor child, and, if so, from which source(s).

(e) Upon receipt of a petition or motion, the court shall issue an income withholding order pursuant to § 4-5-54 or § 4-5-55 using the form prescribed by the U.S. Federal Office of Child Support Enforcement, to the employer. The court shall also order the employer to remit the amount withheld to the person or entity designated in the income withholding order within seven (7) business days after the date the amount would have been paid or credited to the obligor. The income withholding shall include: (subsection amended 2/26/08)

- (1) The maximum amount of current support, if any, to be withheld from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement;
- (2) The total amount of the arrearage or reimbursement judgment previously entered by the court, if any, if any; and
- (3) The amount of arrearage payment specified in the support order, if any.

(f) If the petition or motion indicates the obligee has received public assistance from any source on behalf of a minor child, the clerk shall immediately forward a copy of the petition or the motion to the CSEP.

(g) The court retains continuing jurisdiction under this chapter until all duties of support of the obligor, including any delinquency, have been satisfied or until the order is otherwise unenforceable.

(h) An order originating in or recognized by the Nez Perce Tribal Court for child support shall become unenforceable ten years after the eighteen birthday or emancipation of the youngest child named in the child support order, whichever last occurs. (subsection added 1/13/15)

(i) The statute of limitations for enforcement of child support may be tolled upon an evidentiary finding that fraud or willful concealment has taken place by a party to the case. (subsection added 1/13/15)

§4-5-57 Service of Income Withholding Order in a Judicial Proceeding

(a) The following items and documents shall be served on the employer personally or by any form of mail requiring a return receipt

- (1) two (2) conformed copies of the income withholding order, one (1) of which is for the employer, and one (1) for the obligor;
- (2) four (4) answer forms in substantial compliance with § 4-5-60;
- (3) Three (3) stamped envelopes provided by the obligee and addressed to, respectively, the person or entity designated in the income withholding order, the obligee's attorney or the obligee, and the obligor.

§4-5-58 Employer's Duties and Responsibilities - Fee for Employer

(a) Upon receiving an income withholding order from the court, the employer shall answer the income withholding order on forms supplied with the income withholding order within ten (10) days after the date of service. The employer shall deliver the original answer to the court and shall mail one (1) copy to the obligee or obligee's attorney and shall deliver one (1) copy to the obligor as soon as is reasonably possible. The answer shall state whether the obligor is employed by or receives income from the employer, whether the employer will honor the income withholding order, and whether there are multiple child support income withholding orders or garnishments against the obligor. Upon receiving an income withholding order from the CSEP, the employer shall begin income withholding pursuant to this section.

(b) If the employer possesses any income due and owing to the obligor, the income subject to the income withholding order shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the income withholding order. The withheld income shall be delivered to the person or entity designated in the income withholding order within seven (7) business days after the date the amount would have been paid or credited to the employee.

(c) The total amount to be withheld from the obligor's earnings each month, or from each earnings disbursement, shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the disposable earnings of the obligor for that period. If the amounts to be paid toward the arrearage are specified in the support order, then the maximum amount to be withheld is the sum of the current support ordered and the amount ordered to be paid toward the arrearage, or fifty percent (50%) of the disposable earnings of the obligor for that period, whichever is less. (In no event shall the amount to be withheld from the earnings of the obligor exceed the amount specified under section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Act (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)).

(d) When an employer receives an income withholding order issued by another tribe or state, the employer shall apply the income withholding law of the jurisdiction of the obligor's principal place of employment in determining:

- (1) The employer's fee for processing an income withholding order;
- (2) The maximum amount permitted to be withheld from the obligor's income;
- (3) The time periods within which the employer must implement the income withholding order and forward the child support payment;

- (4) The priorities for withholding and allocating income withheld for multiple child support obligees; and
- (5) Any withholding terms or conditions not specified in the income withholding order.

(e) If an obligor is subject to two (2) or more income withholding orders for child support on behalf of more than one (1) obligee, the employer may send the entire amount withheld from that obligor to the Nez Perce Accounting Department. The Accounting Department shall apportion the amount of income withheld between all obligees of the obligor as follows: the support obligation for the current month shall be paid first. If the amount of nonexempt disposable income withheld is not sufficient to pay the total support obligation for the current month for each obligee for whom there is an income withholding order, the amount withheld shall be divided between each obligee for whom there is an income withholding order on a pro rata basis. If the amount of the nonexempt disposable earnings withheld is in excess of the total support obligation for the current month for each obligee for whom there is an income withholding order, the excess shall be divided between each obligee for whom there is an income withholding order which includes withholding for any delinquency on a pro rata basis unless otherwise ordered by the court. (subsection amended 2/26/08)

(f) The employer shall continue to withhold the ordered amounts from nonexempt income of the obligor until notified by the court or the CSEP that the income withholding order has been modified or terminated. The employer shall promptly notify the CSEP when the employee is no longer employed, and of the employee's last known address, and the name and address of his new employer, if known. (subsection amended 2/26/08)

(g) The employer may deduct a processing fee, not to exceed five dollars ($5.00), to cover the costs of each withholding. Such fee is to be withheld from the obligor's income in addition to the amount withheld to satisfy the withholding order, but the total amount withheld, including the fee, shall not exceed forty percent (40%) of the obligor's disposable income.

(h) The employer may combine amounts withheld from various employees for a particular entity in a pay period into a single payment for that pay period, as long as the portion thereof which is attributable to each individual employee is separately designated.

(i) An order for income withholding for support entered under this chapter shall have priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment, income withholding order, or garnishment for child support.

§4-5-59 Penalties for Employers

(a) An employer may not discharge, discipline, or refuse to employ an obligor on the basis of an income withholding order issued under this chapter. If an employer discharges, disciplines, or refuses to employ an obligor because of an income withholding obligation, the obligor shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of lost wages and other damages suffered as a result of the violation and for costs and reasonable attorney's fees, and may be subject to a civil penalty of up to three hundred dollars ($300) for each violation. In addition, the employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved obligor.

(b) An employer who knowingly fails to retain and remit to the Nez Perce Accounting Department an amount pursuant to the income withholding order shall be liable to the CSEP for the amount to be retained specified in the income withholding order and may be subject to a fine of up to one hundred dollars ($100), which is a debt due and owing to the CSEP unless: (subsection amended 2/26/08)

- (1) The employer notifies the court or CSEP that the obligor is not in his employ and the CSEP verifies the obligor's nonemployment and withdraws its income withholding order; or
- (2) The obligor's income is not sufficient and therefore the restrictions in section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Production Act (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)), apply and a lesser amount must be withheld.

(c) No employer who complies with an income withholding order that is regular on its face shall be subject to civil liability to any individual or agency for conduct in compliance with the income withholding order.

§4-5-60 Identifying Information -- Filing with Tribunal and Child Support Services

Obligors and obligees shall file with the court or the CSEP, if the CSEP is providing child support services, identifying information including social security number, residential and mailing address, telephone number, driver's license number, and name, address, and telephone number of the employer. Obligors and obligees shall provide written notification of any changes within ten (10) days after such changes. (subsection amended 2/26/08)

§4-5-61 Order for Payment of Medical Expenses

(a) A proceeding to enforce a support order directing the payment of medical expenses of a dependent child may be commenced as provided in § 4-5-56.

(b) The petition or motion may be filed by an obligee when medical expenses not otherwise provided without charge to the obligee by the Indian Health Service, or Nimiipuu Health, or Medicaid, or otherwise covered by insurance have been incurred in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) or more, or when insurance premiums, deductibles, or payments on submitted claims for which payment or reimbursement is claimed to be due from the obligor equal or exceed one hundred dollars ($100). The petition or motion shall include a sworn statement by the obligee, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the order, including (amended by NPTEC 3/22/11)

(c) Upon the filing of a petition or motion and affidavit containing the information required in subsection (2) of this section, the clerk of the court shall set a hearing thereon. The obligee shall serve a copy of the petition or motion, accompanying affidavit and notice of hearing on the obligor by personal service or certified mail, pursuant to the Nez Perce Tribe's rules of civil procedure.

(d) After hearing, the court shall enter its order directing payment of the specific sums, if any, for which the obligor is found to be liable for previously incurred medical expenses. In addition, if the court determines that some or all of the medical expenses of the dependent child are of an ongoing or recurring nature and the anticipated amounts thereof are capable of determination to the satisfaction of the court, the court may order payment to the obligee of a specific sum per month toward such expenses.

(e) For purposes of this section "medical expenses" means any and all costs and expenses related to health care incurred on behalf of a dependent child, including insurance premiums and any deductible amounts, all or a portion of which are ordered to be paid by the obligor in addition to any amount awarded as child support, pursuant to a support order.

§4-5-62 Termination of Income Withholding upon Obligor's Request

(a) An obligor whose income is subject to withholding upon a delinquency under this chapter may request a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the withholding, by filing a motion requesting such relief before the court which issued the income withholding order. A copy of the motion and a notice of hearing shall be served upon the obligee by personal service or certified mail, pursuant to the Nez Perce Tribe's rules of civil procedure.

(b) In a hearing to quash, modify, or terminate the income withholding order, the court may grant relief only upon a showing by the obligor that there is a substantial probability that the obligor would suffer irreparable injury and that the obligee would not suffer irreparable injury. Satisfaction by the obligor of any delinquency subsequent to the issuance of the income withholding order is not grounds to quash, modify, or terminate the income withholding order.

(c) Mistake of fact is the only basis for contesting income withholding.

§4-5-63 Health Insurance Coverage - Enforcement

(a) Where a person is required by court or administrative order to provide health insurance coverage for a dependent child, that person is eligible for family health coverage through an employer and fails to provide such coverage or lets it lapse, the CSEP or other obligee may seek enforcement of the coverage order as provided under this section provided that, where health care is available to a child based upon a parent's status as an American Indian/Alaskan Native, the federal health care exemption shall apply and CSEP shall not seek enforcement. (amended by NPTEC 3/22/11)

(1) If the obligor's order to provide health insurance coverage contains language notifying the obligor that failure to provide such coverage may result in direct enforcement of the order and orders payments through, then the CSEP may, without further notice to the obligor, send a notice of intent to enroll to the obligor's employer by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice which shall include a copy of the order shall require the employer to enroll the child in the health insurance plan as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) If the obligor's order to provide health insurance coverage does not order payments through, and has not been submitted to, the CSEP:

(A) The obligee may, without further notice to the obligor, send a certified copy of the order requiring health insurance coverage to the obligor's employer by certified mail, return receipt requested; and

(B) The obligee shall attach a notarized statement to the order declaring that the order is the latest order addressing coverage entered by the court.

(c) Upon receipt of an order that provides for health insurance coverage, or a notice of intent to enroll:

- (1) The obligor's employer shall answer the party who sent the order or notice within thirty (30) days and confirm that the child:
 - (A) Has been submitted in the health insurance plan;
 - (B) Cannot be covered, stating the reasons why such coverage cannot be provided.
- (2) The employer shall withhold any required premium for the obligor's dependents from the obligor's income or wages;
- (3) If more than one (1) plan is offered by the employer, and each plan may be extended to cover the child, then the child shall be enrolled in the obligor's plan. If the obligor's plan does not provide coverage which is accessible to the child, the child shall be enrolled in the least expensive plan otherwise available to the obligor parent;
- (4) The employer or insurer shall provide the name of the health insurance coverage provider or insurer, the extent of coverage available and other necessary information to the CSEP or other obligee and shall make available any necessary claim forms or enrollment membership cards.

(d) If the order for coverage contains no language notifying the obligor that failure to provide health insurance coverage may result in direct enforcement of the order, the CSEP or other obligee may serve a written notice of intent to enforce the order on the obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service. If the obligor fails to provide written proof that such coverage has been obtained or applied for within thirty (30) days of service of the notice, or within thirty (30) days of coverage becoming available, the CSEP or other obligee may proceed to enforce the order directly as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(e) If the obligor ordered to provide health insurance coverage elects to provide coverage that will not be accessible to the child because of geographic or other limitations when accessible coverage is otherwise available, the CSEP or other obligee may serve a written notice of intent to enroll the child in a separate health insurance coverage plan on the obligor by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall also specify the type and cost of coverage.

(f) If the CSEP serves a notice under subsection (e) of this section, the obligor may, within thirty (30) days of the date of service:

- (1) File a motion with the tribal court; or
- (2) Provide written proof to the CSEP that the obligor has either applied for or obtained coverage accessible to the child.

(g) If an obligee other than the CSEP serves a notice under subsection (5) of the section, within thirty (30) days of the date of service, the obligor shall provide written proof to the obligee that the obligor has either applied for, or obtained, coverage accessible to the child.

(h) If the obligor fails to respond to a notice served under subsection (5) of this section to the party who served the notice, the party who served the notice may enroll the obligor's child in the health insurance coverage specified in the notice directly. The employer shall withhold the amount of the premium from the income of the obligor. The amount to be withheld from the income of the obligor shall not exceed the amount specified in section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Act (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)). The employer shall forward the amount of premium withheld to the insurance provider.

(i) If the coverage is terminated or amended, the employer shall mail a notice of termination or amendment to the CSEP or other obligee at the obligee's last known address within forty-five (45) days of the termination date.

(j) This section shall not be construed to limit the right of the obligor or the obligee to bring an action in court at any time to enforce, modify or clarify the original support order.

(k) If the amount of the obligor's income or wages which are withheld under subsection (c)(2) of this section is insufficient to pay the premium for the dependents, the obligor shall, nevertheless, be responsible for payment of the premium.

(l) The employer shall not disenroll or eliminate coverage of any such child unless:

- (1) The employer has been provided satisfactory written evidence that the order requiring such health care coverage is no longer in effect; or
- (2) The employer has received confirmation that the child is enrolled in other comparable health care coverage; or
- (3) The employer has eliminated family health coverage for all of its employees; or
- (4) The employee upon whose employment the health coverage is premised has ceased employment with the employer and reasonable measures have been taken to give notice to the parents or guardians of the child.

§4-5-64 Termination or Modification of Income Withholding upon Obligees' Request

The court may quash, modify or terminate an income withholding order upon written request therefor by the obligee, unless the court finds that the termination would not be in the best interests of the dependent child.

§4-5-65 Termination of Income Withholding by the Court in a Judicial Proceeding

If the clerk is unable to deliver payments under the income withholding order for a period of three (3) months due to the failure of the obligee to notify the clerk of a change of address, the court shall terminate the income withholding order, and shall mail a copy of the termination order to the employer and to the obligor. The court shall return all undeliverable payments to the obligor.

§4-5-66 Location of Noncustodial Parent

(a) The Nez Perce Tribe Child Support Enforcement Division (CSEP) maintains a service to locate noncustodial parents using:

- (1) All sources of information and available records on the Nez Perce Reservation, in Idaho or other states; and
- (2) The Federal Parent Locator Service (FPS) maintained by the federal Department of Health and Human Services.

§4-5-67 Modification (section added 2/26/08)

(a) Any order for child support, in which the tribal court has original jurisdiction or to which both parties agree to a modification in tribal court, may be modified on a showing of changed circumstance that is substantial and continuing, except as to any amount that may have accrued as an arrearage before the date of notice of the motion to modify.

- (1) If application of the guidelines results in an order that varies fifteen percent (15%) or more from the existing amount, the fifteen percent variation in the amount of the order will be considered evidence of a substantial and continuing change of circumstances.
- (2) The addition of health insurance coverage as defined in section 4-5-51(c)(3) or a change in the availability of health insurance coverage may constitute a continuing and substantial change in circumstance.

(b) Modification is effective on the first day of the month following notice of the motion for modification unless the court, for good cause shown, orders the change to become effective at a different date but not earlier than the date of filing the motion for modification. The order of modification may include an award of attorney fees and court costs to the prevailing party.

(c) In a case receiving CSEP services, a party or the CSEP, if there is an assignment of rights resulting from the custodial person receiving TANF benefits, may request every three years that an order for child support be reviewed and, if appropriate, adjusted.

- (1) The request may be made without a specific showing of a changed circumstance that is substantial and continuing.
- (2) The CSEP shall conduct the review in accordance with the tribal child support guidelines.
- (3) If appropriate, the CSEP shall file a motion in the tribal court to adjust the support amount.
- (4) Every three years the CSEP shall notify the parties of their right to request a review of the order for support. The CSEP shall notify the parties by first class mail at their last known address or by including the notice in an order.

(d) If a party in a case receiving CSEP services requests a review and adjustment sooner than three years, the party shall demonstrate a changed circumstance that is substantial and continuing.

(e) Children of the party requesting the modification who are born or adopted after the entry of the existing order shall not be considered in determining a modified support obligation.

§4-5-68 Income Withholding Orders from Foreign Jurisdictions (section added 2/26/08)

The CSEP shall receive and process income withholding orders from other Tribes, States and other entities as follows: Within five days of receiving an income withholding order from a foreign jurisdiction either directly or as forwarded from a Tribal employer, the CSEP shall request transmittal of the case from the initiating IV-D agency. Upon receipt of the foreign order, CSEP shall proceed pursuant to § 4-5-53 and the procedural rules for the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments. (amended by NPTEC 3/22/11)

§4-5-69 Termination of Income Withholding upon Satisfaction of Support Obligation (section added 2/26/08)

Notice terminating the income withholding will be promptly sent to the employer when the support obligation, including any arrears, has been satisfied.

§4-5-70 Amounts Improperly Withheld (section added 2/26/08)

The Nez Perce Accounting Department will promptly refund to the obligor any amounts improperly withheld from the obligor's earnings.

- (3) includes a description of the type of home or institution in which the child is placed;
- (4) a complete list of the case plan is detailed in the Operating Procedures Manual.

(c) if the Court determines that it is in the best interests of the child and does not violate the rights of any party it may allow the child to testify by means of a videotape deposition, closed circuit television or other appropriate method;

(d) Following the Adjudicatory Hearing, the Court will either find the minor in need of care or dismiss the petition, unless the hearing is continued to a date certain to allow for the presentation of further evidence. If the Court finds the minor in need of care, it may:

- (1) find out of home placement unnecessary but continue court intervention and supervision as appropriate;

- (2) provided that the grounds for continuing removal under this chapter are met, order that the child remain out of the home absent a specific court order;
- (3) find out-of-home placement necessary, but that with the accomplishment of specified actions by the parent(s), guardian or custodian, order a subsequent review hearing to determine if the child should be returned to his home; or
- (4) issue any other order the Court deems appropriate including, but not limited to the parent(s)/guardian/custodian's responsibility for child support and/or drug/alcohol/psychological treatment costs.

(e) When a child is removed from his/her home, the judicial determination, as to whether reasonable efforts were made or were not required to prevent the removal, shall be made no later than 60 days from the date the child is removed from the home.

- (1) If the determination concerning reasonable efforts to prevent the removal is not made as specified above, the child is not eligible under the title IV-E foster care maintenance payments program for the duration of that stay in foster care.
- (2) In any case in which the Court determines that a child may be returned home either immediately or sometime in the future, it will specify appropriate actions, and the time frames for such actions, that the parent(s), guardians, or custodians must accomplish before the child is returned. The order will also specify the responsibilities of any support or personnel to be involved.

§5-1-19 Default Judgment

If the parent(s), guardian or custodian fail to appear for the adjudicatory hearing, the Court may find such party in default, and enter an appropriate order. Prior to finding a party in default, the Court must be satisfied that reasonable steps have been taken to notify such party of the hearing.

§5-1-20 Aggravated Circumstances

Reasonable efforts are not required to prevent a child's removal from home or to reunify the child and family if the Department obtains a judicial determination that such efforts are not required because:

- (a) a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the parent has subjected the child to aggravated circumstances (as defined in law, which definition may include but need not be limited to abandonment, torture, chronic abuse, and sexual abuse, exclusion or removal).
- (b) a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the parent has been convicted of:

- (1) murder (which would have been an offense under section 1111(a) of title 18, United States Code, if the offense had occurred in the special maritime or territorial jurisdiction of the United States) of another child of the parent;
 - (2) voluntary manslaughter (which would have been an offense under section 1112(a) of title 18, United States Code, if the offense had occurred in the special maritime or territorial jurisdiction of the United States) of another child of the parent;
 - (3) aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring, or soliciting to commit such a murder or such a voluntary manslaughter;
 - (4) a sexual assault or a felony assault that results in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the parent; or
 - (5) been excluded or removed from the Nez Perce Reservation for grounds defined in NPTC § 4-4-3.
- (c) the parental rights of the parent with respect to a sibling have been terminated involuntarily.

§5-1-21 Review Hearings

(a) In the event a minor is found to be in need of care, the Court shall hold a review hearing within six months of Adjudicatory Hearing to determine if continued court intervention and supervision is necessary. As long as court intervention continues, the Court shall hold a review hearing every six months to:

- (1) determine the safety of the child;
- (2) determine the continuing need for and appropriateness of the placement;
- (3) determine the extent of compliance with the case plan;
- (4) determine the extent of progress made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating the placement; and
- (5) project a likely date by which the child may be returned and safely maintained at home or placed for adoption or legal guardianship.

