§12-1-1 Short Title

This Code shall be known and may be cited as the Nez Perce Tribe Limited Liability Companies Act.

(a) Article VIII, Section 2(c) of the Nez Perce Tribe Constitution gives the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee the power to make laws, including codes, ordinances, resolutions, and statutes.

§12-1-3 Purposes

Limited Liability Companies may be organized under this Act for any lawful purpose or purposes.

§12-1-4 Applicability

The provisions of this Act shall apply to all limited liability companies (LLC) organized hereunder or which elect to accept the provisions of this Act. Pre-existing LLC=s shall be deemed to be in valid existence and allowed a ninety (90) day grace period from the date of the adoption of this Act to amend or conform their articles of organization in order to comply with the provisions herein.

§12-1-5 Rules of Construction

(a) It is the policy of this Act to give maximum effect to the principle of freedom of contract and to the enforceability of articles of operation and other agreements.

(b) Unless displaced by particular provisions of this Act, the principles of law and equity supplement this Act.

§12-1-6 Definitions

Terms used in this Act have the following meaning:

(a) "Articles of Operation" means an agreement in writing among all of the members as to the conduct of the business of a limited liability company and its relationships with its members.

(b) "Articles of Organization" means the articles filed under §12-1-14 and those articles as amended or restated.

(f) "Entity" includes an individual, a general partnership, limited partnership, a domestic or foreign limited liability company, a trust, an estate, an association, a corporation, or any other legal or commercial entity and the Tribe.

(g) "Foreign" refers to limited liability companies and limited partnerships organized under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the Nez Perce Tribe.

(h) "NPTEC" means the Nez Perce Tribal Executive Committee.

(i) "Limited Liability Company" or "Domestic Limited Liability Company" means an organization formed under this Act, except as provided for in §12-1-53(a).

(b) The name of a domestic LLC shall be distinguishable from any LLC or corporation previously organized under the laws of the Tribe.

§12-1-8 Registered Office and Registered Agent

A limited liability company's registered agent is the company's agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the company under the laws of the Tribe.

(a) Each LLC shall continuously maintain a registered office and a registered agent. The registered office may, but need not, be the same as any of its places of business. (c) Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as creating any liability or waiving of sovereign immunity of the Tribe in any manner; provided that the assets of the LLC in which the Tribe holds an interest may be subject to liabilities and claims unless otherwise provided herein. In no event shall any action taken by the Tribe concerning the exercise of any right or privilege or discharge of any duty with respect to an interest in a LLC be construed as a waiver of immunity or creation of a liability on the part of the Tribe separate and apart from its interests as a member of the LLC.

(d) If the Tribe is the sole member of a LLC formed under this Act, that LLC shall possess the Tribe's sovereign immunity from suit except to the extent otherwise provided in its Articles of Operation.

§12-1-10 Nature of Business

A limited liability company may be organized under this Act for any lawful purpose. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of operation, a LLC organized and existing under this Act has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary and convenient to carry out its business, including but not limited to all of the following:

(a) Sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its name, provided that if a LLC is wholly owned by the Tribe, it shall be entitled to and shall enjoy the Tribe's sovereign immunity from suit unless the articles of organization otherwise provide.

 - (2) The act of any member, including the execution in the name of the LLC of any instrument for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course of business, the business of the LLC, binds the LLC in the particular matter, unless the person with whom the member is dealing has knowledge that the member has no authority to act in this matter.
 - (3) If the Tribe is a Member, the Tribe's authority shall be exercised only by the person(s) duly appointed in the Articles of Organization to exercise such authority on behalf of the Tribe for purposes of the LLC.
- (b) If management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers:
 - (1) No member, solely by being a member, is an agent of the LLC or of the other members.
 - (2) Each manager is an agent of the LLC, but not of the members, for the purpose of its business. The act of any manager, including the execution in the name of the LLC of any instrument for apparently carrying on the ordinary course of business of the LLC, binds the LLC unless the manager has, in fact, no authority to act for the LLC in the particular matter, and the person with whom the manager is dealing has knowledge that the manager has no authority to act in the matter.
- (c) No act of a member or, if management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers, of a manager that is not apparently for the carrying on in the ordinary course of business, the business of the LLC shall bind the LLC unless in fact the act is authorized at the time of the transaction or at any other time.

§12-1-16 Admissions of Members and Managers

- (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), below, an admission or representation made by any member concerning the business of a LLC within the scope of the member's actual authority as provided in §12-1-15 may be used as evidence against the LLC in any legal proceeding.
- (b) If management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers:
 - (1) An admission or representation made by a manager concerning the business of a LLC within the scope of the manager's authority as provided under §12-1-15 may be used as evidence against the LLC in any legal proceeding.

member's capacity as a member, is not evidence against the LLC in any legal proceeding.