(b) Grounds for Continuing Removal

Sufficient grounds for continuing removal from the home of a parent(s), guardian or custodian exists if there is a continued risk of harm because:

- (1) a child has no parent(s), guardian or custodian available, willing and capable to care for him;

- (2) the child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, a physical injury inflicted upon him by other than accidental means, which causes or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement or impairment of bodily functions;
- (3) the child has not been provided with adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical care, education or supervision by his parent(s), guardian or custodian;
- (4) the child has been sexually abused, molested or exploited;
- (5) the child has committed delinquent acts as a result of parental or caretaker pressure, guidance or approval;
- (6) the child has been emotionally abused or neglected; or
- (7) the child has witnessed or is aware of continuing acts of domestic violence in the home.

(c) If continued court intervention is determined to be necessary, the Court shall set forth in a written order the Court's determination:

- (1) of the safety of the child;
- (2) the continuing need for and appropriateness of the placement;
- (3) the extent of compliance with the case plan;
- (4) the extent of progress made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating the placement;
- (5) project a likely date by which the child may be returned and safely maintained at home, or placed for adoption or legal guardianship;
- (6) a determination that reasonable efforts have been made to reunite the family, but sufficient grounds exist to continue out of home placement; and
- (7) if applicable, the plan for appropriate placement, treatment, counseling or other requirements for the next review period.

§5-1-22 Permanency Hearing

(a) To meet the requirements of the permanency hearing, the Court holds permanency hearings for all children under the responsibility for placement and care of the Department.

(b) The permanency hearing takes place within 12 months of the date the child is considered to have entered foster care or the earlier of—(i) the date of the first judicial finding that the child has been subjected to child abuse or neglect; or (ii) the date that is 60 days after the date on which the child is removed from the home and not less frequently than every 12 months thereafter during the continuation of foster care.

(c) When a court determines that reasonable efforts to return the child home are not required, a permanency hearing is held within 30 days of that determination, unless the requirements of the permanency hearing are fulfilled at the hearing in which the court determines that reasonable efforts to reunify the child and family are not required.

(d) For the purposes of this requirement, a permanency hearing shall determine:

- (1) the permanency plan for the child that includes whether, and if applicable when, the child will be returned to the parent, or placed for adoption and the Department will file a petition for termination of parental rights, or referred to legal guardianship, or (in cases where the Department has documented to the court a compelling reason for determining that it would not be in the best interest of the child to return home, be referred for termination of parental rights, or be placed for adoption, with a fit and willing relative, or with a legal guardian) placed in another planned permanent living arrangement;
- (2) in the case of a child who will not be returned to the parent, the hearing shall consider all placement options including out of service areas;
- (3) in the case of a child placed out of the Department service area in which the home of the parent(s) of the child is located, the hearing shall determine whether the out-of- service area placement continues to be appropriate and in the best interests of the child;
- (4) in the case of a child who has attained age 16, the services needed to assist the child to make the transition from foster care to independent living; and
- (5) in any permanency hearing held with respect to the child, including any hearing regarding the transition of the child from foster care to independent living, procedural safeguards shall be applied to assure the court conducting the hearing consults, in an age-appropriate manner, with the child regarding the proposed permanency or transition plan for the child.

(e) Procedural safeguards are also to be applied with respect to parental rights pertaining to the removal of the child from the home of his/her parents, to a change in the child's placement, and to any determination affecting visitation privileges of parents.

(f) If the Department concludes, after considering reunification, adoption, legal guardianship, or permanent placement with a fit and willing relative, that the most appropriate permanency plan for a child is placement in another planned permanent living arrangement, the Department will document to the court the compelling reason for the alternate plan.

(g) The Department may seek the services of the Federal Parent Locator Service to search for absent parents at any point in order to facilitate a permanency plan.

(h) For purposes of title IV-E, if such a judicial determination regarding reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan is not made, the child becomes ineligible under title IV-E from the end of the 12th month following the date the child is considered to have entered foster care or the end of the 12th month following the month in which the most recent judicial determination of reasonable efforts to finalize a permanency plan was made, and remains ineligible until such a judicial determination is made.

(i) Concurrent planning.

(1) Reasonable efforts to finalize an alternate permanency plan may be made concurrently with reasonable efforts to reunify the child and family.

(2) Reasonable efforts to place a child for adoption or with a legal guardian, including identifying appropriate in-service area and out-of-service area placements, may be made concurrently with reasonable efforts to reunify the child and family.

§5-1-23 Documentation of Judicial Determinations

The judicial determinations regarding the welfare, reasonable efforts to prevent removal, and reasonable efforts to finalize the permanency plan, including judicial determinations that reasonable efforts are not required, must be explicitly documented in the court order.

(a) If the “reasonable efforts” and “contrary to the welfare” judicial determinations are not included as required in the court orders, a transcript of the court proceedings is the only other documentation accepted to verify that these required determinations have been made.

(b) Neither affidavits nor nunc pro tunc orders will be accepted as verification documentation in support of reasonable efforts and contrary to the welfare judicial determinations, except as provided in 479B(c)(ii) of the Act and for Tribes.

(c) Court orders that reference State/Tribal law rather than federal law to substantiate judicial determinations are not acceptable, even if the law provides that a removal must be based on a judicial determination that remaining in the home would be contrary to the child's welfare or that removal can only be ordered after reasonable efforts have been made.

(d) Trial Home Visits - A child may have a trial home visit while under the continued placement and care of the Department. A trial home visit may not exceed six months in duration, unless the Court orders a longer trial home visit. If a trial home visit extends beyond six months and has not been authorized by the Court, or exceeds the time period the Court has deemed appropriate, and the child is subsequently returned to foster care, that placement must then be considered a new placement and title IV-E eligibility must be newly established. Under these circumstances, the judicial determinations regarding “contrary to the welfare” and “reasonable efforts to prevent removal” are required.

FOSTER HOMES

§5-1-24 Foster Homes in General

If a child cannot be returned home, the Court may use the preferences in placing the child subject to the requirements and restrictions of §5-1-13(e).

§5-1-25 Foster Home Licensing Procedures

(a) The Department is the designated responsible agency for licensing and monitoring foster family homes and child care institutions (group homes). The Department is responsible for establishing and maintaining the Foster Home Licensing Manual, which sets the standards for foster family homes and child care institutions. These standards are in accord with recommended standards of national organizations concerned with standards for such institutions or homes, including standards related to admission policies, safety, sanitation, and protection of civil rights. The standards are applied by the Tribe to any foster family home or child care institution receiving funds under titles IV-E or IV-B. Waivers of such standards may be made only on a case-by-case basis for non-safety standards (as determined by the Tribe) in relative foster family homes for specific children in care.

(b) The Department annually reviews:

- (1) the amount of the payment made for foster care maintenance and adoption assistance to assure their continued appropriateness; and
- (2) the licensing or approval standards for child care institutions and foster family homes.

(c) The department shall accept applications for foster homes either on or off the Nez Perce Reservation. The case worker shall make or cause to be made a complete investigation and determine, within 90 days of receiving the application, whether to issue a license to the foster home authorizing it to accept minors in need of care. In addition, the case worker may, upon twenty-four (24) hours' notice, inspect a licensed foster home at any time. The case worker may examine not only the potential applicants, but also any other person who is familiar with the applicants and is familiar with the type of care they provide to children in their care, if any. In order to obtain and retain a license, a foster home must meet the following conditions:

- (1) the foster parent(s) must maintain the child's mental and physical health and the foster home must be constructed, arranged and maintained to this end;
- (2) members of the household must be in such physical and mental health so as not to adversely affect either the health of the child or the quality of his care;
- (3) a foster home shall not be licensed whenever any member of the household is on parole or probation or under house arrest;
- (4) Safety and Criminal Background Check Requirements; and

- (d) Safety requirements for foster care, and adoptive home providers.
- (1) The Department provides procedures for criminal records checks (including finger-print-based checks of national crime information databases (as defined in section 534(e)(3)(a) of title 28, United States Code) for any prospective foster and adoptive parent before the parent may be finally approved for placement of a child regardless of whether foster care maintenance payments or adoption assistance payments are to be made on behalf of the child.
 - (2) The Department does not approve or license any prospective foster or adoptive parent, nor does the Department claim Federal Financial Participation (FFP) for any foster care maintenance or adoption assistance payment made on behalf of a child placed in a foster home operated under the auspices of a child placing agency or on behalf of a child placed in an adoptive home through a private adoption agency, if the Department finds that, in any case involving a child on whose behalf such payments are to be made in which a criminal records check conducted in accordance with paragraph (d)(1) of this section, a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the prospective foster or adoptive parent has been convicted of a felony involving:
 - (A) child abuse or neglect;
 - (B) spousal abuse;
 - (C) a crime against a child or children (including child pornography); or
 - (D) a crime involving violence, including rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but not including other physical assault or battery.
 - (3) The Department does not approve or license any prospective foster or adoptive parent, nor claim FFP for any foster care maintenance or adoption assistance payment made on behalf of a child placed in a foster family home operated under the auspices of a child placing agency or on behalf of a child placed in an adoptive home through a private adoption agency, if the Department finds, in any case involving a child on whose behalf such payments are to be made in which a criminal records check conducted in accordance with paragraph (d)(1) of this section, that a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the prospective foster or adoptive parent has, within the last five years, been convicted of a felony involving:
 - (A) physical assault;
 - (B) battery; or
 - (C) a drug-related offense.

- (4) In order for a child to be eligible for title IV-E funding, the licensing file for a child care institution must contain documentation which verifies that safety considerations with respect to the staff of the institution have been addressed.
- (5) The Department shall check any child abuse and neglect registry for information on any prospective foster or adoptive parent and on any other adult living in the home of such a prospective parent for such information, before the prospective foster or adoptive parent may be finally approved for placement of a child, regardless of whether foster care maintenance payments or adoption assistance payments are to be made on behalf of the child:
 - (A) the Department shall check any child abuse and neglect registry it maintains for such information;
 - (B) the Department shall request any other State/Tribe in which any such prospective parent or other adult has resided in the preceding five years, to check any child abuse and neglect registry maintained by such other State or Tribe for such information; and
 - (C) the Department shall comply with any such request to check its child abuse and neglect registry that is received from another State or Tribe.
- (6) the foster parent(s) must have an income sufficient to care for all individuals in the foster home. The case worker may take into account any foster care maintenance payment when determining the financial ability of the foster care parent(s).
- (7) the foster parent(s) shall not subject the child to verbal abuse, derogatory remarks or threats to expel the child from the foster home. No child shall be deprived of meals, mail or family visits as a method of discipline. When discipline or punishment must be administered, it shall be done with understanding and reason.
- (8) Before a child in foster care is placed with prospective foster parents, the prospective foster parents are adequately prepared with the appropriate knowledge and skills to provide for the needs of the child. As necessary, such preparation is continued after placement of the child.

(e) Any license issued shall apply only to the residence(s) where the applicant is living at the time application for a license is made but shall include a provision allowing the licensee to conduct a permanent change of residence upon inspection and approval of the new residence in accordance with this section.

(f) The foster care licensee is required to notify the case worker:

- (1) whenever a change of residence is contemplated;

- (2) within 48 hours whenever a change in the household occurs such as one of the foster care parents is convicted or accused of a major crime or if one of the foster parents moves out of the residence, or if any other person moves into the residence.

(g) Following a hearing on the record in accordance with the administrative procedures provided by this code, an order to revoke a foster home license may be issued if the home at any time does not meet the conditions listed in this section or the foster care licensee is otherwise in violation of this chapter.

(h) Fair Hearings

The Department has a system for granting an opportunity for a fair hearing to any individual whose claim for benefits under this plan is denied or not acted upon with reasonable promptness.

§5-1-26 Foster Home Payments

(a) Foster care maintenance payments for a child in foster care may cover the cost of (and the cost of providing) food, clothing, shelter, daily supervision, school supplies, a child's personal incidentals, liability insurance with respect to the child, and reasonable travel to the child's home for visitation with family, or other caretakers and reasonable travel for the child to remain in the school in which the child is enrolled at the time of placement. Local travel associated with providing the items listed above is also an allowable expense. In the case of child care institutions, such term must include the reasonable costs of administration and operation of such institutions as are necessarily required to provide the items described in the preceding sentences.

(b) Foster care maintenance payments are made only on behalf of an eligible child who is:

- (1) in the foster family home of an individual, whether the payments are made to such individual or to a public or private child placement or child care; or
- (2) in a child care institution, whether the payments are made to such institution or to a public or private child placement or child care. Such payments are limited to include only those items that are included in the term "foster care maintenance payments" (defined in section 475(4) of the Act); or
- (3) a child of a minor parent in foster care. Foster care maintenance payments made on behalf of a child placed in a foster family home or child care institution, who is the parent of a son or daughter in the same home or institution, must include amounts which are necessary to cover costs incurred on behalf of the child's son or daughter. Said costs must be limited to funds expended on those items described in the definition of foster care maintenance payments.

(c) Foster Care Candidates

- (1) Administrative costs associated with an otherwise eligible child who is in an unallowable facility or an unapproved or unlicensed relative home, and who is removed in accordance with section 472(a) from the home of a relative specified in section 406(a) (as in effect on July 16, 1996), shall be considered only for expenditures:
 - (A) for a period of not more than the lesser of 12 months or the average length of time it takes to license or approve a home as a foster home, in which the child is in the home of a relative and an application is pending for licensing or approval of the home as a foster family home; or
 - (B) for a period of not more than one calendar month when a child moves from a facility not eligible for payments under this part into a foster family home or child care institution licensed or approved by the Department.
- (2) Administrative costs associated with a child who is potentially eligible for benefits under the approved title IV-E plan and at imminent risk of removal from the home, shall be considered for expenditures only if:
 - (A) reasonable efforts are being made in accordance with section 471(a)(15) to prevent the need for, or if necessary, to pursue, removal of the child from the home; and
 - (B) the Department has made, not less often than every six months, a determination (or redetermination) as to whether the child remains at imminent risk of removal from the home.

§5-1-27 Medical Needs

In case of sickness or accident to a foster child, immediate notice shall be given to the case worker. Foster parent(s) or other persons with whom a child is placed may consent to surgery or other treatment in a medical emergency unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

§5-1-28 Termination of Parental Rights

The parent/child relationship may be terminated either voluntarily or involuntarily. No parental rights may be terminated unless a petition has first been filed, notice has been given, and a hearing held. Termination of the parent/child relationship shall be initiated by the filing of a petition for:

Involuntary Termination:

Filed by:

- (1) the tribal prosecutor; with recommendation from the Department;

- (2) a parent or other adoption petitioner, concurrent with an adoption petition; or
- (3) a parent, in accordance with the provisions for voluntary termination of his parental rights provided by this section.

(a) A petition seeking involuntary termination of the parent/child relationship must be based on the following grounds:

- (1) the return of the child to the custody of the parent(s) is likely to result in serious physical or permanent emotional damage to the child;
- (2) the party seeking termination of the parental rights will satisfy the Court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the family and that these efforts have proved unsuccessful; and
- (3) such efforts are unlikely to be successful in the future.

(b) Once a petition for involuntary parental rights is filed, the petition will include notice to the Prosecutor's Office.

- (1) The Prosecutor's Office will then request child support information for the child(ren) from the Nez Perce Tribe Child Support Enforcement Program ("CSEP").
- (2) The Prosecutor's Office will represent the best interests of the child(ren)/Tribe in relation to involuntary termination of parental rights.

Voluntary Termination:

Filed by:

- (1) a parent or other adoption petitioner, concurrent with an adoption petition;
- (2) a parent, in accordance with the provisions for involuntary termination of his parental rights provided by this section;
- (3) The Prosecutor's Office will then request child support information for the child(ren) from the Nez Perce Tribe Child Support Enforcement Program ("CSEP"); and
- (4) The Prosecutor's Office will represent the best interests of the child(ren)/Tribe in relation to voluntary termination of parental rights.

(a) Relinquishment of parental rights by voluntary termination shall be initiated by a petition signed by the parent(s) in the presence and with approval of the Court. Relinquishment shall not be accepted or acknowledged by the Court prior to ten (10) days after birth of the child. The Court shall ensure that the parent(s) understand the consequences of the voluntary termination prior to approving it. A parent who wishes to relinquish his parental rights shall be provided an interpreter if he does not understand English.

(b) Once a petition for involuntary parental rights is filed, the petition will include notice to the Prosecutor's Office.

(c) A petition for termination of parental rights whether voluntary or involuntary shall include to the best information and belief of the petitioner:

- (1) full name, sex, date and place of birth, residence and tribal affiliation of the child;
- (2) basis for the Court's jurisdiction;
- (3) names, addresses, tribal affiliation, and dates of birth of the child's parents;
- (4) the name and address of the person or agency having legal or temporary custody of the child;
- (5) the grounds on which the termination is sought; and
- (6) the signature of the petitioner and the date signed.

(d) When any of the facts required by this section are unknown, the petition shall so state. After a petition for the involuntary or voluntary termination of parental rights has been filed, the Court shall set the time and place for hearing.

(e) If the parental rights are terminated:

- (1) all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties and obligations including any rights to custody, control visitation or support existing between the child and parent shall be terminated unless otherwise directed by the Court or this section;
- (2) the parent(s) shall have no standing to appear at any future legal proceeding concerning the child;
- (3) any support obligation accrued prior to the effective date of the order terminating parental rights shall not be terminated, unless the Petitioner of the CSEP case wishes the arrears to be forgiven;
- (4) the rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent;
- (5) a termination order shall not prevent a child from inheriting property or interest in the same manner as any other natural child from the natural parent. A natural parent may not, however, inherit from a natural child after termination;

- (6) the child shall not be disentitled to any benefit due the child from any non-parental third person, agencies, state or the United States;
- (7) any rights the child derives from the child's descent from a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe shall not be affected;
- (8) if no person having parental rights remains, the child shall be committed to the custody of the Tribal Court for the purpose of placing the child for adoption. In the absence of an adoptive home, the child may be placed in a licensed foster home, with a relative or other suitable placement. The Court shall retain jurisdiction concerning the adoption of the child, the marriage of the child, the enlistment of the child in the armed forces of the United States, and consent to such matters as might normally be required of the child's parent.

(f) If a child has not been adopted or placed as provided by this section, within six months of the termination order, the Court will hold another six-month review hearing. Such hearings will continue every six months thereafter until the child is adopted or placed.

(g) Duty of Support: A termination of parental rights does not terminate the duty of either parent to support the child. Upon a termination of parental rights, the biological parents shall continue to owe a duty of support for the child(ren) up until the time of adoption. Upon an adoption decree being entered by the Court, the child support obligation for said child shall terminate. A termination of a child support obligation under this Section does not relieve a parent of the duty to pay any unpaid child support such as arrears, unless the Petitioner of the CSEP case wishes the arrears to be forgiven, and the court agrees.

ADOPTIONS

§5-1-29 Adoptions in General

The purpose of adoptions shall be to give the adoptee a permanent home. Adoptions may be "open" or "closed" as ordered by the Court upon stipulation by the parties or in the best interest of the child.

§5-1-30 The Petition

(a) An adoption petition shall be filed with the juvenile court by the person proposing to adopt. A husband and wife who live together, shall file a joint petition except that a person who is already the natural or adopted parent of the proposed adoptee shall not be required to join in the petition. Only one petition shall be required for the adoption of all or any combination of siblings, provided that each sibling to be adopted is named in the petition.

(b) The petition for adoption shall include the following, to the best information and belief of the petitioner:

- (1) the full name, address, and tribal affiliation of the petitioner;
- (2) the full name, sex, residence, date and place of birth, and tribal affiliation of the proposed adoptee(s);

- (3) the name by which the proposed adoptee shall be known if the petition is granted;
- (4) the basis for the Court's jurisdiction;
- (5) if the proposed adoptee is a child, a full description and statement of value of all property owned, possessed or in which the child has an interest;
- (6) the relationship of the petitioner to the proposed adoptee;
- (7) the names and addresses of any person or whose consent to the adoption is necessary; and
- (8) the signature of the petitioner, date of signing, and notarization or witness by the Clerk of the Court.

(c) When a petition for the adoption of a child is filed, the Court shall immediately request that a case worker or Tribe approved "Qualified Expert Witness" (QEW) submit to the Court within ten business days a home study on the petitioner and report which shall contain:

- (1) the circumstance of the home and the petitioner and his ability, both physically and mentally, to assume the responsibilities of a parent of the child;
- (2) other pertinent information designed to assist the Court in determining the best placement for the child; and
- (3) whether or not the home most closely resembles that of the child's culture, identity, and where applicable, his tribal affiliation.

The Court may order additional home studies or reports as it deems necessary.

§5-1-31 Hearing

(a) An adoption hearing shall be held by the Court within 90 days of receipt of an adoption petition to determine if it is in the best interests of the child to be adopted by the petitioners. To this end, the Court shall consider the:

- (1) validity of written consent;
- (2) termination of parental rights order;
- (3) length of time of the child's wardship by the Court;
- (4) special conditions of the child;
- (5) the adoptive parents' ability to protect the health and welfare of the child; and
- (6) required home studies or other reports.

- (b) During an adoption hearing:
 - (1) the petitioner and the proposed adoptee shall appear personally;
 - (2) the judge shall examine all persons separately, and may:
 - (A) enter a final decree of adoption, or place the person to be adopted, if a child, in the legal custody of the petitioner for a period not to exceed six months prior to entering a final decree of adoption;
 - (B) deny the petition and make any other order it deems necessary for the care and custody of the child not inconsistent with this chapter if it determines that the adoption will not be in the child's best interest, or that all of the requirements of this section have not been met.
 - (3) the proceedings for termination of the parent/child relationship and proceedings for adoption may be consolidated and determined together.

§5-1-32 Consent

(a) Written consent to an adoption which shall be orally acknowledged before the Court no earlier than ten days after the child's birth is required of:

- (1) the biological and adoptive mother;
- (2) the biological and adoptive father;
- (3) the custodian, if empowered by the Court to consent;
- (4) the Court, if the custodian is not empowered to consent.

(b) Consent of the parent to an adoption is not required if the:

- (1) parent has abandoned his child;
- (2) parent's rights have been terminated;
- (3) parent has relinquished his parental rights; or
- (4) parent has been declared incompetent.

(c) An interpreter shall be provided if the person consenting does not understand English. Oral consent of the child to be adopted shall be made either in open court, or in chambers with only the judge, any other person he deems necessary, and the child present.

(d) Without reason or the need for a hearing, consent under this section may be withdrawn in a writing notarized or witnessed by a Clerk of the Court by the person consenting at any time prior to the entry of a final decree of adoption.

§5-1-33 Decrees

(a) If the Court finds that the requirements of this section have been met and that the child's best interests will be served, it shall enter a final decree of adoption containing the following:

- (1) the adoptive parent(s) and adoptive child shall be treated under the law as if the relationship was that of a natural child and parent, except as set forth herein;
 - (A) in the case of open adoptions, the adoptive child:
 - (i) shall have an absolute right, absent a convincing and compelling reason to the contrary, to information and knowledge about his natural family and his tribal heritage;
 - (ii) members of the child's natural extended family (including parents) shall have a right of visitation subject to reasonable controls of the adoptive parents.
 - (B) in the case of closed adoptions, the adoptive child shall be denied access to identifying information and knowledge about his natural family except as agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Court.
- (2) an adopted child shall not be considered an heir of his natural parent(s) unless the decree of adoption provides for the continuation of inheritance rights. An adoptive child shall be entitled to inherit from adoptive parents, and vice versa, in the same manner as if natural parents and child.

§5-1-34 Placement Considerations and Orders of Preference

The Department considers giving preference to an adult relative over a non-related caregiver when determining a placement for a child, provided that the relative caregiver meets all relevant State/Tribal child protection standards.

(a) Sibling Placement

The Department shall make reasonable efforts to:

- (1) place siblings removed from their home in the same foster care, kinship guardianship, or adoptive placement, unless the State documents that such a joint placement would be contrary to the safety or well-being of any of the siblings; and
- (2) in the case of siblings removed from their home who are not so jointly placed, to provide for frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction between the siblings, unless that Department documents that frequent visitation or other ongoing interaction would be contrary to the safety or well-being of any of the siblings.

(b) Customary Adoption

- (1) the child is placed in a home using a traditional tribal practice recognized by the community and tribe which gives a child a permanent parent-child relationship with someone other than the child's birth parent(s).

(c) The Court shall place an adopted child in the following order of preference subject to the requirements of subsection (d):

- (1) extended family member;
- (2) a tribal member or person eligible for tribal membership;
- (3) other Indian families; and
- (4) any person who has significant knowledge of the child's tribal affiliation and his special needs.

(d) The placement of a child shall be conducted with the best interest of the child in mind including the consideration of:

- (1) the wishes of the, child and/or the child's parent(s);
- (2) the child's adjustment to a new home, school or community;
- (3) the mental and physical health of the child; and
- (4) the need to promote continuity and stability in the life of the child.

(e) Removal of Barriers to Interracial Adoption

- (1) A State/Tribal agency or any other entity in the State/Tribe that receives funds from the Federal Government and is involved in adoption or foster care placements may not:
 - (A) deny to any person the opportunity to become an adoptive or foster parent, on the basis of race, color, or national origin of the person, or of the child involved;
 - (B) delay or deny the placement of a child for adoption or into foster care, on the basis of race, color, or national origin of the adoptive or foster parent or the child involved; and
 - (C) maintain any statute, regulation, policy, procedure or practice that, on its face, is a violation as defined in sections 471(a)(18)(A) and (B) of the Act.

§5-1-35 Vacating the Decree

A decree of adoption may be vacated within two (2) years after entry upon the filing of a petition and a showing that consent making the adoption possible was obtained through fraud or duress. If the Court vacates the decree it shall return the adopted person to the status he had prior to entry of the decree.

§5-1-36 Adoption Assistance

Adoption assistance payments may be made to adoptive parents who have entered into an adoption assistance agreement with the Department. In determining the eligibility for adoption assistance payments of a child in a legal guardianship arrangement, the placement of the child with the relative guardian involved and any kinship guardianship assistance payments made on behalf of the child shall be considered never to have been made.

Payments may be made for non-recurring adoption expenses incurred by or on behalf of the adoptive parents in connection with the adoption of a child with special needs, directly through the Department or through another public or nonprofit private agency, in amounts determined through an agreement with the adoptive parents; and

In any case where the child meets the requirements of section 473(a)(2) of the Act, the Department may make adoption assistance payments to adoptive parents, directly through the Department or through another public or nonprofit private agency, in amounts so determined through an adoption assistance agreement.

- (a) The amount of such payment:
 - (1) will take into consideration the circumstances of the adopting parents and the needs of the child being adopted;
 - (2) may be adjusted periodically with the concurrence of the adoptive parents to reflect changing circumstances; and
 - (3) may not exceed the foster care maintenance payment which would have been paid during the period if the child with respect to whom the adoption assistance payment is made had been in a foster family home.
- (b) In determining eligibility for adoption assistance payments, there is no income eligibility requirement (means test) for the adoptive parents.
- (c) Payments are terminated when the Department determines that:
 - (1) the child has attained the age of 18, or such greater age as the Department may elect under section 475(8)(B)(iii) of the Act;
 - (2) the child has attained 21 years of age, if the Department determines that the child has a mental or physical disability which warrants the continuation of assistance to age 21;

(3) the parents are no longer legally responsible for the support of the child who has not yet attained 18 years of age; or

(4) the adoptive parents are no longer providing any support to the child.

(d) The adoptive parents are required to inform the Department of circumstances that would make them ineligible for adoption assistance payments or eligible for adoption assistance payments in a different amount.

(e) No payment may be made to parents with respect to any applicable child for a fiscal year that:

(1) would be considered a child with special needs under 473(c)(2) of the Act;

(2) is not a citizen or resident of the United States; and

(3) was adopted outside of the United States or was brought into the United States for the purpose of being adopted.

(f) A child that is not a citizen or resident of the US and was adopted outside of the US or brought into the US for the purpose of being adopted may be eligible for adoption assistance payments if the initial adoption of the child by parents is a failure and the child is subsequently placed into foster care.

§5-1-37 Adoption Assistance Agreement

(a) An adoption assistance agreement is a written agreement, binding on all parties, including the Department, other relevant agencies, and the prospective adoptive parents.

(b) The adoption assistance agreement:

(1) is signed by the adoptive parents and a representative of the Department and is in effect before adoption assistance payments are made under title IV-E, but no later than the finalization of the adoption;

(2) specifies the duration of the agreement;

(3) specifies the amount of the adoption assistance payments (if any) and the nature and amount of any other payments, services and assistance to be provided (including non-recurring adoption expenses in agreements for expenditures incurred by the parents);

(4) specifies the child's eligibility for title XIX and title XX of the Act;

(5) specifies that the agreement remains in effect regardless of the State or Tribal service area of residence of the adoptive parents;

(6) contains provisions for the protection of the interests of the child in case the adoptive parents and child should move to another State or out of the Tribal service area while the agreement is in effect; and

- (7) if a needed service specified in the agreement is not available in the new State or Tribal service area of residence, the Department making the original adoption assistance payment remains financially responsible for providing the specified service(s).

§5-1-38 Medicaid and Social Services

(a) For the purposes of titles XIX and XX of the Act, any eligible child for whom there is an adoption assistance agreement in effect (whether or not adoption assistance payments are being made) is deemed to be a dependent child as defined in 406 of the Act and is deemed to be a recipient of AFDC under part A of title IV of the Act (as in effect 7/16/96) in the State in which such child resides.

(b) The Nez Perce Tribe will provide health insurance coverage (through one or more State/Tribal medical assistance programs), with the same type and kind of benefits as those which would be provided for children under title XIX of the Act, or a comparable medical plan, for any child who has been determined to be a child with special needs, for whom there is in effect an adoption assistance agreement between the Department and an adoptive parent or parents, and who the Department has determined cannot be placed with an adoptive parent or parents without medical assistance due to special needs for medical, mental health or rehabilitative care.

(c) In the event that the Tribe provides such coverage through a State/Tribe medical assistance program other than the program under title XIX of the Act, and the Department exceeds its funding for services under such other program, any such child is deemed to be receiving aid or assistance under the Department plan under this part for purposes of section 1902(a)(10)(a)(i)(1) of the Act; and in determining cost-sharing requirements, the Department will take into consideration the circumstances of the adopting parent or parents and the needs of the child being adopted to the extent coverage is provided through a State/Tribal medical assistance program, consistent with the rules under such program.

ESTABLISHING PATERNITY

§5-1-39 Establishment of Parentage and/or Support

(a) Unless determined otherwise by court order, a child's parents are jointly and severally liable for his support until he reaches 18 years of age or is emancipated notwithstanding the fact that the parents have never been married to each other.

- (1) A male donor shall have no right, obligation or interest with respect to a child born as a result of artificial insemination.
- (2) A child born as a result of the artificial insemination shall have no right, obligation, or interest with respect to the donor.

(b) The parentage of a child may be established by:

- (1) written acknowledgment by a parent filed with the Tribal Court that he is the father, or she is the mother of the child; or

- (2) a determination by the Tribal Court.

§5-1-40 Hearing

(a) An action to establish parentage and/or support may be brought by a complaining parent, by the minor acting through a custodian or guardian if the complainant dies or becomes disabled, or by the tribe. For purposes of this section, a minor shall include any child up to and including at least eighteen (18) years of age. The petition shall name the respondent as the father or mother of the minor and if a petition to compel support, demand that such person be compelled to support the minor.

(b) An action to establish parentage may be brought in Tribal Court for any child up to and including at least eighteen (18) years of age but, unless the alleged father consents, a hearing will not be held until at least 15 days after the birth of the child.

A hearing on whether to compel support from a parent may be brought in Tribal Court at any time for any child up to and including at least eighteen (18) years of age. This excludes any child who becomes an adult through emancipation or marriage.

(c) The Court shall enter its order determining the child's parentage and/or support at the conclusion of the hearing. If parentage is established, the child has the same rights of inheritance from the person who is established as a parent that a child born as a result of a lawful marriage has under tribal law.

§5-1-41 Genetic Testing

(a) In any proceeding in which paternity is an issue, the court, upon motion of any party or the Tribe, may order the mother, her child, and the putative father or the husband of the mother to submit to one or more blood, buccal cells, human leukocyte antigen tests, DNA tests, or other court-recognized scientific testing, to be made by a qualified physician, accredited laboratory (as defined by the American Association of Blood Banks (AABB), the American Society for Histocompatibility and immunogenetics (ASHI) or by the federal Secretary of Health and Human Services), hospital, or other qualified person acceptable to the court, to determine whether the putative father or the husband of the mother can be excluded as being the father of the child or whether paternity can be determined.

(b) The minimum percentage to identify a biological father shall be 99%.

(c) The court may order additional tests to be performed, as necessary, to determine whether the putative father or husband can be excluded or whether the putative father or husband is the father of the child.

(d) If a specimen from the mother of a child is not available for genetic testing, the court may order genetic testing to proceed without a specimen from the mother.

(e) The costs of the initial genetic testing shall be chargeable to:

- (1) a support-enforcement agency in a proceeding in which the support-enforcement agency is providing services. The support-enforcement agency may seek reimbursement from a man who is rebuttably identified as the father;

- (2) by the individual who made the request;
- (3) as agreed by the parties; or
- (4) as ordered by the court.

§5-1-42 Genetic Testing Results; Rebuttal

(a) Under this chapter, a man is rebuttably identified as the father of a child if the genetic testing complies with § 5-1-41 and the results disclose that:

- (1) the man has at least a 99 percent probability of paternity, using a prior probability of 0.50, as calculated by using the combined paternity index obtained in the testing; and
- (2) a combined paternity index of at least 100 to 1.

(b) A man identified under subsection (a) as the father of child may rebut the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of § 5-1-41 which:

- (1) excludes the man as a genetic father of the child; or
- (2) identifies another man as the possible father of the child.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in § 5-1-44, if more than one man is identified by genetic testing as the possible father of the child, the court shall order them to submit to further genetic testing to identify the genetic father.

§5-1-43 Additional Genetic Testing

The Court or the CSEP shall order additional genetic testing upon the request of a party who contests the result of the original testing. If the previous genetic testing identified a man as the father of the child under § 5-1-42, the court may or may not order additional testing unless the party provides advance payment for the testing.

§5-1-44 Identical Brothers

(a) The Court may order genetic testing of a brother of a man identified as the father of a child if the man is commonly believed to have an identical brother and evidence suggests that the brother may be the genetic father of the child.

(b) If each brother satisfies the requirements as the identified father of the child under § 5-1-42 without consideration of another identical brother being identified as the father of the child, the Court may rely on nongenetic evidence to adjudicate which brother is the father of the child.

§5-1-45 Confidentiality of Genetic Testing

- (a) Release of the report of genetic testing for parentage is controlled by the applicable law.
- (b) An individual who intentionally releases an identifiable specimen of another individual for any purpose other than that relevant to the proceeding regarding parentage without a court order or written permission of the individual who furnished the specimen commits a civil infraction.

§5-1-46 Presumption of Paternity

A rebuttal presumption of paternity exists where one or more of the following factors is present:

- (a) The child is born during the marriage of the parties or within 300 days of the termination of marriage;
- (b) The child is born to parties who attempted to marry but whose marriage is or could be declared void;
- (c) The child is born to parties who have married or attempted to marry after the child's birth and the putative father has acknowledged paternity in writing, consented to be named as father on the child's birth certificate, or been ordered to pay child support;
- (d) The putative father has openly held out the child as his natural child; or
- (e) The putative father has signed a written acknowledgment of paternity.

§5-1-47 Judgment and Order of the Court

- (a) If the putative father is found to be the biological father of the child, or if the presumption of paternity cannot be rebutted, the Court shall make an Order of Paternity.
- (b) The Court may order the father of the child to stand charged with the support and maintenance of such child, with the assistance of the mother if she is financially able.

VOLUNTARY ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PATERNITY

The mother of a child and a man claiming to be the father of the child conceived as the result of his sexual intercourse with the mother may sign an acknowledgment of paternity with intent to establish the man's paternity.

§5-1-48 Acknowledgment of Paternity

- (a) In lieu of or in conclusion of a paternity proceeding, the written acknowledgment of paternity executed by the putative father of the child when accompanied by an attested waiver of the right to a hearing, and a written affirmation of paternity executed and sworn or affirmed to by the mother of the child and filed with the court, shall have the same force and effect as a judgment of the court. The written affirmation must state that the child whose paternity is being acknowledged:

- (1) does not have a presumed father, or has a presumed father whose full name is stated; and
 - (2) does not have another acknowledged or adjudicated father;
- (b) An acknowledgment of paternity must state:
 - (1) whether there has been genetic testing and, if so, that the acknowledging man's claim of paternity is consistent with the results of the testing;
 - (2) that the signatories understand that the acknowledgment is the equivalent of a judicial adjudication of paternity of the child and that a challenge to the acknowledgment is permitted only under limited circumstances and is barred after two years.

§5-1-49 Denial of Paternity

A presumed father may sign a denial of his paternity. The denial is valid only if:

- (a) an acknowledgment of paternity signed, or otherwise authenticated, by another man is filed pursuant to 5-1-50;
- (b) the denial is in a record, and is signed, or otherwise authenticated, under penalty of perjury; and
- (c) the presumed father has not previously:
 - (1) acknowledged his paternity, unless the previous acknowledgment has been rescinded pursuant to § 5-1-52 or successfully challenged pursuant to § 5-1-53; or
 - (2) been adjudicated to be the father of the child.

§5-1-50 Rules for Acknowledgment and Denial of Paternity

- (a) An acknowledgment of paternity and a denial of paternity may be contained in a single document or may be signed in counterparts and may be filed separately or simultaneously. If the acknowledgment and denial are both necessary, neither is valid until both are filed.
- (b) An acknowledgment of paternity or a denial of paternity may be signed before the birth of the child.
- (c) Subject to subsection (a), an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity takes effect on the birth of the child or the filing of the document with the Idaho Bureau of Health Policy and Vital Statistics, whichever occurs later.
- (d) An acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity signed by a minor is valid if it is otherwise in compliance with this chapter.

§5-1-51 Effect of Acknowledgment or Denial of Paternity

(a) Except as otherwise provided in § 5-1-52 and § 5-1-53, a valid acknowledgment of paternity filed with the Idaho Bureau of Health Policy and Vital Statistics is equivalent to an adjudication of paternity of a child and confers upon the acknowledged father all of the rights and duties of a parent.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in § 5-1-52 and § 5-1-53, a valid denial of paternity by a presumed father filed with the Idaho Bureau of Health Policy and Vital Statistics in conjunction with a valid acknowledgment of paternity is equivalent to an adjudication of the non-paternity of the presumed father discharges the presumed father from all rights and duties of a parent.

§5-1-52 Proceeding for Rescission

A signatory may rescind an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity by commencing a proceeding to rescind before the earlier of:

- (a) 60 days after the effective date of the acknowledgment or denial, as provided in § 5-1-50; or
- (b) the date of the first hearing, in a proceeding to which the signatory is a party, before a court to adjudicate an issue relating to the child, including a proceeding that establishes support.

§5-1-53 Challenge After Expiration of Period for Rescission

(a) After the period for rescission under § 5-1-52 has expired, a signatory of an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity may commence a proceeding to challenge the acknowledgment or denial only:

- (1) on the basis of fraud, duress, or material mistake of fact; and
- (2) within two years after the acknowledgment or denial is filed with the Idaho Bureau of Health Policy and Vital Statistics.

(b) A party challenging an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity has the burden of proof.

§5-1-54 Procedure for Rescission or Challenge

(a) Every signatory to an acknowledgment of paternity and any related denial of paternity must be made a party to a proceeding to rescind or challenge the acknowledgment or denial.

(b) For the purpose of rescission of, or challenge to, an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, a signatory submits to personal jurisdiction of the Nez Perce Tribe by signing the acknowledgment or denial, effective upon the filing of the document with the Idaho Bureau of Health Policy and Vital Statistics.

(c) Except for good cause shown, during the pendency of a proceeding to rescind or challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, the Court may not suspend the legal responsibilities of a signatory arising from the acknowledgment, including the duty to pay child support.

(d) A proceeding to rescind or challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity must be conducted in the same manner as a proceeding to adjudicate parentage under this chapter.

1) If a support enforcement agency is involved in such challenge or denial, notice must be provided to the enforcement agency.

(e) At the conclusion of a proceeding to rescind or challenge an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity, the Court shall forward the order to the Idaho Bureau of Health Policy and Vital Statistics requesting to amend the birth record of the child, if appropriate.

§5-1-55 Ratification Barred

The Court conducting a judicial proceeding is not required or permitted to ratify an unchallenged acknowledgment of paternity so long as the acknowledgement complies with section 5-1-47.

§5-1-56 Full Faith and Credit

The Nez Perce Tribal Court shall give full faith and credit to an acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity effective in another tribal or state court if the acknowledgment or denial has been signed and is otherwise in compliance with the law of the other tribe or state.

§5-1-57 Forms for Acknowledgment and Denial of Paternity

(a) To facilitate compliance with this chapter, the CSEP shall prescribe forms for the acknowledgment paternity and the denial of paternity.

(b) A valid acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity is not affected by a later modification of the prescribed form.