§12-1-17 Knowledge of or Notice to Member or Manager

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) below, notice to any member of any matter relating to the business of a LLC, and the knowledge of a member acting in the particular matter, acquired while a member or known by the person at the time of becoming a member, and the knowledge of any member who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting member, operate as notice to or knowledge of the LLC.

(b) If management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers:

- (1) Notice to any manager of any matter relating to the business of the LLC, and the knowledge of the manager acting in the particular matter acquired while a manager or known by the person at the time of becoming a manager and the knowledge of any other manager who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting manager, operate as notice to or knowledge of the LLC.
- (2) Notice to or knowledge of any member while the member is acting solely in the capacity of a member is not notice to or knowledge of the LLC.

§12-1-18 Liability of Members to Third Parties

The debts, obligations, and liabilities of a LLC, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the LLC. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Act, a member or manager of a LLC is not personally liable for any debt, obligation, or liability of a LLC, as defined in the Articles of Operation.

§12-1-19 Parties to Action

A member of a LLC is not a proper party to a proceeding by or against a LLC solely by reason of being a member of the LLC, except if any of the following exist.

(a) The object of the proceeding is to enforce a member's right against or liability to the LLC.

(b) The action is brought by a member under §12-1-20.

§12-1-20 Authority to Sue

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of operation, an action on behalf of a LLC may be brought in the name of the LLC by:

(a) One or more members of the LLC, if authorized by a majority in interest of members, excluding the vote of any member who has an interest in the outcome of the action that is adverse to the interest of the LLC.

(b) One or more managers of a LLC if the management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers, or if the managers are authorized to sue by a majority in interest if members.

§12-1-21 Management

(a) Unless the articles of organization vest management in one or more managers, management of the LLC shall be vested in the members subject to any provision in articles of operation or this Act restricting or enlarging the management rights and duties of any member or group of members.

(b) If the articles of organization vest management in one or more managers, management of the business or affairs of the LLC shall be invested in the manager or managers subject to any provisions in articles of operation or this Act restricting or enlarging the management rights and duties of any manager or group of managers. Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation, the manager or managers:

- (1) Shall be designated, appointed, elected, removed, or replaced by a vote of a majority in interest of the members.
- (2) Need not be members of the LLC nor individuals.
- (3) Unless earlier removed or earlier resigned, shall not hold office until a successor is elected and qualified.

§12-1-22 Duties

Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation:

(a) No member or manager shall act or fail to act in a manner that constitutes any of the following:

- (1) A willful failure to deal fairly with the LLC or its members in connection with a matter in which the member or manager has a material conflict of interest.
- (2) A violation of criminal law, unless the member or manager had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.
- (3) A transaction from which the member or manager derived an improper personal profit.
- (4) Willful misconduct.

(b) Every member and manager shall account to the LLC and hold as trustee for it any improper personal profit derived by that member or manager without the consent of a majority of the disinterested members or managers, or other persons participating in the management of the LLC, from any of the following:

- (1) A transaction connected with the organization, conduct, or winding up of the LLC.
- (2) A use by a member or manager of the property of a LLC, including confidential or proprietary information or other matters entrusted to the person as a result of the person's status as member or manager.

- (3) Articles of operation may impose duties on its members and managers that are in addition to, but not in abrogation of, those provided in paragraph (a), above.

§12-1-23 Limitation of Liability and Indemnification

In this Section, "expenses" mean expenses of defending a lawsuit, including attorney's fees, and any civil judgment or penalty, or settlement payment in lieu thereof, paid in connection with a lawsuit against a member or manager in such capacity.

(a) A LLC shall indemnify or allow expenses to each member and each manager for all reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding if that member or manager was a party to the proceeding in the capacity of a member or manager.

(b) Articles of Operation may alter or provide additional rights to indemnification or allowance of expenses to members and managers.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), above, a LLC may not indemnify a member or manager unless it is determined that the member or manager did not breach or fail to perform a duty to the LLC as provided in §12-1-22.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation:

- (1) A member or manager shall be conclusively presumed not to have breached or failed to perform a duty to the LLC to the extent that the member or manager has been successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of the proceeding.
- (2) In situations not described in paragraph (1), above, the determination of whether member or manager has breached or failed to perform a duty to the LLC shall be made by the vote of a majority in interest of the members, excluding any member who is a party to the same or related proceeding unless all members are parties.