§5-1-58 Release of Information

The CSEP may release information relating to the acknowledgment of paternity or denial of paternity to a signatory of the acknowledgment or denial and to courts and appropriate tribal, state or federal agencies.

§5-1-59 Adoption of Rules

The CSEP may adopt rules to implement this chapter, to be approved by the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee.

SUPPORT

§5-1-60 Procedure for Support Payment

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, all court ordered payments for child support shall be paid to CSEP who shall record and transfer the payments to the person(s) entitled to them.

§5-1-61 Voluntary Support Agreement

A voluntary agreement by the parents to provide support and maintenance for the child, to reimburse any past due support, and to pay any reasonable expense of prosecution, shall have the same force and effect as an order of support by the Court.

§5-1-62 Registration and Enforcement of Foreign Paternity Judgments

Any party to an action in which a paternity or support judgment from the State of Idaho or the State of Washington was rendered may register the foreign paternity or support judgement in the Nez Perce Tribal Court without payment of a filing fee or other cost to the party and according to the terms of the inter-governmental agreements between the Nez Perce Tribe and such States.

§5-2-9 Guardianship of Children

§5-2-10 Guardianship of Incapacitated Persons

If after a guardianship hearing, the Court determines that the prospective ward is incapacitated, it shall appoint a guardian for such person.  - (3) promptly after making its written findings and order, cause a written copy thereof to be served upon the enrolled member whose eligibility for membership in the Nez Perce Tribe was determined, or if deceased, then the enrolled member's enrolled descendants or other descendants who participated in the hearing;

- (7) Restraining the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner;
- (8) Restraining the respondent from entering any premises when it appears to the Court that such restraint is necessary to prevent the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner.

(b) An ex parte temporary domestic protection order shall remain in effect for 10 days from the date of issuance.

(c) A full hearing shall be held no more than 10 days from the date of issuance of an ex parte temporary domestic protection order. The respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the temporary order and notice of hearing, in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure of the Nez Perce Tribal Code.

(d) If the respondent is not personally served with a copy of the temporary order and notice of hearing, the existing temporary order may be extended for 10 days from the date originally set for hearing, and a new hearing date set. The respondent must be personally served with the new notice of hearing.

§7-3-5 Domestic protection order.

(a) A Court may grant the following relief, if requested, in a domestic protection order after notice and hearing, whether or not the respondent appears:

- (1) Temporary custody of the minor children of the petitioner or of the parties be awarded to the petitioner or respondent if the exercise of such jurisdiction is consistent with the provisions of this code, or consistent with prior custody orders entered by a Court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) Restraining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit acts of domestic violence upon the petitioner;
- (3) Restraining the respondent from contacting, harassing, telephoning, or otherwise communicating with the petitioner, either directly or indirectly;
- (4) Excluding the respondent from the dwelling which the parties shared or from the residence of the petitioner;
- (5) Other relief as the Court deems necessary for the protection of the petitioner, including orders or directives to peace officers as allowed under this code;
- (6) Restraining the respondent from contacting, molesting, interfering with or menacing the minor children whose custody is awarded to the petitioner;

- (8) Prohibiting the respondent from having in their possession any firearm and/or ammunition whether working or not.
- (9) Suspending or revoking the respondent's privilege to hunt with a firearm for as long as the domestic protection order is in effect. The authority to revoke or suspend privileges extends to the rights of tribal members to hunt pursuant to the provisions of the Treaty of June 11, 1855, 12 Stat. 957 and subsequent treaties and agreements

(b) No protection order under this section shall in any manner affect title to real property.

(c) Relief shall not be denied because the petitioner used reasonable force in self-defense against the respondent, or because the petitioner or respondent was a minor at the time of the incident of domestic violence.

(d) Any relief granted by the domestic protection order shall be for a fixed period not to exceed 90 days; provided that an order obtained pursuant to this chapter may, upon written motion and upon good cause shown, be renewed for additional terms not to exceed one (1) year each if the requirements of this chapter are met. The motion to renew an order may be granted without a hearing, if not timely objected to by the party against whom the order is entered.

(e) In providing relief under this chapter, the Court may realign the designation of the parties as "petitioner" and "respondent" where the Court finds that the original petitioner is the abuser and the original respondent is the victim of domestic violence.

§7-3-6 Full Faith and Credit Given to Domestic Protection Orders.

(a) Any domestic protection order issued that is consistent with subsection (b) of this section by one State or Indian tribe (the issuing State or Indian tribe) shall be accorded full faith and credit by the Nez Perce Tribe and enforced as if it were the order of the Nez Perce Tribe.

(b) A domestic protection order issued by a State or Tribal Court is consistent with this subsection if:

- (1) such Court has jurisdiction over the parties and matter under the law of such State or Indian tribe; and
- (2) reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard is given to the person against whom the order is sought sufficient to protect that person's right to due process. In the case of ex parte orders, notice and opportunity to be heard must be provided within the time required by State or Tribal law, and in any event within a reasonable time after the order is issued.

(c) A domestic protection order issued by a State or Tribal Court against one who has petitioned, filed a complaint, or otherwise filed a written pleading for protection against abuse by a domestic household member is not entitled to full faith and credit if:

- (1) no cross or counter petition, complaint or other written pleading was filed seeking such a protection order; or
- (2) a cross or counter petition has been filed and the Court did not make specific findings that each party was entitled to such an order.

§7-3-7 Continuing duty to inform the Court of other proceedings; effect of other proceedings; delay of relief; omission of petitioner's address.

(a) At any hearing in a proceeding to obtain a domestic protection order, each party has a continuing duty to inform the Court of each proceeding for a domestic protection order, any civil litigation, and each proceeding concerning family or juvenile matters.

(b) A domestic protection order is in addition to and not in lieu of any other available civil or criminal proceeding. A petitioner is not barred from seeking an order because of other pending proceedings. The Court shall not delay granting relief because of the existence of a pending action between the parties.

(c) A petitioner may omit his or her address from all documents filed with the Court. If a petitioner omits his or her address, the petitioner must provide the Court with a mailing address. If disclosure of the petitioner's address is necessary to determine jurisdiction or consider venue, the Court may order the disclosure to be made:

- (1) After the petitioner's consent;
- (2) Orally and in chambers, out of the presence of the respondent and a sealed record to be made; or

- (3) After a hearing, if the Court takes into consideration the safety of the petitioner and finds that such disclosure is in the best interest of justice.

§7-3-8 Effect of action by petitioner or respondent on order.

If a respondent is excluded from the residence of a petitioner or ordered to stay away from the petitioner, an invitation by the petitioner to do so does not waive or nullify a domestic protection order.

§7-3-9 Mutual orders prohibited.

The Court shall not grant a mutual domestic protection order to opposing parties.

CHAPTER 7-4 FAMILY AND CHILDREN

§7-4-1 Presumption concerning custody.

In every proceeding where there is at issue a dispute as to the custody of a child, a determination by the Court that domestic violence has occurred raises a rebuttable presumption that it is detrimental to the child and not in the best interest of the child to be placed in the sole custody, joint custody, or joint physical custody with the perpetrator of domestic violence.

§7-4-2 Factors in determining custody and visitation.

(a) In addition to other factors that a court must consider in a proceeding in which the custody of a child or visitation by a parent is at issue and in which the Court has made a finding of domestic violence:

- (1) The Court shall consider as primary the safety and well-being of the child and of the parent who is the victim of domestic violence.
- (2) The Court shall consider the perpetrator's history of causing physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or causing the fear of physical harm, bodily injury, or assault to another person.

(b) If a parent is absent or relocates because of an act of domestic violence by the other parent, the absence or relocation is not a factor that weighs against the parent in determining custody or visitation.

§7-4-3 Presumption concerning residence of child.

In every proceeding where there is at issue a dispute as to the custody of a child, a determination by a court that domestic violence has occurred raises a rebuttable presumption by a court that it is in the best interest of the child to reside with the parent who is not a perpetrator of domestic violence in the location of that parent's choice, within or outside the boundaries of the Nez Perce Reservation.

§7-4-4 Conditions of visitation in cases involving domestic violence.

(a) A court may award visitation by a parent who committed domestic violence only if the Court finds that adequate provision for the safety of the child and the parent who is a victim of domestic violence can be made.

- (b) In a visitation order, a court may:
- (1) Order an exchange of a child to occur in a protected setting;
 - (2) Order visitation supervised by another person or agency;
 - (3) Order the perpetrator of domestic violence to attend and complete, to the satisfaction of the Court, a program of intervention for perpetrators of domestic violence or other designated counseling as a condition of the visitation;
 - (4) Order the perpetrator of domestic violence to abstain from the possession or consumption of alcohol or controlled substances during the visitation and for 24 hours preceding the visitation;
 - (5) Prohibit overnight visitation; and/or
 - (6) Impose any other condition that is deemed necessary to provide for the safety of the child, the victim of domestic violence, or other domestic household member.
- (c) Whether or not visitation is allowed, the Court may order the address of the child and the victim to be kept confidential.
- (d) If the Court allows a family member to supervise visitation, the Court shall establish conditions to be followed during visitation.

§7-4-5 Duties of children's protective services.

- (a) The Nez Perce Tribal Social Service Department shall develop written procedures for screening each referral for abuse or neglect of a child to assess whether domestic violence is also occurring. The assessment must include but is not limited to:
- (1) Inquiry concerning the criminal record of the parents, and the alleged abusive or neglectful person and the alleged perpetrator of domestic violence, of not a parent of the child; and
 - (2) Inquiry concerning the existence of domestic protection orders issued to either parent.
- (b) If it is determined in an investigation of abuse or neglect of a child:
- (1) That the child or other domestic household member is in danger of domestic violence and that removal of one of the parties is necessary to prevent the abuse or neglect of the child, the Nez Perce Tribal Prosecutor shall seek the removal of the alleged perpetrator of domestic violence whenever possible.
 - (2) That a parent of the child is a victim of domestic violence, services must be offered to the victimized parent and the provisions of such services must not be contingent upon a finding that either parent is at fault or has failed to protect the child.

§7-5-4 Scope

(a) In the process of carrying out the responsibilities and duties in this Act, the Nez Perce Tribe Social Services Program may inquire into the availability and subsequently request the assistance of the staffs and resources of all appropriate tribal departments, agencies, commissions, or health directors, and may utilize any other appropriate and available tribal, state, public or private agencies, groups or individuals. Interagency cooperation shall include the involvement, when appropriate, of law enforcement personnel, department personnel, medical personnel, state personnel and any other person or entity deemed necessary due to their specialized training in providing services to elders or vulnerable adults. Interagency cooperation may also include access to client information necessary for the provision of services to elders or vulnerable adults. Interagency staffing and sharing of client and facility information shall be used, upon completion of the proper paperwork regarding privacy of information or issuance of court order or subpoena when necessary, to provide services to elders and vulnerable adults.

(b) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to mean that a vulnerable adult or elder is abused, neglected or in need of protective services for the sole reason that he/she relies on treatment from a recognized religious method of healing in lieu of medical treatment, nor shall the provisions of this Act be construed to require any medical care or treatment in contravention of the stated or implied objection of an elder or vulnerable adult, except as noted.

§7-5-5 Powers and Duties

(a) The duties of the Nez Perce Tribe Social Services Program shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

The caseworker may not be appointed as guardian, conservator, temporary guardian or temporary conservator. The caseworker shall be immune from liability for applying for or filing a petition for guardianship or conservatorship, unless the application or filing is done in bad faith.

(b) The investigation that is conducted shall include a determination of the nature, extent, and cause of the abuse, neglect, self-neglect, or exploitation, an examination of evidence and consultations with persons thought to have knowledge of the circumstances and identification, if possible, of the persons alleged to be responsible for any abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the elder or vulnerable adult.

(c) The investigation may include:

(d) Upon completion of the investigation, a written report of the investigation shall be prepared. The name of the person making the original report or any person mentioned in the report shall not be disclosed unless those persons specifically request such disclosure or unless the disclosure is made pursuant to a request to law enforcement for emergency access, a court order or hearing.

(e) If, as a result of any investigation initiated under this Act, it appears that the abuse, neglect or exploitation has caused injury or a serious imposition on the rights of the elder or vulnerable adult, an officer and/or a tribal prosecutor shall be immediately contacted, which shall initiate an investigation and determine whether criminal proceedings shall be initiated against a Caretaker or other persons liable under this Act.

§7-5-6 Imminent Danger

(a) If the vulnerable adult is believed to be in imminent danger and the social worker cannot gain access, then the social worker will enlist the assistance of a law enforcement officer to ensure the safety of the vulnerable adult.

(b) The law enforcement officer can also assist in the following ways:

- (1) Help with the judicial process necessary to ensure the safety of the vulnerable adult;
- (2) Help ensure the safety of the adult protection worker by accompanying the worker when there is a potentially dangerous situation;

§7-5-7 Access to Investigate

A Nez Perce Tribe Social Service Program worker may gain emergency access to the residence of the client for the purpose of conducting a protective investigation if:

- (1) The client is unable to consent to entry because he/she is medically unable; or

- (2) The client is unwilling to consent to entry; or

- (4) The social worker has reason to believe that a client is in an abusive and/or neglectful situation in which death or severe bodily harm could reasonably be expected to occur without intervention; and

The prosecutor's office is to respond within two (2) to fourteen (14) days as to whether or not the case will be prosecuted.

(c) The Nez Perce Tribal Prosecutor will consider the Nez Perce Tribal Code §

4-1-89 and any other relevant criminal or civil provisions in determining whether criminal charges for abuse or neglect can or should be filed.

§7-5-10 Special Powers and Duties in Cases of Self -Neglect

(a) If a report issued pursuant to Subsection (d) of § 7-5-5 contains a finding of self-neglect involving an elder or vulnerable adult, the Nez Perce Tribe Social Services Program shall work with the Tribal prosecutor or other appropriate authority to petition the court for the appointment of a temporary or permanent guardian or conservator as provided for in the Nez Perce Tribal Code or other duly-enacted Tribal law or ordinance.

(a) Any professional, including but not limited to physicians, dentists, psychologists, social workers, emergency response personnel, or other person who has responsibility for the care of a vulnerable adult or elder and whose examination or observation of the vulnerable adult or elder yields a reasonable basis to believe that abuse, neglect, self-neglect, or exploitation of the vulnerable adult, elder, or the property of the vulnerable adult or elder has occurred, shall immediately report or cause reports to be made of such to an Officer or the Nez Perce Tribal Social Services Program.

(b) Any guardian or conservator of a vulnerable adult or elder who becomes aware or suspects abuse, neglect, self-neglect, or exploitation of the vulnerable adult, elder, or the property of the vulnerable adult or elder to which they act as guardian or conservator has occurred, shall immediately report or cause reports to be made of such reasonable basis to an Officer or the Nez Perce Tribal Social Services Program.

Contractors and subcontractors shall enter into written compliance plans and agreements with the Office to ensure compliance with the requirements of this Title.

CHAPTER 9-2 EMPLOYMENT PREFERENCE PROVISIONS

§9-2-1 Employment Preference Requirements

(b) Preference. Members of the Nez Perce Tribe, who meet the minimum qualifications for a position, shall be hired in preference to any non-members. If no member of the Nez Perce Tribe who meets the minimum qualifications for a position applies for the position, other Native Americans who meet the minimum qualifications for the position shall be hired in preference to any non-Indians.

(c) Exemptions. It shall not be a violation of this Title for an employer to hire non-members or non-Indians for positions to be held by key employees or core crew or to hire non-members or non-Indians for positions when the Office has granted the employer a waiver on a form approved by the Office.

§9-2-2 Job Qualification Review by the Tribal Employment Rights Office; Burden on Employer to Justify Job Criteria that Serve as Barriers to the Employment of Indians

Prior to posting, announcing, or advertising to fill a position, every employer shall submit a position description with listed minimum job qualifications to the Office for review and approval. Upon submission, the Office shall complete its review, in consultation with the employer, within five (5) business days of receipt. Should the Office disagree with the employers list of minimum qualifications for the position, the Office and the employer shall endeavor to resolve the disagreement.

Should the employer refuse to change the listed minimum requirements for the position and should a listed criterion for the job serve as a barrier to the employment of a member of the Nez Perce Tribe or other Native American, the employer may be subject to liability and sanctions under this Title if the employer cannot prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that such a criterion is required by business necessity.

§9-2-3 Hiring Hall

(a) General Requirements.

The Office shall maintain a hiring hall, consisting of a data base of all known members of the Nez Perce Tribe and other Native Americans residing within or near the Reservation, who wish to be considered for employment positions within the Reservation. The Office shall use reasonable means to identify such individuals, their job qualifications, and contact information and shall keep such information up-to-date.

Employers may not hire non-Indians (other than key employees or core crew) for any positions without first exhausting the hiring hall maintained by the Office. To exhaust the hiring hall, the employer shall allow the Office a reasonable time to locate Indians with the minimum qualifications so that they may apply for the position.

For the purposes of this section, a reasonable time means three (3) business days for construction jobs and five (5) business days for other jobs, provided however, that the Office may shorten these times upon finding that they may impose an undue burden upon the employer.

(b) Consequences of Failure to Exhaust Hiring Hall.

The Nez Perce Tribe supports tribal members in taking independent initiative to attain employment without over-dependence upon the Office. The Office, however, shall have the authority to remove any individual from a job if: (1) such individual is not a member of the Nez Perce Tribe and a member of the Nez Perce Tribe with the minimum qualifications for the job is available for the position through the hiring hall or (2) such individual is not an enrolled member or any Indian tribe and a Nez Perce tribal or other Native American with the minimum qualifications for the job is available for the position through the hiring hall. The Office has authority to require every Native American employed within the reservation to file a skills bank application with the office and to provide proof of enrollment in an Indian tribe.

§9-2-4 Layoffs

In all layoffs or reductions in force, employers shall preserve the employment of members of the Nez Perce Tribe (as first priority) and members of other Indian tribes (as second priority) over the employment of non-Indians so long as the individual Nez Perce tribal member or Indian in question holds the minimum qualifications for the position at issue. Employers shall transfer members of the Nez Perce Tribe (as first priority) and members of other Indian tribes (as second priority) to positions that are not being eliminated in a reduction in force if such positions are held by non-Indians and the individual Nez Perce tribal member or Indian in question holds the minimum qualifications for the position at issue.

§9-2-5 Promotions

Employers shall give members of the Nez Perce Tribe (as first priority) and other Native Americans (as second priority) preferential consideration for all promotion opportunities and shall encourage Indians to seek such opportunities.

§9-2-6 Training, Counseling and Support

All employers, as requested by the Office, shall participate in training programs to assist Indians to become qualified in the various job classifications used by the employer. Employers shall cooperate with the Office in providing or accommodating the use of employment counseling or employment support provided by the Nez Perce Tribal government to assist Indians in attaining and retaining employment so long as such cooperation does not interfere with the employers' reasonable job requirements.

§9-2-7 Investigations and Complaint Procedures (Employers Other than Tribal Government and Tribal Enterprises)

(a) Application. The section applies to employers other than tribal enterprises and tribal government.

(b) Investigations and Informal Resolutions. The Director shall conduct an investigation of an employer if the Director has reason to believe that the employer has failed to comply with any of the requirements of this Title, the Commission's regulations, or any compliance plan negotiated with the TERO Office; or receives a written complaint from an individual alleging that the employer has violated this Title or said regulations. The investigation may include interviewing witnesses or collecting documents in such manner as the Director sees fit.

The Director shall inform the employer of any charge of violations of this Title or the Commission's regulations and seek to resolve the matter by informal resolution.

(c) Formal Complaints to Commission. Should the Director fail to informally resolve a dispute concerning an employer's compliance with this Title or the Commission's regulations, the Director may file a written complaint with the Commission, setting forth the alleged violations of the employer with sufficient specificity to allow the employer to respond. (d) Commission Hearings. Upon the filing of a written complaint by the Director or an individual, the Commission shall schedule a hearing with notice to the employer and all interested persons, including any individuals whose jobs may be affected by the outcome of the Commission's proceedings on the Complaint. Unless otherwise provided herein, hearings shall be conducted in compliance with Chapter 2-5. The Commission shall first hear from the Director or the individual proceeding with the Complaint and any witnesses the Director or the individual may choose to present with respect to the Complaint. (e) Written Decisions. After hearing, the Commission shall issue to the parties a written decision with findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect to the allegations. (f) Judicial Review. Any aggrieved person, including a complaining individual or the employer, shall have the right to seek judicial review of any decision of the Commission to the Tribal Court. Unless otherwise provided herein, such judicial review shall proceed in accordance with Chapter 2-5. The Tribal Court shall give deference to the Commission's findings of facts. The Tribal Court may affirm the decision, or it may reverse, vacate, or modify the Commission's decision if the Court determines that the decision involved an abuse of discretion, was unsupported by substantial evidence, was beyond the authority of the Commission, or was otherwise not in accordance with the laws of the Nez Perce Tribe.

(g) Unions. Unions may be subject to investigation and complaint procedures under this section to the same extent as employers covered herein.

It shall be a violation of this Title for a contracting entity to award a contract or a subcontract to a non-Indian business unless the contracting entity can demonstrate that for each contract or subcontract it proposes to award to a non-Indian business there is no certified Indian business that is technically qualified and available to perform the work at a reasonable price.

(d) The contracting entity shall have the sole discretion to determine whether a firm meets the necessary technical qualifications, provided however, that in every instance in which it rejects a certified Indian business as not technically qualified, it must provide the rejected firm with a written explanation for the rejection. The contracting entity shall also have sole discretion to determine what constitutes a reasonable price, provided that it may not reject a certified Indian business on the basis of an unreasonable price and subsequently contract with a non-Indian business at the same or at a higher price.

(e) It shall be unlawful for any contractor or bidder to engage in bid shopping, and any contractor found to have engaged in bid shopping shall be prohibited from engaging in work on the Reservation or, if engaged in work, shall be liable for up to treble damages for any losses suffered by a certified Indian business as a result of the contractors bid shopping practices.

A business may be certified as a certified Indian business by satisfying the criteria set forth in this section.

(a) Ownership. The firm must be 51% or more Indian-owned. The applicant must demonstrate the following:

- (1) Formal Ownership. That an Indian or Indians own(s) 51% or more of the partnership, corporation, or other arrangement for which the application is being submitted. Such ownership must be embodied in the firm's organic documents, such as its stock ownership or partnership agreement. Ownership includes (i) financial ownership i.e., the Indian(s) own(s) 51% or more of the firm's assets upon dissolution, and will receive 51% or more of the profits; and (ii) control i.e., the Indian(s)' 51% or more ownership provides him or her with a majority of voting rights or other decisional authority and that all decisions of the firm are to be made by a majority vote except where otherwise required by law.
- (2) Value. The Indian owner(s) provided real value for his or her 51% or more ownership by providing capital, equipment, real property, or similar assets commensurate with the value of his or her ownership share. It will not be considered "real value" if the Indian(s) purchased his or her ownership share, directly or indirectly, through a promissory note, the ultimate creditor of which is the non-Indian owner of the firm or an immediate relation thereof, of any similar arrangement, unless a convincing showing can be made that the Indian owner(s) brought such special skills, marketing connections, or similar benefits to the firm that there is a good reason to believe the arrangement would have been entered into even if there were not an Indian preference program in existence.

Where the Indian participant can demonstrate that he or she could not pay good value for his or her 51% or more Indian ownership because the normal capital sources were closed to him or her because he or she is an Indian, that person may satisfy this requirement by demonstrating further that he or she expended his or her capital-raising capability as far as possible, such that the Indian participant clearly is at risk in the business in relationship to his or her means.

- (3) Profit. The Indian owner(s) will receive 51% or more of all profits. If there is any provision that gives the non-Indian owner a greater share of the profits, in whatever form and under whatever name, such as through management fees, equipment rental fees, or bonuses tied to profits, certification will be denied. Salary scales will be reviewed to ensure the relative salaries being paid Indian and non-Indian owners are consistent with the skills of the parties and are not being used to circumvent the requirement that Indian owners receive 51% or more of the profits.

(b) Management Control. The firm must be under significant Indian management and control. The firm must be able to demonstrate that:

- (1) Unitary firms (Non-joint Ventures). One or more of the Indian owners must be substantially involved, as a senior level official, in the day-to-day management of the firm as his or her primary employment activity. The Indian owner does not have to be Chief Executive Officer. However, he or she must, through prior experience or training, have substantial occupational ties to the area of business in which the firm is engaged such that he or she: (i) is qualified to serve in the senior level position; and (ii) is sufficiently knowledgeable about the firms activities to be accountable to the tribe for the firms activities.

This provision may be waived when (i) the firm is 100% Indian owned and the Chief Executive Officer is the spouse and/or parent of the owner(s) the family lives on or near the Reservation, and the majority of employees are Indian: or (ii) the firm is modeled on a publicly-held corporation such that it is owned, the Chief Executive Officer and the highest salaried employee in the firm is/are Indian and a majority of the employees are Indian.

- (2) Joint Ventures. No joint ventures will be certified. However, an Indian/non-Indian joint venture that otherwise satisfies the requirements of these criteria shall be given preference over wholly non- Indian business when no certified Indian business is available.

(c) Integrity of Structure. There must be good reason to believe that the firm was not established solely or primarily to take advantage of this Title. In evaluating an applicant under this criterion, the Director will consider the factors set out below. The Director shall exercise broad discretion in applying these criteria in order to preserve the integrity of this Title and, in questionable cases, shall deny certification.

- (1) History of the firm. Whether the history of the firm provides reason to believe it was established primarily to take advantage of this Title, and in particular whether the firm, or key factors in the firm originally were associated with a non-Indian business that gained little business value in terms of capital, expertise, equipment, etc., by adding ownership or by merging with a Certified Indian business.

- (2) Employees:

- (A) Whether key non-Indian employees of the applicant are former employees of a non- Indian business with which the certified Indian business is or has been affiliated, through a joint venture or other arrangement, such that there is reason to believe the non-Indian business is controlling the applicant.
- (B) Whether Indians are employed in all or most of the positions for which qualified Indians are available. A high percentage of non-Indian employees in such positions will provide reason to believe the firm was established primarily to benefit non-Indians.
- (C) Relative Experience and Resources

Whether the experience, expertise, resources, etc., of the non-Indian partner(s) that there is little sound business reason for the non-Indian to accept a junior role in the firm or venture other than to be able to take advantage of this Title.

§9-4-2 Certification Procedures (4/8/08)

(e) Judicial Review. The Commission's decision under subsection (d) shall be considered final agency action, and subject to review by the Tribal Court by an aggrieved person pursuant to Chapter 2-5.

§9-4-3 Certification Grades

(a) Probationary Certification. An applicant granted certification shall be issued a one year probationary certificate. During that period the Director shall monitor the firm's activities to ensure that the firm is operating in the manner described in its application. During the probationary period, the firm shall provide the Director information and documents upon request.

(b) Final Certification. At the end of the probationary period the Director shall either:

- (1) Grant full certification
- (2) Continue the probationary period for up to six (6) months;
- (3) Deny certification

§9-4-4 Withdrawal of Certification

(a) Director Decision. The Director may withdraw or suspend the certification of any firm if, upon investigation, the Director has probable cause to believe that the criteria set forth in section §9-1-26 no longer are being met by a firm. The Director shall provide the firm with a written notification of any such withdraw, setting forth the facts and reasons for the withdrawal.

(b) Commission Review. Any firm subject to a withdrawal of certification by the Director may seek review of the Director's decision by the Commission. The Commission shall review the Director's decision and allow the firm to submit additional information or explanation with respect to the governing criteria for certification. The Commission may affirm the decision of the Director, reverse the Director's decision, or vacate the Director's decision and order further investigation, or issue other orders as it may deem appropriate, including suspension of the certificate for up to one year, putting the firm on probation, or ordering that corrective action be taken within a fixed period.

(c) Judicial Review. The Commission's decision under subsection (b) shall be considered final agency action, and subject to review by the Tribal Court by an aggrieved person pursuant to Chapter 2-5.

(d) Consequences of Certification Withdrawal. A firm that has had its certification withdrawn may not reapply for a period of one year.

§9-4-5 Annual and Other Reports

Each certified Indian business shall report to the Office in writing any changes in its ownership or control status within 60 days after such changes have occurred. Each certified Indian business, on the anniversary of its receipt of permanent certification, shall update the information provided to the Office. Failure to provide such information shall constitute ground for withdrawal of certification.

(c) Upon receiving any employee complaint in writing, the TOSHA Officer shall make inquiries, inspection and investigations that the Officer considers reasonable and appropriate. (d) The TOSHA Officer shall provide a copy of the notice or complaint to the employer no later than the time of inspection, provided that the TOSHA Officer shall keep confidential the identity of any employee who requests protection in writing. (c) Except in the case of any emergency, or of a place of employment subject to the provisions of this Chapter and open to the public, if the TOSHA Officer is denied access to any place of employment for the purpose of an inspection or investigation, such inspection or investigation shall not be conducted without an inspection warrant or without such other authority as a court may grant in an appropriate civil proceeding.

(d) A representative of the employer and a representative authorized by the employee of the employer shall be given an opportunity to accompany the TOSHA Director during the inspection of any place of employment for the purpose of aiding such inspection. When there is no employee representative, the TOSHA Officer may consult with a reasonable number of employees concerning matters of safety and health in the work place.

§9-5-12 Citation for Safety or Health Standard Violation; Effect of Failure to Correct

(a) If the TOSHA Officer, TERO Director or authorized representative has reason to believe, after inspection or investigation of a place of employment, that an employer subject to the provisions of this Chapter has violated any Tribal or federal occupational safety or health law, regulation, standard or order, the Officer or TERO Director shall with reasonable promptness issue to such employer a citation, and notice of proposed civil penalty, if any, to be assessed under the this Chapter, and fix a reasonable time for correction of the alleged violation.

(b) Each citation and notice required under subsection (a) of this section shall be in writing, shall be mailed to or served upon the employer or registered agent of the employer, and shall contain:

- (1) The date and place of the alleged violations;
- (2) A plain statement of the facts upon which the citation is based;
- (3) A reference to the law, regulation, rule, standard or order relied upon;
- (4) The amount, if any, of the proposed civil penalty;
- (5) The time, if any, fixed for the correction of the alleged violation;
- (6) Notice of the employer's right to contest the citation, the proposed civil penalty and the period of time fixed for correction of the alleged violation;
- (7) Notice of any affected employer's right to contest the period of time for correction of the alleged violation; and
- (8) Notice of any affected employee's right to contest the period of time fixed for correction of the alleged violation.

(c) If the TOSHA Officer has reason to believe that an employer subject to the provisions of this Chapter has failed to correct a violation within the period of time fixed for correction, or within the time fixed in a subsequent order granting an extension of time to correct the violation, the Officer shall consider such failure as a separate and continuing violation and shall issue a citation and notice of proposed civil penalty, if any, to be assessed.

(d) Each citation and notice, or copies thereof, issued under the Nez Perce Tribal Law & Order Code shall be posted by the employer, immediately upon receipt in a conspicuous manner in a sufficient number of locations in the place or places of employment to reasonably inform employees of such citation and notice.

(e) No citation or notice of proposed civil penalty may be issued under this section after the expiration of 180 days following start of the inspection or investigation, but this shall not prevent the issuance, at any time, of an order to correct that violation or the issuance of a citation for a subsequent violation.

§9-5-13 Conciliation; Contesting Violations; Hearing

(a) Upon issuance of a citation, civil penalty or correction order, the employer and TOSHA Officer may attempt to achieve voluntary compliance and remedy the violation by settlement conference or conciliation. Mitigation may include, but is not limited to:

- (1) agreement to change its procedures;
- (2) where possible, reversing the action that is the subject of the complaint;
- (3) recommending disciplinary action against employees responsible for the causing the violation; or

- (4) correct safety or health hazard or violation.

Conciliation conferences shall be considered confidential, and the contents of these discussions shall not be used as evidence in any hearing unless the parties agree. If settlement is reached, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties. Any conciliation agreement may be made public if the parties agree.

(b) If the employer and TOSHA Officer cannot mitigate the violation, the TOSHA Officer shall issue a formal noncompliance order, which shall advise the employer or noncompliant entity of all rights to appeal the order. An employer may contest a citation, a proposed assessment of civil penalty and the period of time fixed for correction of a violation, or any of these, by filing with the TOSHA Office, within twenty (20) days after receipt of the noncompliance order, a written request for a hearing before the TERO Commission. Such a request need not be in any particular form, but shall specify the alleged violation that is contested and the grounds upon which the employer considers the citation or proposed penalty or correction period unjust or unlawful.

(c) An affected employee may contest the time fixed for correction of a violation by filing with the TOSHA Office, within twenty (20) days after the receipt by the employer of the citation, notice or offer which fixes such time for correction, a written request for a hearing before the TERO Commission. Such a request need not be in any particular form, but shall specify the violation in question and the grounds upon which the employee considers the correction period to be unreasonable.

(d) The hearing before the TERO Commission shall be set within ten (10) business days from the date of receipt of the request of a hearing and not later than thirty (30) calendar days after the date for compliance set forth in the citation notice, unless an expedited hearing is deemed necessary by the TERO Commission to avoid irreparable harm.

(e) If a request for hearing is not filed, the citation, penalty assessed and time fixed for correction of the violation shall be a final order of the TOSHA Office and shall not be subject to review by any agency or court, and such order shall be immediately enforceable.

(f) Where an employer contests, in good faith and not solely for delay or avoidance of penalties, the period of time fixed for correction of a non-serious violation, such period of time shall not run between the date the request for the hearing is filed and the date the order of the TOSHA office becomes final by operation of law or on appeal.

(g) Service. Service of any documents under this part shall be sufficient if accomplished by personal delivery or electronic mail with a return receipt to any Tribal entity or the complainant, and by regular mail to any non-Tribal entity or individuals.

TITLE 10
PROBATE ORDINANCE
(effective 5/29/07)

CHAPTER 10-1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

§10-1-1 Legislative Findings

The Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee (NPTEC), the governing body of the Nez Perce Tribe hereby finds that the loss of lands from Indian ownership, and the increase in fractionated ownership of many lands held by tribal members threatens the long term viability of the Nez Perce Reservation as a homeland for the exclusive use of the Tribe and its members; the NPTEC further finds that authorizing and directing the Nez Perce Tribal Court to hear and determine probate proceedings will simplify the probate process for surviving family members, will encourage tribal members to plan for the transfer of their property upon their deaths, and further strengthen the Tribe's powers of self-governance.

§10-1-2 Declaration of Policy

The Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee (NPTEC) hereby declares that the policy of the Nez Perce Tribe is to prevent further deterioration of the land base of the Tribe, to prevent as far as possible the further fractionation of ownership of tribal members' property, to encourage tribal members to plan for the transfer of their property upon their deaths by making wills, and to strengthen the Tribe's self-governance by providing a means for probating estates in Nez Perce Tribal Court.

The enactment of the Nez Perce Tribal Probate Code preempts the present usage of the Idaho Uniform Probate Code except as hereinafter specifically provided to the contrary and places jurisdiction of any and all probate matters concerning any person who is a member of, or eligible for enrollment in a federally recognized Indian tribe, or who does not otherwise meet the definition of "Indian" in the Indian Land Consolidation Act, as amended, and any non-Indians who may elect coverage with the Nez Perce Tribal Court.

§10-1-3 Effective Date

This title shall take effect thirty days after the date of its enactment by NPTEC Resolution subject to applicable federal law. This title shall not affect the validity or terms of wills executed before the effective date, except that the restrictions on transfer of trust and restricted property in § 10-1-12 shall apply to all persons and property subject to this Title on its effective date.

§10-1-4 Severability

If any section, clause, or provision of this code, or its application to any person or circumstance, is declared invalid for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of the code or application to any other person or circumstance shall still be valid and in effect.

§10-1-5 Reference to Foreign Law

The tribal court is encouraged to refer to foreign law, including laws of other tribes and states, federal law, common law and uniform or model laws, for assistance in resolving issues of probate and inheritance law on which this Title is silent.

§10-1-6 Duties of Land Services Department

Land Services Department will perform former federal functions pursuant to an annual compact agreement with the U.S. Department of the Interior and any other duties assigned by the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee which are related to management and probate of real and personal property located on the Nez Perce Reservation or owned by an enrolled Nez Perce tribal member.

arrangement other than the person's will. "Nonprobate asset" includes, but is not limited to, a right or interest passing under a joint tenancy with right of survivorship, joint bank account with right of survivorship, payable on death or trust bank account, transfer on death security or security account, deed or conveyance if possession has been postponed until the death of the person, trust of which the person is grantor and that becomes effective or irrevocable only upon the person's death, community property agreement, individual retirement account or bond, or similar document.

(z) "Representation" shall mean a method of determining distribution in which the takers are in unequal degrees of kinship with respect to the deceased as follows:

After determining who, of those entitled to share in the estate, are in the nearest degree of kinship, the estate is divided into equal shares, the number of shares being the sum of the number of persons who survive the deceased- who are in the nearest degree of kinship and the number of persons in the same degree of kinship who died before the deceased-but who left issue surviving the deceased (See chart for "C" = children); each share of a deceased person in the nearest degree shall be divided among those of the deceased's issue who survive the deceased and have no ancestor then living who is in the line of relationship between them and the deceased, those more remote in degree (See chart for "G" = grandchildren) taking together the one share which their ancestor would have taken had he or she survived the deceased.

Any testamentary gift or devise purporting to transfer an interest in the decedent's trust or restricted property to a person who is not a member of, or eligible for enrollment in a federally-recognized Indian tribe, or who does not otherwise meet the definition of "Indian" in the Indian Land Consolidation Act, as amended, may receive by inheritance or devise the use for life of the restricted or trust lands of the deceased.

Any failed bequest shall be treated as part of the decedent's residue of the estate.

CHAPTER 10-2 INTESTATE SUCCESSION

§10-2-1 Succession Rules

The net estate of a person dying intestate shall descend subject to the restrictions of § 10-1-12 of this Title and shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The surviving spouse shall receive the following share:

- (1) all of the decedent's share of the net community estate; and
- (2) one-half (1/2) of the net separate estate if the intestate is survived by issue; or three quarters (3/4) of the net separate estate if there is no surviving issue, but the intestate is survived by one or more of his parents, or by one or more of the issue of one or more of his parents; or all of the net separate estate, if there is no surviving issue nor parent nor issue of the parent.

(b) The share of the net estate not distributed to the surviving spouse, or the entire net estate if there is no surviving spouse, shall descend and be distributed as follows:

- (1) to the issue of the intestate; if they are all in the same degree of kinship to the intestate, they shall take equally, or if of unequal degree, then those of more remote degree shall take by representation.
- (2) If the intestate not be survived by issue, then to the decedent's parent or parents who survive the intestate, in equal shares.
- (3) If the intestate not be survived by issue or by either parent, then to those issue of the parent or parents who survive the intestate; if they are all in the same degree of kinship to the intestate, they shall take equally, or, if of unequal degree, then those of more remote degree shall take by representation.
- (4) If the intestate not be survived by issue or by either parent, or by any issue of the parent or parents who survive the intestate, then to the grandparent or grandparents who survive the intestate; if both maternal and paternal grandparents survive the intestate, the maternal grandparent or grandparents shall take one-half and the paternal grandparents or grandparents shall take one-half.

§10-2-2 Inheritance by Child

For the purposes of inheritance by, through, and from any child, the effects and treatment of the parent-child relationship shall not depend on whether or not the parents have been married.

§10-2-3 Inheritance by Adopted Child

The lawfully adopted child shall not be considered an heir of his biological parent unless the decree of adoption provides for the continuation of inheritance rights. This provision shall not prevent a biological parent from giving or devising property to his adopted child by will. A child who has been cared for, or considered adopted by custom, but not by law, shall remain an heir of his biological parent.

§10-2-4 Escheat for Want of Heirs

Whenever any person dies, leaving property subject to the jurisdiction of the Nez Perce Tribe, and not being survived by any person entitled to the same under the laws of the Nez Perce Tribe, such property shall be designated as escheat property and shall pass to the Nez Perce Tribe.

CHAPTER 10-3 WILLS

§10-3-1 Who May Make a Will

Any person of sound mind who is eighteen years of age or older, or a minor who is emancipated or the parent of a child, may, by last will, devise all of his estate, both real and personal, subject to the provisions of this title.

§10-3-2 Requirements of Wills

Every will shall be in writing and signed by the testator or some other person under his direction in the presence of the testator. The will shall be attested by two or more competent witnesses, not having an interest in the testator's estate or in the will, signing their names to the will in the presence of the testator by his direction or request: Provided, that a last will and testament, executed outside the Nez Perce Reservation, in the mode prescribed by law, either of the place where executed or of the testator's domicile, shall be deemed to be legally executed, and shall be of the same force and effect as if executed in the mode prescribed by the laws of the Nez Perce Tribe; Provided further, however, that any will purporting to devise an interest in trust or restricted lands shall in addition to the provisions of this section meet all the lawful requirements of the Bureau of Indian Affairs found in Title 25 of the United States Code and Title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

§10-3-3 Revocation of Will

- (a) a subsequent valid written will; or
- (b) by being burned, torn, canceled, obliterated or destroyed, with the intent and for the purpose of revoking the will, by the testator himself or by another person in his presence and by his direction in the presence of two competent witnesses not having an interest in the outcome. The facts of such injury or destruction, including the direction of the testator where the action is done by another, must be proved by two competent witnesses, not having an interest in the outcome.
- (c) If a will has been revoked, the testator shall notify the Land Services Department of its revocation, using a form designated for that purpose. Failure to notify the Land Services Department of a will's revocation does not affect the validity of the revocation or any subsequent will.