§12-1-24 Voting

(a) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or this Section, and subject to paragraph (b), below, an affirmative vote, approval, or consent as follows shall be required to decide any matter connected with the business of a LLC.

- (1) If management of a LLC is reserved to the members, an affirmative vote, approval, or consent by majority in interest of members.
- (2) If the management of a LLC is vested in one or more managers, the affirmative, vote, consent, or approval of more than fifty percent (50%) of the managers.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or this Act, the affirmative vote, approval, or consent of all members shall be required to do any of the following:

- (1) Amend the articles of organization.

- (2) Issue an interest in a LLC to any person.
- (3) Adopt, amend, or revoke articles of operation.
- (4) Allow a LLC to accept any additional contribution from a member.
- (5) Allow a partial redemption of an interest in a LLC under §12-1-33.
- (6) Value contributions of members under §12-1-28.
- (7) Authorize a manager, member, or other person to do any act on behalf of the LLC that contravenes the articles of operation.

(c) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation if any member is precluded from voting with respect to a given matter, the value of the contribution represented by the interest in the LLC with respect to which the member would otherwise have been entitled to vote shall be excluded from the total contributions made to the LLC for purposes of determining the fifty percent (50%) threshold under §12-1-6(j) for that matter.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or this Section, if all or part of an interest in the LLC is assigned under §12-1-42, the assigning member shall be considered the owner of the assigned interest for purposes of determining the 50% threshold under §12-1-6(j) until the assignee of the interest in the LLC becomes a member under §12-1-44.

§12-1-25 Records and Information

(a) A LLC shall keep at its principal place of business all of the following:

- (1) A list, in alphabetical order, of each past and present member and, if applicable, manager.
- (2) A copy of the articles of organization and all amendments to the articles, together with executed copies of any powers of attorney under which any articles were executed.
- (3) A record of all matters referred to in this Act as maintained in such records which are not otherwise specified in the articles of operation.

(b) Upon reasonable request, a member may, at the member's own expense, inspect and copy during ordinary business hours any LLC record unless otherwise provided in articles of operation.

(c) Members or, if the management of the LLC is vested in one or more managers, managers shall provide true and full information of all things affecting the members to any member or to the legal representative of any member upon reasonable request of the member or the legal representative.

(d) Failure of a LLC to keep or maintain any of the records of information required under this Section shall not be grounds for imposing liability on any person for the debts and obligations of the LLC.

§12-1-26 Admission of Members

(a) In connection with the formation of a LLC, a person acquiring LLC interest is admitted as a member upon formation unless the articles of operation otherwise provides.

(b) After the formation of a LLC, a person acquiring a LLC interest is admitted as a member of the LLC as specified in the articles of operation or, if not so specified, by a majority in interest of members.

§12-1-27 Dissociation

(a) A person ceases to be a member of a LLC upon the occurrence of and at the same time of any of the following events:

- (1) The member withdraws by voluntary act.

 - (B) Files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.
 - (C) Becomes the subject of an order for relief under the federal bankruptcy laws or state or Tribe insolvency laws.
 - (D) Fails to gain dismissal of any federal bankruptcy or state or Tribe insolvency proceeding within 120 days of commencement of an involuntary proceeding.
- (4) Unless provided in articles of operation or by the written consent of all members, if the member is an individual:
 - (A) The member's death.
 - (B) The entry of an order by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating the member incompetent to manage the member's person or estate.
- (5) Unless otherwise provided in articles of operation or by written agreement or by the written consent of all members at the time, if the member is a trust, corporation, partnership, or limited liability company upon liquidation, dissolution, or termination.

(b) The members may provide in articles of operation for other events the occurrence of which result in a person ceasing to be a member of the LLC.

(c) Unless articles of operation provide that a member does not have the power to withdraw by voluntary act from a LLC, the member may do so at any time by giving written notice to the other members or as provided in articles of operation. If the member has the power to withdraw but the withdrawal is a breach of the articles of operation, the LLC may offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the member, in addition to pursuing any remedies provided for in articles of operation or otherwise available under applicable law.

§12-1-28 Contributions

(a) A member's contributions to a LLC may consist of cash, property, or services rendered, or promissory notes or other written obligations to provide cash or property or to perform services.

(b) The value of a member's contribution shall be determined in the manner provided in articles of operation. If the articles of operation do not fix a value to a contribution, the value of a contribution shall be approved by a majority in interest of the members, shall be properly reflected in the records and information kept by the LLC under §12-1-25(a). The value of contributions so determined shall be binding and conclusive on the LLC and its members.

§12-1-29 Liability for Contribution