§10-3-4 Subsequent Divorce of Testator

A divorce, subsequent to the making of a will, shall revoke the will as to the divorced spouse.

§10-3-5 Revival

If, after making any will, the testator shall duly make and execute a second will, the destruction, cancellation or revocation of the second will shall not revive the first will. If the subsequent will is determined invalid, the first will shall not be deemed revoked.

§10-3-6 Death of Related Devisee or Legatee Before Testator

When any estate shall be devised or bequeathed to any child, grandchild, or other relative of the testator, and such devisee or legatee shall die before the testator, having lineal descendants who survive the testator, such descendants shall take the estate, real and personal, as such devisee or legatee would have done in the case he had survived the testator; if such descendants are all in the same degree of kinship to the predeceased devisee or legatee they shall take equally, or, if of unequal degree, then those of more remote degree shall take by representation with respect to such predeceased devisee or legatee. A spouse is not a relative under the provisions of this section.

§10-3-7 Lapsed Bequest or Devise

(a) If a will makes a bequest to a person on the condition that the person survive the testator and the person does not survive the testator, then, unless otherwise provided, the bequest lapses and falls into the residue of the estate to be distributed under the residuary clause of the will, if any, but otherwise according to the laws of descent and distribution.

(b) If the will gives the residue to two or more persons, the share of a person who does not survive the testator passes, unless otherwise provided, to the other person or persons receiving the residue, in proportion to the interest of each in the remaining part of the residue.

(c) If the will makes a bequest or devise which fails the bequest lapses and falls into the residue of the estate to be distributed under the residuary clause of the will, if any, but otherwise according to the laws of descent and distribution.

§10-3-8 Estate for Life – Remainders

If any person, by last will, or by the operation of tribal law, shall devise any real estate to any person for the term of such person's life, such devise vests in the devisee an estate for life, and unless the remainder is specially devised, it shall revert to the heirs at law of the testator.

§10-3-9 Will to Operate On After Acquired Property

Any estate, right, or interest in property acquired by the testator after the making of his will shall pass as if title thereto was vested in him at the time of making the will, unless the language of the will makes clear the testator's intention was otherwise.

§10-3-10 Contribution Among Devisees and Legatees

When any testator in his last will shall give any personal property or real estate to any person and the same shall be taken in execution for the payment of the testator's debts, then all the other legatees, devisees, and heirs shall refund their proportional part of such loss to such person from whom the bequest shall be taken.

§10-3-11 Intent of Testator Controlling

All courts and others concerned in the execution of last wills shall have due regard to the direction of the will, and the true intent and meaning of the testator in all matters brought before them shall control unless prohibited by law.

§10-3-12 Omitted Child Born or Adopted After Execution of Will

(a) If a will fails to name or provide for a child of the decedent who is born or adopted by the decedent after the will's execution and who survives the decedent, referred to in this section as an "omitted child," the child must receive a portion of the decedent's estate as provided in subsection (c) of this section, unless it appears either from the will or from other clear and convincing evidence that the failure was intentional.

(b) In determining whether an omitted child has been named or provided for, the following rules apply:

- (1) A child identified in a will by name is considered named whether identified as a child or in any other manner.
- (2) A reference in a will to a class described as the children, descendants, or issue of the decedent who are born after the execution of the will, or words of similar import, constitutes a naming of a person who falls within the class. A reference to another class, such as a decedent's heirs or family, does not constitute such a naming.
- (3) A nominal interest in an estate does not constitute a provision for a child receiving the interest.

(c) The omitted child must receive an amount equal in value to that which the child would have received if the decedent had died intestate, unless the court determines on the basis of clear and convincing evidence that a smaller share, including no share at all, is more in keeping with the decedent's intent. In making the determination, the court may consider, among other things, the various elements of the decedent's dispositive scheme, provisions for the omitted child outside the decedent's will, provisions for the decedent's other children under the will and otherwise, and provisions for the omitted child's other parent under the will and otherwise.

(d) In satisfying a share provided by this section, the bequests made by the will abate as provided in § 10-8-7.

§10-3-13 Omitted Spouse Married After Execution of Will

(a) If a will fails to name or provide for a spouse of the decedent whom the decedent marries after the will's execution and who survives the decedent, referred to in this section as an "omitted spouse," the spouse must receive a portion of the decedent's estate as provided in subsection (c) of this section, unless it appears either from the will or from other clear and convincing evidence that the failure was intentional.

(b) In determining whether an omitted spouse has been named or provided for, the following rules apply:

- (1) A spouse identified in a will by name is considered named whether identified as a spouse or in any other manner.
- (2) A reference in a will to the decedent's future spouse or spouses, or words of similar import, constitutes a naming of a spouse whom the decedent later marries. A reference to another class such as the decedent's heirs or family does not constitute a naming of a spouse who falls within the class.
- (3) A nominal interest in an estate does not constitute a provision for a spouse receiving the interest.

(c) The omitted spouse must receive an amount equal in value to that which the spouse would have received if the decedent had died intestate, unless the court determines on the basis of clear and convincing evidence that a smaller share, including no share at all, is more in keeping with the decedent's intent. In making the determination the court may consider, among other things, the spouse's property interests under applicable community property or quasi-community property laws, the various elements of the decedent's dispositive scheme, and a marriage settlement or other provision and provisions for the omitted spouse outside the decedent's will.

(d) In satisfying a share provided by this section, the bequests made by the will abate as provided in § 10-8-7.

§10-3-14 Omission of Spouse or Child Living at Execution of a Will

If a will fails to provide for a spouse to whom the decedent was married at the time of the execution of a will, or a child born or adopted and living at the time of the execution of the will, the spouse or child so excluded shall receive that portion of the estate to which he would have been entitled under the rules of intestate succession unless the decedent's will specifically and clearly states the intent to exclude the named spouse or child.

§10-3-15 Duty of Custodian of Will

Any person having made a will shall provide a copy of the will under seal to Land Services Department and shall notify Land Services Department of the location of the original will. Any person having custody or control of a will shall, within 30 days after receiving knowledge of the death of the testator, deliver said will to the Land Services Department. The Land Services Department shall provide the tribal court with a copy of the will, or the original where there is no trust or restricted property to probate, upon receiving knowledge of the death of the testator.

CHAPTER 10-4 PROBATE PROCEEDINGS

§10-4-1 Initiation of Probate Proceedings

(a) Probate proceedings shall be initiated by a Petition For Probate filed with the Nez Perce Tribal Court containing:

- (1) The name of the decedent.
- (2) The decedent's enrollment status with the Nez Perce Tribe. (Enrolled, eligible for enrollment, enrolled in another federally recognized Indian tribe). [versus otherwise meeting the definition under AIRPA]
- (3) The date of death of the decedent.

(b) The petitioner shall file with the petition, or as soon after filing as such documents can be obtained:

- (1) A certified copy of the decedent's death certificate.
- (2) The original or a true and correct copy of any will found or document alleged to be the last will and testament of the decedent. If no original is available, the petition shall include a description of the efforts made to obtain the original and any facts relating to its absence or insure that a true and correct copy is provided by the Land Services Department.

(c) The Court shall set a date for hearing not less than sixty (60) days following submission of all required documents and mail notice of such hearing and publish notice in local newspaper at the Court's discretion.

§10-4-2 Qualifications of Personal Representative; Priority

Powers and responsibilities for administration of an estate as Personal Representative shall be granted to some one or more of the persons hereinafter mentioned, and they shall be respectively entitled in the following order:

- (a) The person or persons named to serve as Personal Representative in the decedent's last will and testament.
- (b) The surviving spouse or such person as the surviving spouse may request to have appointed.
- (c) The next of kin in the following order 1) Child or children; 2) father or mother; 3) brothers or sisters; 4) grandchildren; 5) nephews or nieces.
- (d) One or more of the beneficiaries or transferees of the decedent's probate or nonprobate assets.
- (e) If the persons so entitled shall fail for more than forty days after the death of the decedent to present a petition for letters of administration, or if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that there is no next of kin, or they waive their right, or if no suitable person is available and willing, then the court may appoint the Public Administrator to administer such estate.

§10-4-3 Parties Disqualified - Result of Disqualification After Appointment

The following persons are not qualified to act as personal representatives: Corporations, minors, persons of unsound mind, or persons who have been convicted of any felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or convicted of any criminal offense of the Nez Perce Tribal Code, which would be equivalent to any felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude under state or federal law. When any person to whom Letters of Administration have been issued becomes disqualified to act because of becoming of unsound mind or being convicted of any felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or convicted of any criminal offense of the Nez Perce Tribal Code which would be equivalent to any felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude under state or federal law, the court shall revoke his or her letters. A nonresident of the Nez Perce Reservation may be appointed to act as personal representative if the nonresident appoints an agent who is a resident of the Reservation or who is an attorney of record of the estate, upon whom service of all papers may be made; such appointment to be made in writing and filed by the clerk with other papers of such estate. No person shall be disqualified from serving as a Personal Representative by virtue of the fact that he may be beneficiary of the estate, but such person shall always be mindful of the fact that he serves the estate in a fiduciary capacity and must put the interests of the estate ahead of his personal interest.

§10-4-4 Powers and Duties of Personal Representative

The Personal Representative shall have the power and duty to:

- (a) Take possession and control of all the decedent's assets subject to the probate jurisdiction of the court, and to preserve such assets for the benefit of the estate;
- (b) Give all notices to family members, heirs, beneficiaries, government agencies or creditors as required or allowed by this Title;
- (c) Act in a fiduciary capacity in the name of the estate, subject to applicable orders of the court, to settle any claim against the estate, collect any debts owed to the estate, and initiate or defend any litigation involving the estate;

(d) Administer, in a fiduciary capacity, the affairs of the estate to ensure that the estate is preserved and distributed in accordance with the decedent's directions expressed in his or her last will and testament, or in the absence of such a will, in accordance with the rules of intestate succession set out in this Title;

(e) Exercise any power granted by the decedent's last will and testament or by order of the court; and

(f) Avoid any conflict of interest between his personal interests and the interests of the estate by always placing the interests of the estate ahead of his personal interest.

(g) The personal representative shall serve without bond, unless a bond is required by the court, or by the terms of decedent's will.

§10-4-5 Hearing; Order Initiating Probate; Appointment of Personal Representative and Letters of Administration

(a) Within 30 days of the filing of a petition for probate, the tribal court shall hold a hearing during which the court shall review the sufficiency of the petition and examine the petitioner under oath and determine whether the decedent died having left a valid will or intestate.

The court shall take evidence as to the validity of any will, and as to the qualifications of the petitioner or other person to be the personal representative. In the absence of an original, the court may permit a true and correct copy of a will to be probated.

Upon findings by a preponderance of the evidence that:

- (1) The petitioner or another person is qualified and entitled to be appointed Personal Representative;
- (2) That the decedent died having left a valid will or intestate, and
- (3) The petition and other evidence before the court are sufficient to support the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall enter an order initiating probate of the decedent's estate. Such order shall either establish and initiate probate of decedent's will or shall conclude that the decedent died intestate and identify the decedent's heirs at law. Except in the event of a contest of a will pursuant to Chapter 10-6, such order shall be conclusive.

Absent such findings, the petition shall be dismissed.

(b) Following the conclusion of the hearing and order initiating probate the court shall issue Letters of Administration conferring the powers and duties of the Personal Representative on the petitioner or another person. The term "Letters of Administration" shall apply to the authority granted to a Personal Representative under this Title, regardless of whether decedent died testate or intestate.

§10-4-6 Form of Letters of Administration

Letters of Administration shall be signed by the court under the seal of the court, and shall be substantially in the following form:

Whereas (decendent) late of (address) on or about the __ day of __ A.D., __died leaving at the time of his death, property in this jurisdiction subject to administration: Now, therefore, know all persons by these presents, that this court hereby appoints _____ administrator of said estate, and whereas said administrator has duly qualified, the court hereby authorizes him to administer the estate according to law.

Witness my hand and the seal of said court this __ day of __ 20__.

§10-4-7 Oath of Personal Representative

Before Letters of Administration are issued, the appointed Personal Representative must take and subscribe an oath, before the clerk of the court or some other person authorized to administer oaths, that the duties and responsibilities as Personal Representative will be performed according to law. The oath must be filed with the court.

§10-4-8 Notice of Appointment as Personal Representative, Pendency of Probate - Proof by Affidavit

Within twenty days after appointment, the personal representative of the estate of a decedent shall cause written notice of his appointment and the pendency of said probate proceedings, to be served personally or by mail to each heir, legatee and devisee of the estate and each beneficiary or transferee of a nonprobate asset of the decedent whose names and addresses are known to him, and proof of such mailing or service shall be made by affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury and filed with the court. Such notice shall include a copy of the court's order determining whether the decedent died testate or intestate.

§10-4-9 Cancellation of Letters of Administration

The court appointing any Personal Representative shall have authority for any cause deemed sufficient, to cancel and annul such letters and appoint other Personal Representatives in the place of those removed. If after letters of administration are granted, a will of the deceased is found and probate thereof be granted, the letters may be revoked or amended.

§10-4-10 Successor Personal Representative

If a personal representative of an estate dies or resigns or the letters are revoked before the settlement of the estate, successor Letters of Administration shall be granted to a person to whom the letters would have been granted if the original letters had not been obtained, and the successor personal representative shall perform like duties and incur like liabilities as the preceding personal representative, unless the decedent provided otherwise in a duly probated will or unless the court orders otherwise.

§10-4-11 Inventory and Appraisement - Filing - Copy Distribution

(a) Within ninety (90) days after appointment, unless a longer time shall be granted by the court, the personal representative shall make and verify by affidavit a true inventory and appraisement of all of the property of the estate passing under the will or by laws of intestacy and which shall have come to the personal representative's possession or knowledge, including a statement of all encumbrances, liens, or other secured charges against any item. The personal representative shall determine the fair net value, as of the date of the decedent's death, of each item contained in the inventory after deducting the encumbrances, liens, and other secured charges on the item. Such property shall be classified as follows:

- (1) Real property, by legal description;
- (2) Stocks and bonds;
- (3) Mortgages, notes, and other written evidences of debt;
- (4) Bank accounts and money;
- (5) Furniture and household goods;
- (6) All other personal property accurately identified, including the decedent's nonprobate assets, and proportionate share in any partnership, but no inventory of the partnership property shall be required of the personal representative.

(b) The inventory and appraisement shall be filed with the tribal court and notice of its filing shall be served on any heir, legatee, devisee, unpaid creditor who has filed a claim, or beneficiary of a nonprobate asset.

(c) The personal representative shall have the duty to amend the inventory and appraisal within 30 days of acquiring knowledge of any additional property of the estate. Notice of the amendment shall be served as notice of the original inventory was served.

(d) Within fifteen (15) days of the end of the period set forth above, one or more of the interested parties may file an objection with the Court and request a hearing. A hearing may be held at the Court's discretion.

§10-4-12 Summary Probate of Exempt Estates

(a) Exempt Estates. An estate having an appraised value which does not exceed $25,000 and which is to be inherited, through the rules of intestacy or by devise, by a surviving spouse and/or minor children of the deceased shall be exempt from the claims of all general creditors and the probate thereof may be summarily concluded as provided in this section. Reasonable funeral expenses shall not be subject to this exemption.

(b) Notice of Hearing to Determine Whether the Estate is an Exempt Estate. Upon petition of the Personal Representative, the Court shall enter an order stating that it appears, from the inventory and appraisal filed with the Court, that the appraised value of the whole estate does not exceed $25,000 and that such estate is to be inherited by the surviving spouse and/or minor children of the decedent and shall set a date and hour for hearing objections of any interested persons, if any, why the whole estate should not be declared to be exempt from the claims of all general creditors and distributed to the surviving spouse and/or minor children of the decedent. Notice of such hearing shall be given by posting a true copy of such order in the offices of the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee, and by sending a true copy of such order by certified mail to all persons known to the Personal Representative to be an heir, devisee or legatee of the decedent. Such notice shall be posted or mailed not less than ten days before the time set for such hearing. §10-4-15 Time and Place of Hearing on Final Report and Petition for Distribution – Notice

The court shall, if it approves such report, and finds the estate ready to be closed, enter a decree approving such report, find and adjudge the persons entitled to the remainder of the estate, and that all debts have been paid, and by such decree shall distribute the real and personal property to those entitled to it. The court shall have the authority to make partition, distribution and settlement of all estates in any manner which to the court seems right and proper, to the end that such estates may be administered and distributed to the persons entitled thereto. No estate shall be partitioned, nor sold where partition is impracticable, except upon a hearing before the court. The court shall fix the values of the several pieces or parcels to be partitioned at the time of making such order of partition or sale, and may order the property sold and the proceeds distributed, or may order partition and distribute the several pieces or parcels, subject to such charges or burdens as shall be proper and equitable.

15. “Disability” means the inability of the covered worker to obtain and/or retain wages equivalent to the worker’s pre-injury wages as a result of a direct loss of functional capacity compromising that worker’s ability to perform the necessary duties of the job. This functional loss must be directly and materially attributable to a compensable work-related injury and/or occupational disease and must be supported by the worker’s attending physician and, if requested by the Claim Administrator, the Consulting Physician. “Partial Disability” refers to the amount by which the covered worker’s ability to obtain and/or retain pre-injury wages is reduced as a result of a direct loss of functional capacity compromising that worker’s ability to perform the necessary duties of the job.
16. “Idiopathic Injury” means an injury which is either peculiar to the individual or arising spontaneously from an obscure or unknown cause. This includes epileptic attacks, diabetic seizures, heart disease, cardiovascular or respiratory conditions, heart attack, the failure or occlusion of any coronary blood vessels, stroke, thrombosis, allergic disorders, auto-immune diseases, etc.
17. “Impairment” means any anatomic or functional abnormality or loss existing after Maximum Medical Improvement (MMI) as defined herein that results from a compensable injury and/or occupational disease and is reasonably presumed to be permanent based on reasonable medical probability.
18. “Injury” shall mean any physical or mental impairment, including, without limitation, death and/or occupational disease, arising in the course and scope of the covered worker’s employment.
 - a. The term “injury” does not include an injury sustained while a covered worker is at home or preparing for work unless the activity was undertaken at the direction of the employer.
 - b. The term “injury” does not include an injury resulting primarily from the natural aging process, or normal daily activities, or an injury sustained during voluntary recreational or social activities.
19. " Intoxication" means a blood alcohol content in excess of .02 percent or the loss of the normal use of one’s mental and/or physical faculties resulting from the voluntary introduction into the body of: an alcoholic beverage; a controlled substance; a mind-altering drug and/or hallucinogenic substance; glue, aerosol paint, or any other inhalant; a prescribed drug in excess of, or in violation of, the prescribed amount; or any other similar substance. This definition does not apply to Nez Perce Tribal Police officers whose consumption of such substances is consistent with the Nez Perce Tribal Police Department’s policy and procedures for undercover assignments.
20. “Maximum Medical Improvement.”

- a. “Maximum Medical Improvement” (“MMI”) means the earlier of:
 - i. the point after which no further material recovery from an injury, or the last improvement to an injury, can be anticipated based on reasonable medical probability; or
 - ii. the expiration of 36 months from the date disability income benefits begin to accrue.
 - b. MMI can be determined without regard to subjective complaints of pain by the patient. Once the date of MMI has been determined (except cases in which a covered worker is medically unable to continue working) no further determinations of other dates of MMI for that personal injury are permitted. A determination of MMI is not rendered ineffective by the worsening of the covered worker’s medical condition and recovery thereafter.
- 21. “Nez Perce Tribe Workers’ Compensation Benefit System” shall mean this Title, any and all rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, as well as the functions of the Claim Administrator, the Advisory Council, and the arbitrator selected to adjudicate disputes under Chapter 11-9 of this Title.
 - 22. “Occupational Disease” means only those diseases which arise out of and in the course and scope of the worker’s employment. To be compensable, such diseases must have a direct causal connection with the worker’s employment and must result from injurious exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment. Such disease must be incidental to the character of the business, occupation, or process in which the worker was employed and not independent of the employment. Such disease need not have been foreseen or expected but after its contraction it must appear to have had its origin in a risk connected with the employment and to have resulted from that source as an incident and rational consequence. A disease which follows from a hazard to which a worker has or would have been equally exposed outside of said occupation is not compensable as an occupational disease.
 - 23. “Parent or Grandparent” means the natural or adoptive father, mother, grandfather, or grandmother of the covered worker.
 - 24. “Policy” means any workers’ compensation policy of insurance issued to the Tribe, or any other covered employer.
 - 25. “Scheduled Weeks” means 156 weeks and is the maximum number of weeks that a covered worker shall be entitled to disability benefits under this Title.
 - 26. “Settlement” means the date the release of all claims is executed and the monetary terms of the agreement met.
 - 27. “Spouse” means the person married to the covered worker at the time of the death or injury to the covered worker.

28. “Tribal Court” means the Nez Perce Tribal Court.
29. “Tribe” and " Tribal" mean, or refer to, the Nez Perce Tribe, a federally-recognized American Indian tribe, its agencies, and any Tribal enterprises.
30. “Volunteer” means a person who gives his or her services to the Tribe without any express or implied promise of remuneration including unpaid interns. A volunteer who suffers an Injury, as defined in this Title, that arises from the course and scope of that person’s voluntary service to the Tribe may receive Medical Benefits but will not receive Indemnity Benefits.

§11-1-6 WORKERS’ COMPENSATION INSURANCE REQUIRED. Every Employer must insure for the benefits provided under this Title but are allowed self-insured retention levels in accordance with the rules of the Advisory Council. Any insurance company issuing a policy insuring benefits hereunder shall: (a) require a loss prevention/control program sufficient to enable the Tribe to provide a safe workplace for all tribal workers; and (b) assist the Employer in reducing hazards in the workplace and in the implementation of continued safety policies and procedures.

§11-1-7 ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF PROVISIONS IN THIS TITLE. All covered workers and/or persons asserting a claim under this Title shall be conclusively presumed to have elected to take workers’ compensation benefits in accordance with the provisions of this Title by virtue of their employment by the Tribe or other covered employer. All covered workers and/or persons asserting a claim under this Title acknowledge that the Tribe is a federally-recognized American Indian tribe and is exercising its inherent sovereign authority in providing workers’ compensation benefits under this Title.

§11-1-8 POSTING OF NOTICE. Each covered employer shall post the following notice in a conspicuous location in each of the employer’s offices or work areas:

NOTICE TO TRIBAL EMPLOYEES

→All on-the-job injuries must be reported within one (1) business day.

→All claims for Workers' Compensation benefits must be filed within 30 (thirty) calendar days.

As employees of the tribe or its enterprises, you are insured for on-the-job injuries under the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Code which is contained in Title 11 of the Nez Perce Tribal Code. If you are injured or sustain an occupational disease while at work, you may be entitled to benefits as provided by the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Code.

Notify your employer immediately of any injuries, no matter how slight. If you fail to do so, you may lose your benefits under the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Code. In no event shall benefits be paid to a worker who failed to notify their employer within one (1) business day after sustaining such work-related injury, except in cases where an extraordinary reason prevented the worker from reporting the injury or occupational disease to the employer in a timely manner.

It is your responsibility to file a claim for benefits with the Claim Administrator. You are required to file a claim for any injury or occupational disease no more than thirty (30) days after you have knowledge thereof. It is your responsibility to obtain any necessary forms from the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Claim Administrator at:

Your exclusive remedy for any work-related injury or disease is through the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Code. The Workers' Compensation system of any State cannot accept a claim from you under the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Code as you are employed by the Nez Perce Tribe, a sovereign Indian nation employer.

§11-1-9 NOTIFICATION TO EMPLOYER OF INJURY BY WORKER.

A. All covered workers must immediately notify their supervisor, department director, or the human resources office of any and all injuries, and in no event no later than the next business day after the date of occurrence. Failure to timely report an on-the-job injury shall result in a forfeiture of benefits under this Title, unless the claimant can demonstrate an extraordinary reason that prevented the reporting of the injury or occupational disease in a timely manner.

B. When a supervisor or department director receives a report of an on-the-job injury, the supervisor or department director must submit the report to their human resources office no later than the next business day after receiving the report.

C. The human resources office must submit reports of on-the-job injuries to the Claim Administrator no later than two (2) business days after receiving a report.

D. Within the time set by the Claim Administrator, the worker's supervisor or department director shall prepare and submit to the human resources office an incident report on the circumstances surrounding the on-the-job injury, including the identification of people who may have witnessed the incident or accident.

§11-1-10 TIME LIMIT FOR REPORTING INCIDENTS AND FILING CLAIMS.

A. Claims for injury shall be made by the covered worker to the Claim Administrator within thirty (30) days of the date of occurrence. For purposes of this Title, filing a claim for benefits under this Title with the human resources office shall constitute filing a claim with the Claim Administrator.

B. Claims for occupational disease shall be made by the covered worker to the Claim Administrator within thirty (30) days from date of first notice to the worker by a physician.

C. Failure to give notice of injury to the employer, or to file a claim with the Claim Administrator, within the time limits set forth in this chapter shall constitute a forfeiture by the covered worker, or his representatives in case of death, of all benefits available and payable under this Title.

§11-1-11 BURDEN OF PROOF. The burden of proof shall rest upon the claimant to prove that any injury arose in the course and scope of the covered worker's employment.

§11-1-12 RIGHT TO WAIVE DEFENSES. The Claim Administrator and/or the worker's compensation insurer shall have the right and power to waive any and all defenses affecting the compensability of a covered injury under this Title.

§11-1-13 GUARDIAN FOR MINOR OR INCOMPETENT. Any person who is mentally incompetent and/or under the age of 18 and is entitled to receive compensation under this Title, shall be appointed a guardian or other representative by the Tribal Court if a guardian has not been appointed in a prior action.

CHAPTER 11-2 – WORKERS' COMPENSATION ADVISORY COUNCIL

§11-2-1 ESTABLISHMENT. There is hereby established a Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Benefit Advisory Council ("Advisory Council") whose purpose is to administer the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Benefit System. The Advisory Council will also cooperate in the prevention of injuries and occupational diseases to workers and, in the event of injury or occupational disease, their rehabilitation or restoration to health and vocational opportunity.

§11-2-2 MEMBERSHIP.

A. The Advisory Council shall be comprised of seven (7) members holding the following positions:

1. the Human Resources Manager for the government of the Tribe, or a designee from that department;
2. the Human Resources Manager for Tribal Enterprises, or a designee from that department;
3. the Human Resources Manager for Nimiipuu Health, or a designee from that department;
4. the Human Resources Manager for the Tribal Housing Authority, or a designee from that department;
5. the Tribal Finance Manager, or a designee from that department;
6. the Tribal Executive Director, or a designee from that department; and
7. the Managing Attorney of the Office of Legal Counsel, or a designee from that department.

§11-2-3 POWERS OF THE ADVISORY COUNCIL. The Advisory Council shall have the following duties and powers:

- A. to meet on a quarterly basis unless the Advisory Council determines that additional, or more frequent, meetings are necessary to fulfill its duties under this Title;
- B. to recommend rules and regulations to the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee for the implementation and administration of this Title;
- C. to review quarterly the benefits provided under this Title and to make recommendations to the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee for amendments to benefit levels or any other needed revisions to this Title deemed advisable by the Advisory Council;
- D. to develop programs and to cooperate with the Claim Administrator for the preparation and presentation of information and educational programs designed to prevent injuries and occupational diseases to covered workers;
- E. to take any and all other actions deemed reasonable and necessary for the implementation of this Title including, but not limited to, recommending rates and reserve levels to the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee;

F. to make recommendations to the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee regarding selection of consultants deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this Title;

G. to make recommendations to the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee regarding appointment of the Claim Administrator; and

H. to make recommendation to the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee regarding the selection of the insurance company to provide the workers' compensation benefits that are set forth in this Title.

CHAPTER 11-3 – DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE CLAIM ADMINISTRATOR

§11-3-1 CUSTODIAL DUTIES. The Claim Administrator or its designee shall be the payor of the workers' compensation benefits and all authorized disbursements therefore shall be paid by the Claim Administrator or a representative with its stated authority. The Claim Administrator also shall be the custodian of all claim files and related documents.

§11-3-2 PAYMENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF BENEFITS. The Claim Administrator shall administer this Title in accordance with the terms and conditions described herein, and any rules adopted by the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee, shall remit all benefit payments as provided for in this Title, and shall have the authority to determine the distribution of benefit checks.

§11-3-3 ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES. If necessary, and to the extent they are not contrary to any provisions of this Title, the workers' compensation provisions contained in Title 72 of the Idaho Code may be utilized as guidelines by the Claim Administrator.

§11-3-4 ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS AND DUTIES.

A. The Claim Administrator shall be empowered to request medical reports, police reports, autopsy reports, and special investigations, engage the services of adjusters and consultants, and perform other activities as required to process any claim for benefits or to further this Title.

B. In the case of death of a covered worker, the Claim Administrator shall have the right to request the performance of an autopsy on the decedent from an appropriate official licensed to perform autopsies, and shall have the right to request any and all reports made from such autopsies. If requested, the legal beneficiaries of the deceased worker are entitled to have a representative present at any autopsy ordered by the Claim Administrator.

C. The Claim Administrator shall have the power to retain a consulting physician for purposes of assisting the Claim Administrator in carrying out its duties and powers under this Title.

D. The Claim Administrator shall have the duty to maintain complete and accurate administrative records and claim files on all activities relating to the claims made under the Policy. The Claim Administrator shall retain and preserve all closed files for not less than six (6) years.

§11-3-5 ACCEPTANCE/DENIAL OF CLAIM. Upon receiving a claim for benefits, the Claim Administrator shall promptly investigate the claim and begin payment of compensation within 21 days of receipt of the claim if the Claim Administrator determines that the claim is valid.

A. If the Claim Administrator cannot complete its investigation within 21 days, the Claim Administrator shall send the claimant written notice that further investigation is needed and the reasons for further investigation. The written notice must be sent within 21 days of receipt of the claim.

B. The Claim Administrator shall complete its investigation within 45 days of receipt of the claim and shall commence the payment of benefits or notify the claimant in writing that the claim is denied.

CHAPTER 11-4 – COVERAGE AND COMPENSABILITY

§11-4-1 ENTITLEMENT TO BENEFITS. Claimants seeking benefits under this Title shall be responsible for filing a timely claim with the Claim Administrator.

§11-4-2 MENTAL TRAUMA.

A. Mental traumas, disorders, and/or conditions, even if manifested in physical symptoms and/or related to stress, are not compensable injuries under this Title, except those that result from accidental injury traceable to a definite time, place, and cause (rather than from repetitive mental trauma), or from an unusual traumatic event as established by a licensed psychiatrist or psychologist, and the mental injury was caused by or occurs subsequent to or simultaneous with such accidental injury or unusual traumatic event.

B. Regardless of section §11-4-2 A, a mental trauma or emotional injury that arises principally from a personnel action is not a compensable injury under this Title. Personnel actions include, but are not necessarily limited to transfers, promotions, demotion, disciplinary actions, work performance evaluations, and terminations.

C. Treatment for mental injury determined compensable under this Title shall be limited to six (6) months after the covered worker's physical injury has healed to maximum medical improvement.

§11-4-3 GOING TO AND RETURNING FROM WORK. An accident and/or incident occurring while a worker is on the way to or from work, including lunch break, is not within the course and scope of employment except when such travel is directly connected with the worker's employment and in furtherance of the employer's interest. Travel is not directly connected with the worker's employment and in furtherance of the employer's interest: if the worker deviates from a reasonably direct route of travel; or if the worker is not acting in the interests of the employer.

§11-4-4 BENEFITS PRECLUDED BY NEGLIGENCE AND/OR REFUSAL OF WORKER TO SUBMIT TO TREATMENT.

A. No benefits shall be payable for the death and/or disability of a worker if the worker's death is caused by, or the worker's disability aggravated, caused or continued by, an unreasonable refusal and/or neglect to submit to and/or follow reasonable surgical or medical treatment, medical aid, or advice. A worker who has refused and/or neglected to submit to and/or follow medical and/or therapeutic treatment, or to take medications as prescribed, will be presumed to have reached Maximum Medical Improvement. Any disability that could have been treated with a reasonable medical probability of success will be discounted in determining the appropriate impairment rating under this Title.

B. Any covered worker otherwise entitled to benefits under this Title shall be presumed to have reached Maximum Medical Improvement if such worker has refused and/or neglected to seek appropriate medical treatment within six (6) months from: the date the injury or occupational disease occurred; or the date on which the worker last received medical treatment for the injury or occupational disease.

C. If an injured covered worker undertakes activities on or off the job which exceed recommendations of the treating physician, and cause the condition to worsen, the covered worker may not receive benefits for the aggravation. However, the covered worker may receive compensation for the aggravated condition if the employer demanded the covered worker to do things in excess of the treatment recommendations.

§11-4-5 INJURY OR DEATH FROM CONSUMPTION AND/OR APPLICATION OF DRUGS AND/OR CHEMICALS. No benefits of any nature shall be payable for injury and/or death caused or contributed to by any drug, including narcotics and hallucinogens, whether organic or chemical in nature, or any gas, vapors, and/or fumes taken and/or inhaled voluntarily, or by voluntary poisoning, except those drugs prescribed by a physician or other practitioner licensed to prescribe such medication. However, no benefits under this Title shall be payable in the event the worker's injury or death was caused by the intentional abuse of prescribed drugs in excess of the prescribed therapeutic amounts.

§11-4-6 INTOXICATION. No benefits of any nature shall be payable for, or on behalf of, any covered worker who is injured or killed while intoxicated or if the covered worker has any controlled substance in his/her body at the time of the injury or death, regardless of whether the intoxicated condition was the proximate cause of the injury or death. It is only necessary to prove that the covered worker was intoxicated at the time of the incident or accident to deny benefits under this Title. All covered workers agree: to submit to post-incident/post-accident drug and alcohol screening as authorized in the applicable Tribal personnel policies; and to waive any confidentiality or other privilege associated with the results of said tests. This provision does not apply to Nez Perce Tribal Police officers whose consumption of such substances is consistent with the Nez Perce Tribal Police Department's policy and procedures for undercover assignments.

§11-4-7 PENALTIES FOR FALSE STATEMENT OR REPRESENTATION TO OBTAIN COMPENSATION. If, in order to obtain any benefits under the provisions of this Title, any person willfully makes a false statement or representation, they shall forfeit all rights to compensation, benefits, or payment.

A. The employer is entitled to take any action permitted by law to recover any payment or benefits paid under this Title to a covered worker where the payment or benefit was based upon the fraudulent or false statements or misrepresentation by the covered worker.

B. The employer's recovery of all, or a portion of, benefits paid based upon the fraudulent or false statements or misrepresentation by the covered worker will not preclude prosecution of the covered worker under any applicable criminal statutes.

§11-4-8 INJURIES RESULTING FROM SELF-INFLICTED INJURIES OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT. No benefits of any nature shall be payable for a worker's injury or death caused by the worker's willful intention to injure himself or another. The willful disregard of an order from the employer to the worker to wear or use a safety device and/or to perform work in a certain manner may cause such person to forfeit all rights to compensation, benefit, or payment upon proof that such disregard or performance was the direct and proximate cause of the injury, death, and/or occupational disease. A worker's willful disabling of safety devices on equipment constitutes a willful intention to injure himself.

§11-4-9 RECREATIONAL, SOCIAL OR ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES.

A. No benefits shall be payable under this Title if the injury, occupational disease, or death occurred as a result of the worker's voluntary participation in an off-duty, recreational, social, or athletic activity not constituting part of the worker's work-related duties, except where such activities are expressly required by the employer.

B. No benefits shall be payable under this Title if the injury, occupational disease, or death arises from participation in voluntary physical fitness activities during the regular work day, regardless of whether the covered worker is compensated for the time in which the physical fitness activities take place.

§11-4-10 INJURIES CAUSED BY THIRD PARTIES. No benefits shall be payable under this Title for any covered worker injured or killed as the result of an act of a third party, including co-workers, who intended to injure the worker because of reasons personal to that worker and not because of reasons related to his/her employment. Payment of benefits by the Claims Administrator when the injuries were caused by a third party shall not constitute a waiver of rights as contained in Section 5.4 of this code. (section amended by NPTEC 6/23/15)

§11-4-11 IDIOPATHIC CLAIMS. Injury or death resulting from a natural cause such as a heart attack, stroke or other natural function failure, which does not arise in the course and scope of employment and while the worker was acting in the furtherance of the employer's interest, is not compensable.

A. Respiratory, heart, and cardiovascular conditions and related injuries are not compensable unless the work being performed was extraordinary and unusual compared with the covered worker's regular work, and the work being performed is found to be the primary cause of the condition. "Primary cause" means that the work being performed was responsible for more than 50% of the resulting injury or condition.

B. An injury resulting directly from idiopathic causes is not compensable unless the employment places the covered worker in a position of increased danger. This would include falls from unprotected heights (ladders, scaffolds, roofs), falls involving the hazardous attributes of industrial machinery or equipment, or episodes occurring while driving during the course and scope of employment.

C. In the event of a claim that the worker's employment was a contributing cause of the idiopathic injury, the work being performed would have had to have been extraordinary and unusual compared with the covered worker's regular work in order to be considered compensable. In addition, medical evidence must establish that the extraordinary and unusual work was the primary cause of the condition. "Primary cause" means that the work being performed was responsible for more than 50% of the resulting injury or condition.

§11-4-12 OTHER LIMITATIONS ON BENEFITS.

- A. No benefits shall be payable under this Title for secondhand smoke claims.
- B. Benefits will be paid for a maximum of twelve (12) visits for physical therapy, chiropractic, or any other treatment for any injury caused by repetitive motion or any other condition that does not have a clear physical manifestation including, but not limited to: soft tissue damage; carpal tunnel syndrome; tennis elbow; and lower back pain.

CHAPTER 11-5 – GENERAL PROVISIONS REGARDING BENEFITS

§11-5-1 RIGHT TO COMPENSATION AND MEDICAL TREATMENT

BENEFITS. Every covered worker who is injured, and in the event of a worker's death, the dependents of every covered worker who is killed, in the course and scope of employment and while acting in the furtherance of the employer's interest at the time of the incident and/or accident, unless the injury is otherwise limited or excluded by the terms and conditions of this Title, is entitled to receive, and shall be paid, for loss sustained on account of the injury, death and/or occupational disease, the benefits provided under this Title.

§11-5-2 EXCLUSIVE REMEDY. The rights and remedies provided to workers in this Title are the exclusive and only rights and remedies of such workers, their personal or legal representative(s) or dependent(s), on account of injuries arising out of and in the course and scope of employment. Workers have no other remedies against the employer, the employer's representative, insurer, guarantor or surety, for any matter relating to the occurrence of an injury or payment for any injury covered under this Title, including any other benefits or compensation that a worker may attempt to obtain from a third party that may be able to seek indemnification from the covered employer.

§11-5-3 EFFECT OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION PAID IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS. A covered worker who pursues and recovers compensation under the workers' compensation laws of another jurisdiction, in violation of §11-5-2, is barred from recovering under this Title.

§11-5-4 LIABILITY OF THIRD PARTIES – SUBROGATION.

A. A covered worker may pursue a complaint against a third party for damages resulting from a work-related injury caused by the negligence of the third party or by negligence attributable to the third party, but the employer and/or its insurer, guarantor, or surety shall be subrogated to the common law rights of the worker to pursue such complaint. Therefore, a covered worker may not bring such a suit without first notifying the employer and/or its insurer, guarantor, or surety.

B. In case of a recovery against a third party, the Claim Administrator or arbitrator selected under Chapter 9 of this Title shall distribute of the proceeds such recovery as follows:

1. to the employer, a sum sufficient to repay the employer for the benefits actually paid to the worker under this Title up to that time;
2. to the employer, a sum sufficient to pay the employer the present worth, computed at the current legal interest rate for court judgments and decrees, of the future payments of compensation for which the employer is likely to be liable to the worker, even though that sum is not the final adjudication of the future payments which the worker is entitled to receive, and if the sum received by the employer is in excess of the amount the employer is actually required to pay in compensation to the worker, the excess shall be paid to the worker;

3. the balance, if any, shall be distributed to the worker or, in the case of death, to the worker's dependents, if any; and
4. NPTEC retains the right to make decisions in respect to the Claimant's obligation to repay the benefits paid under this Code. (subsection amended by NPTEC 6/23/15)

C. For subrogation purposes hereunder, any payment made to a covered worker, his guardian, dependent, or legal representative, by or on behalf of any third party, his or its principal or agent liable for, connected with, or involved in causing an injury to such worker shall be considered as having been so paid as damages resulting from and because said injury was under circumstances creating a legal liability against said third party, whether such payment be made under a covenant not to sue, compromise settlement, denial of liability, or otherwise.

§11-5-5 ASSIGNABILITY OF BENEFITS – ATTACHMENT OF LIENS. Benefits received under this Title are not assignable, except that a legal beneficiary may assign the right to death benefits. Benefits are subject only to the following liens or claims, to the extent any income or death benefits are unpaid on the date the Claim Administrator receives written notice of the lien, judgment, or claim in the following order of priority:

- A. court-ordered child support issued or recognized by the Tribal Court;
- B. a subrogation interest established under this Title; and
- C. debts owed to the Tribe.

§11-5-6 AGGRAVATION OF PRE-EXISTING DISEASE OR CONDITION. If a covered worker is suffering from a pre-existing injury or disease at the time of an injury or occupational disease which arises in the course and scope of the worker's employment and while the worker was acting in furtherance of the employer's interest, and the pre-existing injury or disease is aggravated thereby, the aggravation is subject to the provisions of this Title. The amount of the disability award under this Title may be reduced or denied in its entirety by the Claim Administrator in consideration of the following:

- A. a prior settlement from any source for the same impairment;
- B. the difference between the degree of impairment of the worker before the covered injury or occupational disease and the degree of impairment after the covered injury or occupational disease; and
- C. the benefits to be paid for impairments and/or disabilities would be in excess of 100% of the whole person. For purposes of this subsection, benefits include those benefits or payments made under this Title, benefits from the workers' compensation laws of any other jurisdiction, and payments from third parties.

§11-5-7 PRESUMPTIONS REGARDING OCCUPATIONAL ILLNESS AND DISEASE. Full-time firefighters and law enforcement officials, after five (5) years of continuous employment with the Tribe, shall receive the benefit of a rebuttable presumption that the following occupational illnesses or diseases are caused by their employment and are therefore compensable injuries/illnesses pursuant to this Title: heart trouble, pneumonia, hernia, tuberculosis, hepatitis, acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS), and cancer. The presumption is controlling absent any evidence that the illnesses or disease is caused other than by the worker's employment with the Tribe. The Tribe shall require firefighters and law enforcement officers to have an annual physical to be eligible for this presumption. The presumption will be nullified if a firefighter or law enforcement officer uses tobacco products.

§11-5-8 TERMINATION OF BENEFITS UPON DEATH. Where a worker is entitled to compensation under this Title, and death ensues from any cause not resulting from the injury for which the worker was entitled to the compensation, payments of the unpaid balance for such injury shall cease and all liability for such compensation thereafter shall terminate.

CHAPTER 11-6 – VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION, DISABILITY, AND IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS

§11-6-1 WAITING PERIOD. An initial waiting period of seven (7) consecutive calendar days will accrue before the covered worker shall be entitled to benefits under this chapter.

§11-6-2 VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION. Vocational rehabilitation benefits or training are not mandatory under this Title, but the ordering of such benefits is within the discretion of the Claim Administrator, in accordance with Chapter 3 of this Title, or may be required under rules promulgated by the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee.

§11-6-3 DISABILITY BENEFITS.

A. When a worker is disabled from work as determined by the consulting physician, or in the Claim Administrator's discretion, the attending physician, by reason of a compensable injury or occupational disease, disability benefits shall be payable as follows:

1. if the covered worker is 100% disabled, disability benefits are payable at 70% of the worker's pre-injury average weekly wage; or
2. if the covered worker is less than 100% disabled, disability benefits are payable at 70% of the difference between a worker's pre-injury average weekly wage and the wage the covered worker is earning or capable of earning in his/her partially disabled condition.

B. Except as provided in this Title, disability benefits will continue to be paid in accordance with the terms of this Title until the time at which the earliest of the following occurs:

1. the expiration of 156 weeks from the date of the occurrence, or in the case of an occupational disease, 156 weeks from the earlier of either the first manifestation of the symptoms or notification from a physician that the illness is inherent in or related to the worker's occupation;
2. the consulting physician, or in the discretion of the Claim Administrator, the attending physician, declares that the worker has reached Maximum Medical Improvement;

3. the covered worker is incarcerated;
4. the attending physician provides a full, unrestricted release;
5. The attending physician provides a modified or light duty release, and the worker rejects a bona fide job offer of suitable work consistent with the worker's disability;
6. a new or intervening incident is the proximate cause of disability;
7. the worker refuses benefits;
8. a presumption of MMI based on neglect or refusal to submit to medical treatment as set forth in §11-4-5 of this Title;
9. a suspension of benefits by the Claim Administrator for reasons authorized in this Title or by the authority of the arbitrator selected under Chapter 9 of this Title;
10. a reduction of the worker's earning capacity for reasons other than the disability from the work-related injury; or
11. the covered worker dies from any cause not resulting from the injury for which the worker was entitled to compensation under this section, and the worker's estate is not entitled to any further benefits as defined in this Title.

§11-6-4 IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.

A. At the expiration of 156 weeks from the date of the injury, the worker is presumed to have reached MMI regardless of disability and/or current medical status. At that time, the attending physician is to provide: an impairment rating based on reasonable medical probability and in accordance with the most current edition of the Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment published by the American Medical Association (the "AMA Guidelines"); and a treatment plan for reasonable and necessary future medical needs. The attending physician's impairment rating and treatment plan may be subject to review and revision by the consulting physician at the discretion of the Claim Administrator.

B. Impairment ratings are to be converted to the covered worker as a whole, and impairment ratings assigned to a specific body part are to be converted in accordance with the AMA Guidelines.

C. A rating may not be issued prior to the declaration of Maximum Medical Improvement. The Claim Administrator may reserve issuance of payment under the following conditions:

1. contribution for prior impairment ratings;
2. clarification by the Claim Administrator as to the validity of the date for MMI;
3. similar impairment rating issues or MMI issues remain to be resolved by the consulting physician or, if necessary, the arbitrator selected under Chapter 9 of this Title.

C. In the event a covered worker's death occurs after a period of disability, any disability benefits paid to the worker shall be deducted from the death benefits to which the worker's dependents may be entitled.

CHAPTER 11-8 – MEDICAL BENEFITS

§11-8-1 ENTITLEMENT TO MEDICAL BENEFITS. All covered workers are entitled to reasonable health care, supplies, and reasonably necessary transportation incurred for such services. Medical benefits are payable from the date the compensable injury or accident occurred.

§11-8-2 EMPLOYER'S RIGHT TO SELECT DOCTOR.

A. Except in an emergency where the employer or Claim Administrator agent cannot be reached immediately, the employer retains the right to approve and/or recommend all health care treatment. Health care treatment must be offered promptly and be reasonably suited to treat the injury without undue inconvenience to the worker. If the worker has reason to be dissatisfied with the care offered, the worker should communicate the basis of such dissatisfaction to the employer, in writing if requested, following which the employer and the worker may agree to alternate care reasonably suited to treat the injury. If the employer and the worker cannot agree on alternate care, the arbitrator selected under Chapter 9 of this Title may allow and order such alternate care upon application and reasonable proof of the necessity thereof. The information shall be made available to any party or the party's representative upon request, including any third-party health care providers. For purposes of settling future medical expenses, the basis for settlement will be the value of the current and future medical treatment plan but will not exceed $100,000 unless approved by the Advisory Council.

§11-8-6 PETITION TO REOPEN CLAIM. Once a claim for medical benefits or disability benefits under this Act has been closed, the worker may petition the administrator to re-open the claim for benefits within one (1) year after the date of claim closure based upon an objective material worsening of the underlying condition. The administrator will investigate and accept or deny the petition to re-open in the same manner as new claims submitted. (Added by NPTEC 6/23/15)

B. This code shall be interpreted neither in favor of the claimant or the Tribe. This code shall be interpreted neutrally. (Subsection added by NPTEC 6/23/15)

C. Consulting physicians and treating physicians' opinions shall be given equal weight. (Subsection added by NPTEC 6/23/15)

D. During any administration of claims under this code, or during the pendency of any appeal of a claim's decision, the claimant is prohibited from contacting NPTEC regarding the administration of the claim. (Subsection added by NPTEC 6/23/15)

§11-9-2 APPEAL PROCESS.

A. First Level – Binding Arbitration.

1. Any claimant shall appeal a final decision of the Claim Administrator by filing a contested claim within thirty (30) calendar days with the arbitrator or with Human Resources, and, if requested in writing, an administrative hearing shall be held. The Claim Administrator may seek a declaratory decision that the actions of the Claim Administrator are in compliance with this Title and may request a hearing in writing. Any claimant appealing a decision of the Claim Administrator shall bear the burden of proof that the Claim Administrator's decision was not in compliance with, or was in violation of, this Title. The Claims Administrator's decision shall not be disturbed on appeal so long as the decision is supported by substantial evidence. Claimant's burden of proof shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. (Subsection amended by NPTEC 6/23/16)
2. The arbitrator will conduct all hearings and render a written decision in the dispute in accordance with the Administrative Procedures set forth in Chapter 2-5 of the Nez Perce Tribal Code. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties except for an appeal to the Tribal Court as provided in this section.
3. The arbitrator for appeals from decisions of the Claim Administrator shall be a hearing officer under contract with a Tribal entity for the purpose of hearing employment grievances that arise under the Human Resource Manual, so long as that person is experienced with workers' compensation claims and appeals. If that person does not have experience with workers' compensation claims and appeals, the arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, or its successor.

B. Second Level – Tribal Court.

1. Any and all appeals from a decision of the arbitrator shall be submitted to and heard by the Tribal Court in accordance with the Administrative Procedures set forth in Chapter 2-5 of the Nez Perce Tribal Code.
2. The decision of the Tribal Court shall be final, and there shall be no further appeal of the Tribal Court's decision.

§11-9-3 RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION.

A. Claimants and the Claim Administrator shall have the right to be represented by an attorney in all matters presented before an arbitrator and/or the Tribal Court, and to cross-examine all witnesses and to review all evidence of any nature that may be related to the matter under consideration.

B. In the event either party chooses to be represented by an attorney during the arbitration, that party must provide notice of the representation at least five (5) business days before any hearing or other proceeding before the arbitrator. The notice must be given in writing to the involved Human Resources Office, and to the other party's attorney if the other party is known to be represented by an attorney.

C. An arbitrator who hears appeals under this Title shall not be bound by formal rules of evidence or by technical or formal rules of procedure and may conduct investigations in such a manner as, in the arbitrator's judgment, is best calculated to ascertain the substantial rights of the parties and to promote the spirit and intent of the Nez Perce Tribe Workers' Compensation Benefit System. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings before the arbitrator including all of the documentary evidence submitted and a tape recording of the proceedings.

§11-9-4 ATTORNEY FEES AND OTHER ARBITRATION COSTS.

A. If the arbitrator awards benefits to the claimant in excess of the Claim Administrator's original benefit determination (as communicated to the claimant), the claimant's attorney's fees will be approved with a maximum limit of 10% of the total benefit award, or $5,000.00 (five thousand dollars), whichever is less. An award of attorney's fees to the claimant shall be over and above any benefits paid or provided to the claimant pursuant to this Title. Disputes over attorney fees must be filed with the arbitrator in accordance with Rule 51 of the Tribal Rules of Civil Procedure contained in Chapter 2-2 of the Nez Perce Tribal Code.

B. The claimant and the Claim Administrator may engage the services of physicians or experts for hearing purposes at the respective party's expense. The Claimant's costs for such physicians or experts may be reimbursable, in the discretion of the arbitrator, if the arbitrator awards benefits to the claimant in excess of the Claim Administrator's original benefit determination (as communicated to the claimant). The opinions of such consultants will be considered in a contested case, notwithstanding the provisions of this Title authorizing the employer to approve and/or recommend all health care treatment.

In this Section, "expenses" mean expenses of defending a lawsuit, including attorney's fees, and any civil judgment or penalty, or settlement payment in lieu thereof, paid in connection with a lawsuit against a member or manager in such capacity.

(a) A LLC shall indemnify or allow expenses to each member and each manager for all reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding if that member or manager was a party to the proceeding in the capacity of a member or manager.

(b) Articles of Operation may alter or provide additional rights to indemnification or allowance of expenses to members and managers.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), above, a LLC may not indemnify a member or manager unless it is determined that the member or manager did not breach or fail to perform a duty to the LLC as provided in §12-1-22.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation:

- (1) A member or manager shall be conclusively presumed not to have breached or failed to perform a duty to the LLC to the extent that the member or manager has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of the proceeding.
- (2) In situations not described in paragraph (1), above, the determination of whether member or manager has breached or failed to perform a duty to the LLC shall be made by the vote of a majority in interest of the members, excluding any member who is a party to the same or related proceeding unless all members are parties.

§12-1-24 Voting

(a) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or this Section, and subject to paragraph (b), below, an affirmative vote, approval, or consent as follows shall be required to decide any matter connected with the business of a LLC.

- (1) If management of a LLC is reserved to the members, an affirmative vote, approval, or consent by majority in interest of members.
- (2) If the management of a LLC is vested in one or more managers, the affirmative, vote, consent, or approval of more than fifty percent (50%) of the managers.

- (6) Value contributions of members under §12-1-28.
- (7) Authorize a manager, member, or other person to do any act on behalf of the LLC that contravenes the articles of operation.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation if any member is precluded from voting with respect to a given matter, the value of the contribution represented by the interest in the LLC with respect to which the member would otherwise have been entitled to vote shall be excluded from the total contributions made to the LLC for purposes of determining the fifty percent (50%) threshold under §12-1-6(j) for that matter.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or this Section, if all or part of an interest in the LLC is assigned under §12-1-42, the assigning member shall be considered the owner of the assigned interest for purposes of determining the 50% threshold under §12-1-6(j) until the assignee of the interest in the LLC becomes a member under §12-1-44.

§12-1-25 Records and Information

(a) A LLC shall keep at its principal place of business all of the following:

(b) Upon reasonable request, a member may, at the member's own expense, inspect and copy during ordinary business hours any LLC record unless otherwise provided in articles of operation.

(c) Members or, if the management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers, managers shall provide true and full information of all things affecting the members to any member or to the legal representative of any member upon reasonable request of the member or the legal representative.

(d) Failure of a LLC to keep or maintain any of the records of information required under this Section shall not be grounds for imposing liability on any person for the debts and obligations of the LLC.

§12-1-26 Admission of Members

(a) In connection with the formation of a LLC, a person acquiring LLC interest is admitted as a member upon formation unless the articles of operation otherwise provides.

(b) After the formation of a LLC, a person acquiring a LLC interest is admitted as a member of the LLC as specified in the articles of operation or, if not so specified, by a majority in interest of members.

§12-1-27 Dissociation

(a) A person ceases to be a member of a LLC upon the occurrence of and at the same time of any of the following events:

 - (B) The entry of an order by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the member incompetent to manage the member's person or estate.
- (5) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or by written agreement or by the written consent of all members at the time, if the member is a trust, corporation, partnership, or limited liability company upon liquidation, dissolution, or termination.

(b) The members may provide in articles of operation for other events the occurrence of which result in a person ceasing to be a member of the LLC.

(c) Unless articles of operation provide that a member does not have the power to withdraw by voluntary act from a LLC, the member may do so at any time by giving written notice to the other members or as provided in articles of operation. If the member has the power to withdraw but the withdrawal is a breach of the articles of operation, the LLC may offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the member, in addition to pursuing any remedies provided for in articles of operation or otherwise available under applicable law.

§12-1-28 Contributions

(a) A member's contributions to a LLC may consist of cash, property, or services rendered, or promissory notes or other written obligations to provide cash or property or to perform services.

(b) The value of a member's contribution shall be determined in the manner provided in articles of operation. If the articles of operation do not fix a value to a contribution, the value of a contribution shall be approved by a majority in interest of the members, shall be properly reflected in the records and information kept by the LLC under §12-1-25(a). The value of contributions so determined shall be binding and conclusive on the LLC and its members.

§12-1-29 Liability for Contribution

(a) An obligation of a member to provide cash or property or to perform services as a contribution to a LLC is not enforceable unless specified in a writing signed by the member.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation, a member is obligated to a LLC to perform any enforceable promise to provide cash or property or to perform services, even if the member is unable to perform because of death, disability, or any other reason. If a member does not provide cash, property, or services as promised, the member is obligated at the option of the LLC to provide cash equal to that portion of the value of the stated contribution that has not been fulfilled.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation, a member's obligation to provide cash or property or perform services as a contribution to the LLC may be compromised only by the written consent of all of the members.

§12-1-30 Allocation of Profits and Losses

The profits and losses of a LLC shall be allocated among the members in the manner provided in the articles of operation. If the members do not enter into articles of operation or the articles of operation do not so provide, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the value of the contributions made by each member.

§12-1-31 Interim Distributions

Except as provided in this Act, a member is entitled to receive distributions from a LLC before the member's dissociation from the LLC and before its dissolution and winding up to the extent and at the times or upon the events specified in articles of organization, or to the extent and at the times determined by the members or managers.

§12-1-32 Allocation of Distributions

Distributions of cash or other assets of a LLC shall be allocated among the members as provided in articles of operation, or if the articles of operation do not provide, on the basis of the value of the contributions made by each member.

§12-1-33 Distribution Upon Partial Redemption

Except as provided in this Act, upon the distribution in partial liquidation of a member's interest, the redeeming member is entitled to receive the amount to which the member is entitled under articles of operation and, if not otherwise provided in articles of operation, the fair value of the redeemed interest based on the member's right to share in distributions from the LLC.

§12-1-34 Distribution Upon Dissociation

Except as otherwise provided in this Act, upon an event of dissociation under §12-1-27 that does not cause dissolution of the LLC, a dissociating member is entitled to receive any distribution to which a member is entitled under articles of operation and, if not otherwise provided in articles of operation the fair value of the member's interest in the LLC based on the member's rights to share in distributions from the LLC.

§12-1-35 Distribution in Kind

Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation:

(a) A member may not demand and receive any distribution from a LLC in any form other than cash.

(b) A member may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind except for a liquidating distribution made proportionately.

§12-1-36 Right to Distribution

At the time that a member becomes entitled to receive a distribution from a LLC, the member has the status of and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor of the LLC with respect to the distribution.

§12-1-37 Limitations of Distributions

(a) A LLC may not declare or make a distribution to any of its members, if after giving effect to the distribution, any of the following would occur.

- (1) The LLC would be unable to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business.
- (2) The fair market value of the LLC's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed for the preferential rights upon dissolution of members, if any, unless articles of operation provides otherwise.

(b) An LLC may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited by paragraph (a), above, on any of the following:

- (1) Financial statements and other financial data prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable under the circumstances.

- (2) A fair market valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(c) An LLC's indebtedness to a member incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this Section is at parity with the LLC's indebtedness to its general unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by written agreement. This Section does not affect the validity or priority of a security interest in a LLC's property that is created to secure the indebtedness to the member.

§12-1-38 Liability for Wrongful Distribution

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), below, other than the Tribe, a manager who votes or assents to a distribution in violation of §12-1-37 or of articles of operation is personally liable to the LLC for the amount of the excess distribution, subject to contribution from all other managers or members participating in such action.

(b) A proceeding under this Section is barred unless it is brought within two (2) years after the date on which the effect of the distribution was measured under §12-1-31.

§12-1-39 Ownership of LLC Property

(a) All property originally transferred to or acquired by a LLC is property of the LLC and not the members individually.

(b) Property acquired with LLC funds is presumed to be LLC property.

(c) Property may be acquired, held, and conveyed in the name of the LLC.

§12-1-40 Transfer of Property

The property of a LLC may be transferred by an instrument of transfer executed by any member in the name of the LLC, unless management is vested in managers, in which case the document of transfer shall be executed by a manager, subject to any limitation that may be imposed by the articles of operation.

A LLC interest is personal property.

§12-1-42 Assignment of LLC Interest

(a) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation:

(1) A LLC interest is assignable in whole or in part.

(2) An assignment of a LLC interest entitles the assignee to receive only the distributions and to share in the allocations of profits and losses to which the assignee would be entitled with respect to the assigned interest.

(3) An assignment or a LLC interest does not dissolve the LLC.

- (4) Unless and until the assignee becomes a member of the LLC under §12-1-44, the assignment of a LLC interest does not entitle the assignee to participate in the management or exercise rights of a member.
- (5) Unless and until the assignee of a LLC interest becomes a member of the LLC under §12-1-44, the assignor continues to be a member.
- (6) The assignor of a LLC interest is not released from any personal liability arising under this Act as a member of the LLC solely as a result of the assignment.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation, the granting of a security interest, lien, or other encumbrance in or against any or all of a member's LLC interest is not assignable and shall not cause the member to cease to have the power to exercise any rights or powers of a member.

§12-1-43 Rights of Judgment Creditor

On application to a court of competent jurisdiction, including a court other than the Nez Perce Tribal Court, having valid jurisdiction over the member by any judgment creditor of a member, the court may charge the LLC interest of any member other than the Tribe with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the member's LLC interest. This Section does not deprive any member of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the LLC interest. In no event shall the Tribe's interest be attachable in abrogation of its sovereign immunity.

§12-1-44 Right of Assignee to Become a Member

(a) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation, an assignee of a LLC interest may become a member only if the other members unanimously consent.

(b) An assignee of a LLC interest who becomes a member has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of the assignor under articles of operation and this Act.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation, an assignor of a LLC interest is not released from any liability to the LLC without the written consent of all the members, whether or not the assignee becomes a member.

§12-1-45 Powers of Legal Representative

If a member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the member to be incompetent to manage his or her person or property, the member's personal representative, administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee, or other legal representative shall have all the rights of an assignee of the member's interest. If a member is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited liability company, or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.
